an old old friend
- one whom I had known since the beginning of his career

One of the rarest pleasures of life is meeting
after years an old friend. The pleasure becomes a pride when in the years of separation old friend has made more fulfilled
the promise of which you have ^{the} recognized in him.
I do not know if it

does not matter how many years it is
since I first looked on an I. of H. Bell
I remember the impression he made on my mind. My
dear old - you were a really good hand -

he was just like that I can't claim
you from him.
I am seized out

in Italian parties -

~~But~~
Perhaps he was

resemblance prof
of men with me
off the m. class
and - not remarkably
for masculine beauty
It was delightful
to hear tonight
