August 31, 2002: Lionel Hampton, legendary jazz musician, died at the age of 94.
September 11, 2002: The one year anniversary of the September 11th Tragedy was marked in Washington D.C., New York City, and Shanksville, PA, with the chiming of bells, 21-gun salutes, and the reading of victims names.
September 12, 2002: SNL comedian Jimmy Fallon performs to a sellout crowd in Shaffer Auditorium.
September 14, 2002: The U.S. Postal Service unveiled its 41st Tarbell, along with three other reporters, Nellie Bly, Marquerite Higgins, and Ethel L. Payne, with her own postage stamp. Tarbell was the only woman in the Allegheny class of 1880.

October 2, 2002: "Red Dragon," sequel to "The Silence of the Lambs," and "Hannibal" was released in theaters.
October 4, 2002: The costs of gas, milk, and the minimum wage are compared.

October 4, 2002: "The Silence of the Lambs," and "Hannibal" was released in theaters.
October 7-20, 2002: Allegheny College held its biggest event of its 187 year history with the four day Celebration of the Liberal Arts over Homecoming Weekend.

October 8, 2002: President Cook announced the launch of a record setting $105 million, seven year campaign to support the schools new Theatre and Communication Arts facility, the coming Alumni Center, a fireworks display at Robertson Field, the Homecoming parade and Game, and a Centennial Gala.

October 8, 2002: The Center for Political Participation was opened to promote and study Political Participation projects among young Americans. The facility is soon to open and will help to foster an appreciation for the vital link between an engaged, active citizenship and democracy. Through the center, students are able to work with faculty, do research independently, and attend political science internships and conferences at the local, state, and national levels. Integrating programs into the community is a goal of the Center as well. Judy Lynch, former Eric County Executive, acts as a contact and advisor for the project.

October 24, 2002: Three weeks of sniper attacks in the Washington D.C. area and with the apprehension of John Allen Muhammad, a Gulf War Veteran, and John Lee Malvo, a 14-year-old. The attacks on suburban gas stations and strip malls left 10 people dead and three wounded in Maryland, Virginia, and the greater Washington D.C. area.

In Memoriam

Charles F. Mahoney
1981-2002

“Oh yeah, life goes on; long after the thrill of living is gone.”
— John Cougar—

On Monday February 11, 2002, Charles Mahoney passed away. He was a Junior double majoring in English and Political Science. His untimely death saddened many and he will be greatly missed. Chuck will be remembered as earnest, dedicated, and he was credited with having a big heart by all who knew him. He was from Burgettstown, PA, and is survived by his parents, a younger brother, and an older sister. He was an active member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity of which he was serving as the Vice President. He also played the tight end position on the Allegheny Football team. A Golf tournament was held in his name in September 2002 and a scholarship at his high school has been set up in his name by his family.

Raymond V. Tricomi
1981-2003

“Unable are the loved to die for love is immortality.”
— Emily Dickinson

Saturday February 22, 2003, a fire at an off campus house on Baldwin street left the house destroyed, five Allegheny students and two Meadville residents homeless, and one Allegheny student dead. Senior Raymond Tricomi, a Communication Arts Major, perished in the fire. Ray was a former member of Theta Chi Fraternity and was active in intramural basketball. He will be remembered as a caring and passionate person by all who knew him and will be greatly missed. He was from Wadsworth, OH. Following this tragedy, the school rallied to help the fire victims in any way possible. A benefit concert was held, ASG set up a donation fund, and dance parties were held with money benefitting the fund.

IT'S CHEESY! Shea Stenglein is just a little too excited about putting the pizza that she made in the oven.

WHAT'S THAT TREBECK?! Will Arnold, Chris Rorabaugh, and Joe Knupp play Jim Fitch, Ellen Kaufmann, and Josh Nolan in the Allegheny CLC spinoff of Celebrity Jeopardy.

QUITE DECADENT! Mary Shreve really finds the pizza made by fellow CLC-ers to be quite scrumptious.

JUST A NOTE TO SAY I CARE: The CLC boxes are a tradition at CLC—participants leave messages of encouragement to each other.

CRAZY JOE: Kristen Gall and Julie Wilson are brave enough to pose with crazy Joe DiChristina during CLC. Watch out!

Oceans of Opportunity

Orientation 2002

Above: ORIENTATION LEADERS 2002: The orientation leaders for the 2002 year were a wonderful, diverse group and worked hard to make the new freshmen feel right at home at Allegheny College; and their success became very evident!

Left: KISSING CO-ED’S?! These freshmen women stand on the newly replaced 13th plank on the rustic bridge. Look like there will be no dating upperclassmen for them!

Above: STRAIGHT A’S: These new freshmen display sheets with big A’s on them—the first letter of their new school and the grade they hope shows up a lot on their report card.

ATTACK OF THE GATOR: The freshmen will do anything to get into the Allegheny spirit, even as much as trying to imitate our loyal mascot.

WHAT’S THAT FLYING THROUGH THE AIR? Somehow it seems as though this group is supposed to be looking at the rock memorial in front of them not whatever is in the sky.

ONE MAN’S TRASH IS ANOTHER MAN’S TREASURE: This orientation group tries to look as stellar as one of Allegheny’s famous road sign flowers.
CORNERSTONES 2002. This award was created to recognize the accomplishments of outstanding seniors who have contributed to the Allegheny Community. The recipients of this award are chosen on the basis of leadership, community involvement, and academic accomplishments throughout their four years at Allegheny. It is a distinct honor to be chosen as a cornerstone. This year’s cornerstone winners were Rebekah Gayley, Julie Hersh, Krista Igou, Abby Collier, Matthew Synan, Ryan Reczek, Andrea Chalmers, Megan Fabich, Devon Hailey, and Leah Cole.

A Celebration of the Liberal Arts

THREE HEADS (OR GREEK ORGANIZATIONS) ARE BETTER THAN ONE: Alpha Chi Omega, Phi Kappa Psi, and Theta Chi teamed up to reenact the stealing of the 13th plank off the rustic bridge and earned themselves the Best Float award.

THE PRIDE OF ALLEGHENY: Alpha Delta Pi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon paired up to show their Allegheny pride.

MILK ME: Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Tau Delta paired up to create a spoof of the “Got Milk?” ads for their Homecoming float.

LEADING THE PACK: Several Allegheny Students and other members of the West Mead ’42 Volunteer Fire Department supply the traditional fire engine to the Homecoming Parade.

THERE’S A PINNING TONITE! Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Delta Theta recreated a pinning ceremony at Brooks for their Homecoming float.

SOUTH HIGHLAND HOTTIES: The residents of South Highland came out in full support of this year’s Homecoming.

G-O-G-A-T-O-R-S! These three girls know that the Gator’s love to yell and when we yell we yell like hell!

FAMILY AND FRIENDS: Members of the Staff Advisory Council and their families put together a great float illustrating this year’s homecoming theme and featuring their kids’ musical talents.

LOOK MOM I’M A GATOR! This little guy is having a great time at the Homecoming Game dressed as the Allegheny Mascot...think he might really be a Gator one day?

FUN FOR ALL AGES: Members of ANTS (Allegheny Non-Traditional Students) got their kids involved in showing Gator spirit and earned themselves Best Walking Entry with their snazzy moving gator float and mini gator kids.

HABITAT BREAKS IT DOWN: Members of Habitat for Humanity take a break from gettin’ their groove on at the Homecoming Dance to pose for a nice picture.

PRETTY WOMEN: These six freshmen ladies get their first taste of what a good party the Gator’s throw.
THE TERRIFIC THREESOME: These three guys take a break from working hard to show that they can still look good after a long day of helping out the community.

GREEN THUMBED GATORS: These two girls try their hand at fixing up a garden for a Meadville resident. It looks like they are doing a great job too!

A HOUSE INTO A HOME: This group of Allegheny students works on many aspects of this local house to make it more livable for its residents.

SLOW AND STEADY... Members of the track and field team show that they work well as a team both on and off the field.

Right: G.A.P. members get lucky and pose with comedian Jimmy Fallon after his awesome performance at Allegheny.

Below Right: B-I-N-G-O. Students hope to score a win during Survival Bingo in McKinley's.

Below Far Right: A member of Irish band “Stand” sings up close to a bashful student, though she most likely doesn’t really mind too much.

Below Far Right Bottom: Students gather on Brooks Lawn to enjoy the beautiful un-Meadville-like weather, good music, and some tasty wings and other food.

The 2002-2003 school year was full of awesome events sponsored by G.A.P. They showed 19 recently released movies including Spider Man, Divine Secrets of the Ya Ya Sisterhood, My Big Fat Greek Wedding, and Harry Potter & The Chamber of Secrets. They also sponsored over a dozen performers such as Jimmy Fallon, illusionist Craig Karges, musician Ron Irizary, comedian Juston McKinney, Irish band “Stand,” and “The Clarks.

Wingfest and the many Afterhours events, such as survival bingo, casino night, and karaoke were as big a hit as ever. This year also saw the introduction of Allegheny Idol, a spin-off of the TV show American Idol.

This year's Greek Sing was a huge success thanks to the hard work of the Panhel and Interfrat Councils. Events included Greek Awards, an All-Greek Letter Day, Mud Games at Robertson Field, and a Greek Service Day and Picnic. Pictured here are muddy ladies Erin Brady, Sarah Klingler, and Erica Kovach.

This year, the Recruitment Counselors for women's recruitment changed to Sorority Recruitment Counselors, or Sigma Rho Chi. Thanks to their hard work and dedication to promoting Greek Life as a whole on Allegheny's campus, spring recruitment was a huge success.

Sponsored by the sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta, the Greek Goddess competition brought out the woman in ten fraternity men. The contestants were judged based on evening gown wear, talent (karaoke), group toga dance, and a question and answer period. The winner was Greg "Tex" Goga of Phi Kappa Psi. Pictured here are Panhel President Ryan Rezek and Panhel President Kristen Gall.

This year's Greek Week was a huge success thanks to the hard work of the Panhel and Interfrat Councils. Events included Greek Awards, an All-Greek Letter Day, Mud Games at Robertson Field, and a Greek Service Day and Picnic. Pictured here are muddy ladies Erin Brady, Sarah Klingler, and Erica Kovach.

Fifteen members and leaders of the Greek community traveled to Chicago, Illinois for the annual MGCA conference. There they attended sessions on many aspects of Greek Life and brought back many wonderful ideas on how to continue improving Greek Life here at Allegheny.

No Matter The Letter, We're All Greek Together
Activities Fair

The Activities Fair is held at the beginning of each semester to give students, both new and returning, the opportunity to learn about the many organizations at Allegheny and allows students to sign up to be a member of these organizations.

Right: DRESS UP TIME! Members of SET (Student Experimental Theatre) are people of many identities.

Below: SERVICE TO ALL: Members of Alpha Phi Omega promote their co-ed service fraternity.

Left: HAVE PRIDE IN YOURSELF AND OTHERS: Members of Allegheny Gay Pride promote their values and events in hopes of increasing acceptance of all types of lifestyles.

Above Right: IT'S ALL IN HOW YOU PLAY THE GAME: Members of ARGO (Anime, Role Playing and Gaming Organization) display books and figures representing their many interests and activities.

Washington, D.C.
Attendees worked with the issue of HIV and AIDS in with a group called Food and Friends, Inc.

Huddleston, VA
These students did environmental work at Smith Mountain Lake Park.

Springfest, sponsored by G.A.P. and ASG, was held on April 12th. Though the weather didn’t seem like it was going to cooperate, the day turned out to be beautiful for events both inside the Wise Center and out. Four bands performed: Distorted Penguins, Oval Opus, Buzz Poets, and The Clarks. Other events included Henna tattoos, blow-up volleyball, climbing wall, caricatures, a pie the presidents booth, and lots of vendors from both the Meadville community and school organizations.

Springfest

AT LEAST IT’S NOT PERMANENT! Many Springfest goers took the chance to get a tattoo of the temporary and natural kind from a Henna artist.

IS THAT REALLY WHAT WE LOOK LIKE?!
Students had the opportunity to get silly caricatures of themselves drawn by a local artist.

ENJOYING THE BEAUTIFUL WEATHER: Students had the opportunity to scale the Outdoor Programs rock climbing wall.

EVERYONE’S FAVORITE!
The Wise Center was packed for Springfest’s most popular event, Pittsburgh band The Clarks, that had the crowd going wild.

THE TALENTS OF ALLEGHENY: Students listened to many student performers during Springfest, in addition to professional bands.
Up ‘Til Dawn

Supporting a good cause and having fun at the same time...

LOVE IN ALL SHAPES AND SIZES: This couple kisses and makes up after challenging each other at sumo wrestling.

HAPPINESS IS... As these balloons will tell you, helping the children at St. Jude Hospital really makes you feel great.

ALL SMILES: Now that their hard work has paid off, Advisor Keri Fadden, Executive Director Lindsay Nagle, and Advising Assistant Ryan Recezak can have a little fun.

All Together Now: Members of the Up ‘Til Dawn exec board and committees pose with Wendy Nave, Allegheny’s ALSAC/St. Jude Representative.

Get Your Groove On: Participants in Up ‘Til Dawn take part in the dance marathon portion of the evening.

Are You Strong Enough to Be My Man? These guys display their strength by building a pyramid built on trust.

Kappa Krazies: Maggie Bohr, Crystal Wincko, Katie Wheeler, and friend let their silly side show!

Let the Games Begin: A Four Square Tournament was one of the highlights of this year’s UTD celebration.

Good Food and Good Company: Curt Weaver, Kristie Seelman, and Becky Rittenhouse take a quick break from their delicious dinner.

Thoughts on leadership from Allegheny Students...

John Hreha, one of the featured student speakers, shares his leadership wisdom. The other student speaker was Amanda Childs.

“To me, leadership is accepting the responsibilities and sacrifices necessary to make a positive impact on the lives of others.”

-Chesney Cortese-

“You can either take credit for something or you can make it happen, a leader is someone who makes things happen.”

-Sharon Greene-

Cheerleading

Cheerleaders perform at Allegheny Football and Basketball games and other events throughout the year. They are a fully student run organization.

NOT JUST A LITTLE SONG AND DANCE:
The Allegheny Cheerleading squad demonstrates amazing acrobatic skill and athletic abilities.

LETS-GO-TEAM!
The Gator cheerleaders put on a sweet dance routine during halftime of a Gator basketball game.

G-0000 G-A-T-O-R-S:
The Gator cheerleaders keep the fans and the team pumped up by cheering on the sidelines during a basketball game in the Wise Center.

CELEBRATE!!
Members of the cheerleading squad show their school spirit on a float in the Homecoming Parade before heading off to lead the SWAMP in cheering on the football team.

The History of Allegheny’s Mascot

Over the years Allegheny's athletic teams have had many names such as the Hilltoppers, Methodists, and the Blue and Gold which all seem fitting. So how did we become the Gators? While the Gator doesn’t seem to be the most obvious choice of mascots for Allegheny, a school nestled in northwest Pennsylvania there is a great story behind its arrival.

In April of 1925, a group of Allegheny students published the first issue of a humor magazine that was titled Allegheny Alligator for the following reasoning which appeared in the first issue of the publication:

“The name, Alligator, was selected not because the alligator is noted for its sense of humor, nor because the haunts of the above-mentioned critter are located in this vicinity, but purely and simply because of the 99.4% alliterative value of its orthography. ...an Alligator has such a stupid, complacent sophistication that he will doubtless feel very much at home among a group of college students.”

The first issue also contained a column titled “Gator Gossip,” and in the fall of 1926, a new organization appeared on campus called the Go-Get-'Em Gator Club, the predecessor to the SWAMP. At football games, the club made its presence felt by occupying a reserved section of the bleachers and acted as the prime cheering section. By the end of the decade of the 1920’s, Allegheny's athletic teams were referred to as the Gators.

Allegheny Flashed 4th in the NCAC Final 2002-2003 All-Sports Standing
COMMENCEMENT 2003: On May 11, 2003, the 188th year of Allegheny College, 435 tassels were turned from left to right as graduates received their diplomas. The class included 391 May graduates, 36 January 2003 graduates, and eight September 2002 graduates. Due to inclement weather in the morning, the commencement ceremonies were held in the Wise Center. Honorary Doctoral Degrees were awarded to three people: Richard L. Pevar '64 and his wife Larissa Volokhonsky, who have spent the last 15 years producing award-winning translations of Russian literature classics, and Robert D. Dowling who performed the first double lung transplant, and the first ventricular remodeling in Kentucky. Mr. Pevar and Ms. Volokhonsky received Doctor of Humane Letters Degrees (L.H.D.) and Dr. Dowling received a Doctor of Science Degree (Sc.D.).

Ms. Willow Wilcox Brost '74, a member of the Allegheny College Board of Trustees was a welcome speaker. The class Valedictorian was Britt Marie Russert who, along with five other students graduated summa cum laude. The requirements for which are a cumulative average of 3.9 or above and a meritorious record; 55 students graduated magna cum laude with a cumulative average of 3.6-3.89, and 91 students graduated cum laude with a cumulative average of 3.3 to 3.59.
Fair Allegheny, yonder on the hill
Through all the years our hearts are turning still
In love to thee, and so they ever will
O, Alma Mater, Beatissima

Warm rests the sun, so soft on wall and vine:
No air in all the world can equal thine,
Again we flame our torches at thy shrine,
O, Alma Mater, Beatissima
