(Miss Marshall: The page of snap shots is from Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly of June 10, '65. Use those that seem to you most attractive if you have space for them. I rather like the house where Robert Lincoln was born.)
- 6) Fac-simile of poster issued by the War Department. The search for the assassin began before midnight on April 15, but it was not until Monday that the above poster was issued, offering a reward for his capture and those who by this time were known to be his accomplices.

(Miss Marshall: In No. 48, I think, you had a fac-simile of a check "Pay to a colored man, etc." If you have an extra photograph of it I wish you would send it to Miss King, secretary of S.S. McClure's Magazine, and say that it was sent at my request.)
