The Kaldron: 1914
THE KALDRON
1914
THE YEAR BOOK OF ALLEGHENY COLLEGE
TO THE MEMORY OF William Tenney Dutton beloved professor, mature scholar, loyal friend whose life and work are enshrined in the heart of Allegheny
we respectfully dedicate this, our Kaldron
Dr. John F. Eberhart was graduated from Allegheny College in June, 1853. Shortly thereafter he went to Chicago where he continued in his chosen profession as an educator. What he did as an educational pioneer in the then new West is well known, and the record of his achievements is faithfully preserved in the educational history of Illinois. In later years he entered upon a business career, in which he was remarkably successful. Most generously he remembered his Alma Mater and in a way which will forever associate his name with the progress of the institution. What he has done for Allegheny College cannot be described in mere money values. He gave time, as well as thought and affection. Once he said, "Most of my old friends are dead and gone. The college is about the only one left. I love Allegheny College." An earnest and faithful student, a successful educator and educational leader, a wise philanthropist, a true friend and a devout Christian, Dr. Eberhart will be remembered by those who knew him as a wholesome and helpful personality and great souled man.
"It is not proposed that the old arrangement of the stars shall be discarded, for it is the Flag under which this Nation has won its place among the foremost powers of the world. It has been suggested that with the new arrangement of the stars the Flag be called "The Flag of Peace," in the hope that this banner, the Flag of Washington, Jefferson, Adams and Franklin, shall usher in a thousand years of peace."

Before the final adieux as the last anchor is cast, the Board presents you its Log of the year's cruise. Even as we write the harbor is in view. The black reefs and shoals, the clear sun-bright depths, the gray moon-lit reaches, we have left behind us; and it is but little of their fair or foul weather which the log attempts to record. Many choice incidents have eluded us, and individuals may even wish that yet others had escaped; for we have done our best to depict for you Allegheny as she is often seen, but seldom photographed.

Throughout the year the Editors have borne in mind the fact that, unlike the ordinary log of a voyage, the Kaldron alone of the college publications, attempts to catch and visualize "the real Allegheny," which lurks behind the screen of convention. If, in a few instances, we have caught in small perspective a reflection of actual life on the Hill, by so much shall we feel that our aim has been accomplished.

PAUL FREEMAN BARACKMAN, J 3 0  Lineville, Pa.

"Honorable Judges Barracks," a youthful prodigy of Meadville High, entered Allegheny at the age of fifteen and has continued his dazzling pace ever since. Thinks he's in line for Phi Beta Kappa and—perhaps he's right. A member of the debating team which showed Pitt, what the duty of the government should be in regards to the immigrant. Paul intends to enter public life, and when he does this poor old nation will sit up and take notice.

MUZA ANCHORS K A 0  New Kensington, Pa.

"Girls, I just wanted to announce—"

"Mooty" was bequeathed by 1913 to the real class of '14, because even they recognized where she belonged. She spent one year in the woolly west, then came back to Allegheny to tame the wild ones. President of Y. W. this year, which gave ample opportunity for accomplishing her purpose. Represented the college at Eaglemere Y. W. Convention, and at the Student Government Convention at Wells College, 1913. One of the girls that all depend on, and that meets the trusts repose in her.

BEN RAYMOND BEISSEL, K K 7  Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Any culture today?"

Demonstrates the shaping force of environment; for Ben, who should have been a Booth or a Joseph Jefferson, is become president of Modern Problems Club. Environment did it. Ben comes from Pittsburgh—of course last year's work in College Council helped! He radiates quiet efficiency in German Club, and is positively indispensable to Duerer Duc, to which he has belonged since his freshman days. Seems to enjoy studying. A man of broad view, keen insight, and concrete humanity. We're proud to have him one of us.

KILE BOYER, Evans City, Pennsylvania

"Olé, Fatty, mornin'"

He is endlessly active, always on the run, kindly and accommodating. He is at best with his guitar and a bunch of boys and prides himself on his mouth organ performances. He spends his Sunday afternoons in Spring under the campus trees with the boys and his music. He is a most modest man, is hardly acquainted with the college girls, but known among the boys as a capable man and an all round good fellow.

ETHEL KATHERINE BACON, Meadville, Pa.

"Oh yes! Yes indeed!"

Steeps the hill in music, and keeps the old town cheerful. Having specialized in Bugs and other Oddities, Ethel has a remorselessly scientific turn of mind; yet is aesthetic enough to enjoy Italian and to cavort in Le Petit Salon. Talks five hundred words per minute, but has never yet been called talkative—perhaps because she always says something! And though the busiest girl in the class, she is always on hand to "Do Things." We are glad we went to college when Ethel did.

BANKS BOX BRENKEDRIDGE J 3 3  Conneaut Lake, Pa.

"If H. O. could have seen me on that Moonlight Excursion."

"Breck" has been with 1914 from the first and has always shown up strong in everything except assigned courses. One of Meadville Commercial's prodigies he gets results in higher chemistry by driving his Underwood like a three-year-old at the Conneaut Lake Fair. If "Breck" would cut out his silent partnership with the registrar's office together with his job of herding hordes of Pittsburgh damsels to the beauties of Exposition Park, we might have a better opportunity to appreciate him. As it is he competently managed last year's Kiblin, and appears at the German and Modern Problems Club Meetings (now and then). As a business man his success is assured.
CHARLES SIDNEY BURWELL
ΦΓΔ
Meadville, Pa.

"Sid," though he has to come a mile to do it, has made a successful go at almost every activity on the Hill, including tennis. To recount his presidency of the "Hugs" Club, College Council, and Editorship of the "Lit," together with Debat, Duer Dus, and Assistant Editorship of the Knabson, is only to hit the high spots of his career. And as for the girls, "If that nice Mr. Burwell wasn't so young," they would never let him escape to Massachusetts to become a physician.

MARY ELIZABETH BARDALL
Mountville, W. Va.

"Why, Professor, I was looking at you all the time." Mary told the truth there. She pays strict attention to whatever is going on, whether it be study or planning a stunt. The Hulling's Hall girls know her for her steady cheerfulness, she is a sure cure for blues and is always welcome when a plot for some secret fun is on hand. A good friend, a good student and a loyal 14-er.

CHARLES WILLIAM CARES
Meadville, Pa.

"Leggo my ear." His career of As in the higher mathematical courses was finally crowned with the success of being made an assistant in the Department. He may be seen, in all sorts of weather, striking for the woods with a ramrod over his shoulder, and a rabble of freshmen at his heels. He is one who scoffs at precedents when they are working ill; for he, an engineer, goes often to Senior Tea. And thereat we rejoice.

CLARENCE JAMES CARR
ΣΑΕ
Meadville, Pa.

"Ugh!" In spite of his nickname, "Shorty" is a man. By Kang Harper's direct testimony, he is a great friend to have, and is absolutely loyal to his classmates. A genial chap of few words and weighty. "Shorty" at present is manager of the basketball team and of a huge bulldog pipe. A thoroughly reliable business man; he is square without a doubt, for he keeps his hands in his own pockets.

MABEL RUTH BROWNING
ΚΚΓ
Scottdale, Pa.

"You wouldn't believe it, but, honest, girls, it's true." The official of the Y. W. C. A., whose specific duty it is to provide efficiently over the punchbowl at receptions and other such places. She keeps the records of the Senior Class straight, although the class does move along pretty rapidly. A mighty popular girl, and one whom Allegheny College has been good for, and who has been good for the college.

ISADORE COHEN
Sharon, Pa.

"Practice at 4, in the oratory." Another good man, strange as it may seem, from the class below. As the leader of the College Orchestra he has made it into an organization worthy of the name and of the college. One of those who spend most of their time on the third floor of Ruter. Next year he will assist the Philosophers' youthful mind to learn, but eventually he will be a physician, whom his patients will trust.
WILLIAM EDWIN COON
Albion, Pa.
"Anticlinal syncline of Paleontological Age."

Coon is the most mysterious man in the senior class, goes out after dark and in the daytime haunts the rocks, being Doc. Decker's right hand man. A member of the Albion Mudlins' basketball team. Will no doubt end his days as a geologist on the rock pile cracking stone.

MARIAN AGNES CARROLL
Kane, Pa.
"Well, Professor don't you think—"

Marion swung into our scope from the direction of Kane. Has been a brilliant light from the start. She early won a place in M. N. S. and the German Club, due to the capacity she gave evidence of at the spreads. She has sung in the Glee Club for four years. In 1912 she showed her histronic ability as leading man in Klee-O-Kleeet. In 1913-14, she was Vice-President of that organization. A good mixer and a jolly good girl.

ROBERT CRAWFORD
Cooperswown, Pa.
"Come, take a chance on a fifteen dollar raincoat for twenty-five cents."

If you see a quiet, innocent-looking youth pulling off some outrageous practical joke that reeks of Alden Academy you may know it is "Puss." He rarely appears to do anything but stand around and grin, yet every Freshman knows him through loss of hair, sleep, or unsuspecting cash. Although he was in Meadville every night of Summer School, as Harry's Lunch Wagon Man can prove, the eternally unsuspecting is how he slipped into 1914. But in any case we welcome him to help fill the front seat in Chapel, for we know he will conclude life as a trustee magnate or a Trustee.

CLARA ROSANNAH DAVIS
Union City, Pa.
"Silence, Silence, Silence."

Never talks, being too busy working up a Mona Lisa smile. Clara has more than her measure of class spirit, yet finds time to qualify for the high-scholarship stunt. A silent inspiration. Can smile in three languages. Lives in the library, but takes her meals at Haven's. And, never having lived in the Hall, Clara's ethical principles are still unwarped. Is going to teach innocent school children to conjugate "amo, amas"—think of it!

CHARLES MILTON DOTTERER
Munette, Pennsylvania
"Put your shadow in the middle of the horse's back."

"Chuck" comes from the wilds of Forest County where they raise football players and orators. Four years at tackle has given "Chuck" the name as Western Penna. tackle. He has also dabbled in track, breaking a few records now and then just to keep things going. "Chuck" is a brother of Hill and the question always arises, "Are there any more at home like you?" If there are, Doc. Hammert would be glad to see them for "Chuck" is in some way.

AUGUST DEMP
Meadville, Pa.
"Gee! I think as much of a D as most folks do of an A."

"Angy" is one of our Meadville boys who has a desperate struggle every morning at 8 A.M. to tear himself away from his soft German featherbed down on Water Street and consequently is seldom seen on the Campus except in full flight for some belated class. His appearance in class or Chapel is unfailingly heralded by a valley of words in high falutin tones. "Angy" is the happy possessor of a host of friends in town to whom he is somewhat better known than to his books or college associates. He is a familiar attendant at public speaking classes and an old wheel horse in German Club Banquets, where he is unrivaled in discussing pretzels, gherkins and table talk with Dr. Mulfinger.
LOUIS EDWARD ELBEL
Punxsutawney, Pa.

"Doc C's ethics would do if it were practical."
He is with us but not of us, being so buried in his own thoughts that we seldom hear of him. He enriches the Thoburn and Classical clubs by his presence and aid.
While keeping a good record here, he is also maintaining a fine ecclesiastical reputation elsewhere by his weekly efforts. A fine fellow of whom his class and school may well be proud.

RUTH DODD
KA O
Zanesville, Ohio

"O-o-o-o-o-o-o 0"
A little bundle of concentrated enthusiasm. Carried Kleeck through two years by staring, and through her senior year by bearing the weighty responsibility of its presidency. Washington's Birthday banquet also found her in the limelight of her junior year, and Quill Club claimed her for its own.* Manager of the Glee Club senior year. Subject to contradiction by a fair-headed member of 1913.

FREDERICK WILLIAM FABIAN
Diamond, Pa.

"It'd go this way—see!"
When a Freshman, Fred took a course in the Lyceum downtown, but has finally decided to specialize in the drugs-and-acids department. Now he spends most of his time over in Alden, seldom emerging, even for Senior Tea, so we haven't got so well acquainted with Fred as we'd like. But he has won the deference of the Chem. I success; the respect of the uninitiate; and the unwavering love of those who know him. Made practical use of his specialty at the Washington's Birthday dinner. For further items, see Who's Who for 1926.

WALTER HANCHETT FEDELY
Σ A E
North Guard, Pa.

"Definite Chemical Compound."
Most of Pop's time has been spent in the Chemical Laboratories, doing his own work and seeing that other people do theirs. He frequently plays the piano at Senior Tea. He will be best remembered, perhaps, as the President of the Senior Class, a class that really produced something besides caps and gowns in its final year.

STELLA ADHA FISHER
AX Λ
Ellwood City, Pa.

"Now you girls behave."
Stella is one of the few who can fool people into thinking that she is quiet. She probably causes more trouble and laughter than three ordinary inmates of the Hall, but her demure countenance would never betray the fact. She has earned and still fills with ease and marked ability, a most prominent position in M. N. S. Also helped manage Pan-Hellenics this year, and played the game square, as usual.

FEARL CECIL FIRST
Carlton, Pa.

"Let's go for a look at the birdies, boys!"
He has had experience in the ways of human and other animals, for he assists in the Biological Laboratory, and there he meets them both. He can find almost all the birds in the bookstore birdbook, and the probability is that the ones he can't find are no doubt extinct species.
The natural thing for him to do after graduation would be to teach, and if he chooses that vocation he will be a success.
JAMES HERBON GRAHAM, Jr.
Z A E
Meadville, Pa.

"No credit given. Doc. Lee jumped me for that this morning."

"Jimmy" has a home and duties down town no doubt, but he is up on the Hill a good deal, where we see him perform at the book store across the Great Divide whither all our cash goes, but we—never. But aside from the alert business man we find "Jimmy" a most companionable friend even when hovering between the "Big" House and Bentley. As a former Class Treasurer and present manager of the Glee Club we hold him a valuable member of '14.

NELLIE ELIZABETH FREER
A X M
Galion, Ohio

"How does this look, girls?"

Although rather unobtrusive, Nell has made for herself a real place in the college. She has had her share of fun in the Ilaill and has been for years a true and loyal member of M. N. E., loyal both to the N. and the S. Notwithstanding her habitual silence she sings upon the Girls' Glee Club, and whatever she does, does well.

EDGAR ROBERT HARPER
Meadville, Pa.

"I only laugh when I think of things a thing."

Despite the fact that he alone of his class does not go in for writing poetry, there is no Senior more loyal than "Kang." He was our class treasurer one year, but has since lived down that unpopularity, and is everywhere heartily welcomed, especially at Senior Tea, where he expounds the principles of the Ivy Club. Famous for his company smile. Came to us with a track reputation, which he has never sufficed. Kang is the most cosmopolitan fessor the college has produced since 1877, having been credited with twenty-seven different girls in a single semester. Unofficial bread-cutter at the Senior Sophomore banquet.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE HENRY
Φ K Φ
Clinton, New Jersey

"You'll never get rich."

"Dean" is an ardent adherent of the Engineer Corps and, though seldom seen in his front seat at Chapel, he may often be observed, out on the windy Meadville hills, carrying a transit for Ben Miller, city engineer. Was "Henry Willis" up to date, when the Phi Pts were in sackcloth and ashes after the Grove City 1912 Football game. "Dean" is some artist in the mechanical line, and his successful navigation of the Meadville streets last summer speaks well for his future work.

ELLEN MAY GIRSHAM
K A O
Yenangyoung, Burma

"Believe me."

Few people come half way around the world to go to school. Here is one and she has made herself a real place in Allegheny. She is a member of Koe-O-Klett, a pillar of the Quill Club, an enthusiastic officer of the Tingley Biological Club, and an active member and officer of the Y. W. C. A. And yet with all her duties and her strict attention to them she has had time to make a host of warm friends, who are increasingly glad that Burma is on the map.

MOREY POTTS JEFFERY
Φ I Σ
Meadville, Pa.

"I'll have you up if you take our picture."

A man who scorns sentimental poetry. A stern critic of Wordsworth, and a hard-headed business man. He distinguished himself in college dramatics in his sophomore year, and has played on his class basketball team. He won fame this year as a pugilist and this year as in past years has been the object of tender comment at Hulings Hall.

PAUL WILLIAM JOHNSTON
OIL CITY, PA.
“A modest, efficient, friendly son of Allegheny is he. As Editor-in-Chief of The Campus he has made us all proud of the paper he has produced. Under his wise direction as President, the Thoburn, Quill, and Classical Clubs have gained strength and repute. And he is a Varsity Debater. What lacks now but that he be one of the real students, and that he be also. He never missed a class event in his life, and mighty few College ones, including Sunday nights.”

GERTRUDE LENORE HAMMOND
REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.
“Excuse me for sneezing.”
She is better known as “Puss” because of her method of sneezing; and she does sneeze, but the resemblance ends there. She is a regular English shark, scintillates upon the Quill Club and writes Book Reviews for the Lit. Helps run Hulin’s Hall and the inhabitants thereof by her work upon the Student Government Board.

PAUL VORSE KLINE
OIL CITY, PA.
“Number nine, number nine to the foot? Now I can take it easy.”
After instilling knowledge into the minds of the Pollocks at Cambridge Springs for a term, “Kerpook” came back to the fold with the commencement of the second semester, and not a one of us but what was glad to see him waddling across the Campus, rotund and smiling as ever. “Kerpook” a long time ago found a new way of achieving greatness. Merely by taking the front seat at the Lyceum he has shocked generations of ingenuous Freshmen, who had just taken their notes out of Woolley’s Handbook, by his marvellous likeness to Professor Scarlett. Kline is a real science man, however, and we wish him success equal to that of his well-known counterpart.

WINFIELD SCOTT LANE
Mt. Pleasant, Pa.
“A fine night for a murder.”
Old “Sleuth” Lane is one of the familiar sights of the Campus, though, when he stands edgewise to the sun his shadow in often mistaken by the thoughtless Freshmen for that of a telegraph pole. If you look close enough into the far corner of the class-room you may also see him digesting several courses of Lockwood’s higher English. “Scotty” is an old stand-bye in Duer Div and the Modern Problems Club, while he further distinguished himself last year by playing the whisky part of “Jim Lane in the Holy Land” at the Minstrel Show. In addition to other nick-names he has recently given us his semi-professional title of “Cochran Hall Rag-Time Specialist.” One of the notorious Spring Lambs.

HETTY LINDA HOLT
BROOKWAYVILLE, PA.
“Now girls, I think—”
Linda started on her college career in Grove City, but has seen the error of her ways—not too late, thank goodness! She is now a true daughter of Allegheny and old Hulings, having used the fire-escape, taught Sunday-school, and elected a course under Dr. Smith. So absent-minded is Linda that even the head of the German department has had to remind her of a class. She says she expects to teach.

PAUL LINDBERG
WEST HOMESTEAD, PA.
“I usually go down College St. to the Phi Delta House.”
Paul has been with the “bunch” straight through the four years, and though very quiet and unobtrusive in his ways, is known for doing a few things well. From the first he has been with the basketball squad, where as left-forward he was combined with Junor in sliding in the baskets for several years. Wherever seen in Latin or Ethics Classes he is always making very little fuss about anything yet gets along in a most satisfactory way. With his customary thoroughness in all matters he has for some time been trying to effectually demonstrate that, “The longest way round is the shortest road home.”
JAMES REESE MAC GOWAN
Φ Σ Ο Smithport, Pa.
"W-e-o-B"
Ability, honesty, and hard work, have made his stay upon the Hill of untold profit to himself and to the college. A debater every year, a member of the staff of the Lit., a vice President of the Oratorical Association, and of the Y. M. C. A., he has been a powerful factor for good in the school. He was a real man and when he took his last semester in absenteæ we found out how much we could miss him and how much we had depended upon him.

MARY HELEN HOBSON
Α Χ Μ
Meadville, Pa.
"Silence reigns."

The official orchestra for the class of 1914, and not only plays the songs but frequently writes them as well. About the only sound she makes is of the piano but the soft answers she gives in class are usually about right. She takes her place among the French sharks in Petits Salons and Alliance Francaise, and mutters "Amenunt" when the German Club roll is called.

ALBERT ZELWIS
Φ Ξ Ο
Pittsburgh, Pa.
"Ye! Ye! Where's that gun?"

"Zel," the mighty hunter who keeps the Phi Delta in fresh meat, being the Nemesis of the feline race. "Zel" has held the college high jump record which is some distinction for a two hundred pound giant. Is a member of the Senior Basket-Ball Team and considered the biggest rough-neck in the bunch. A member of German Club, and takes all the high brow courses in school. Came back from England with the forest mustache yet displayed by an undergraduate.

PAUL EUGENE THOMAS
Φ Ι Δ
Meadville, Pa.
"Her yer! Br-r-rrr."

One of the real athletes. Star end and goal kicker in football, a guard in basketball, and a speedy sprinter on the track team of which he was captain his Junior year. He is frequently seen going to classes, has been caught twice attending Chapel, and was once known to answer a question in Ethics. Lives entirely in town. What will we do next year?

SARA ALTHEA HUNT
Α Χ Μ
Meadville, Pa.
"What did you say?"

Another one, wiser and able enough to leap lightly from the Centennials to a regular class. With her major work in the German Department she can, as the Secretary of the German Club, even write the minutes in German and read them weeks later. A good student, of course, but not a grind, and her inquiring mind makes her social life individual.

RODNEY DEAN MOSIER
Α Τ Δ
Hayfield, Pa.
"All stand! And sing the last four and first five verses."

A legacy from a former class is "Rod," and though we cannot have him with us throughout the last half of the year there is no danger of our forgetting the proper looking, little old man in "Trelawney of the Wells," the faithful sound of his "swiney" out on the field, or the way he used to cut and run over Sunday to that mythical Miss out in Hayfield. To everything which "Messina" has been in he has stuck through his whole course, even Y. M. C. A. singing, and we may well expect him by the same methods to arrive on top in after life.
JONER ARTHUR NICHOLS
Sharon, Pa.
"Let's go! Let's go!"

"Nick" came to Allegheny from Sharon High with a big "rep" and soon made good. Three years at varsity forward and captain the third year made "Nick" a marked man wherever he went and even then he was good for a half dozen goals. Nick is a tough neck Engineer and a faithful disciple of "Hut." Will get a job on the B. and O. with the rest of the embryo transit-trackers.

HAZEL GAY KELLOGG
Titusville, Pa.
"I should worry."

Always a cheerful smile to correspond with her name. Gay has profound respect and admiration for everything French. Her French tendencies have even affected her college course. She is one of the most interested members of Petit Salon and also one of the Alliance Francaise. A girl of talent and undisputed worth.

PIERREPONT HERRICK NICHOLS
Meadville, Pa.
"How much copy have we this morning?"

A three year man who can do things outside the curriculum is a good man, and here he is. He hasn't neglected his studies, for he is one of the "A" chasers, he shines on The Literary Monthly board, and heads the augment body which is responsible for this volume. Add to that, the fact that he lives in town and you may be very sure he is busy, and able. BS5 needed him but he couldn't seem to see it, with BS1 within his reach. We're glad.

SAMUEL HARRY NORTON
Meadville, Pa.
"Let's play 'The Irish Washerwoman.'"

A contribution from the old Prep. School, with the additional advantage of high school training. Dabbled in town fencing in his Freshman year, but has seen the error of his ways, and now spends all his time on the second floor of Heter. Chiefly famous as the unofficial artist of the Chrestians, and is credited with being responsible for that panoramic view of heaven that adorns our blackboard in the engineering room. Tickles the strings of the patient violin, and sings in the engineer's chorus. A true optimist and philosopher.

GERTRUD ANNA MUELLER
South Bend, Indiana
"Don't you think it would be nice—"

Has the distinction of having been elected a Quiller in her Sophomore year. Divides her surplus loyalty between Glees and German clubs, where she shines with the mild radiance of April's ivory moonlight. Never missed a college sermon but once, and then she had a good excuse. Hates boys worse than bad grammar; but say! She's a perfect housekeeper. Used to room with Ruth Baldwin; hence her penchant for dreaming.

OTTIE ALBERT PARMENTER
Erie, Pa.
"What does the Angry M-o-o-o-b say?"

To be frank "Ottil" is the only good thing that we know of that ever came from Grove City, and without him BS14 would lose half its unique individuality. His cast-iron lungs and silver-tongued horn have sounded victory above the roar of chattering underclasses in many a banquet and class fight. In spite of domestic and parental duties he has found time to be in the front ranks of oratory and debate, as well as on the class teams. Altogether the class has no member whose loyal spirit and enthusiasm better deserve recognition than "Ottil" Parmenter.
WILLARD DEICHMAN PARSONS
Hagerstown, Pa.

"Hello! Is this Cup. Phillips?"
willard claims to have spent three or four hundred dollars en route between Hagerstown and Meadville since he began his education here. He reports the Tribune Tattle from the North, and keeps in touch with all the "fan" affairs. Outside of the biology department, where he is a charter member, of the "Bugs' club, and the chem. lab, he is little known to us. Those who know him well say he is a royal good-hearted fellow. Too bad the rest of us could not enjoy more of his company.

CAROLINE LOIS REA
Lineville, Pa.

"Tangent Co—Tangent Co—Secant Co—Sine."
The Registrar is her official advisor, but we notice that Lois has elected less of work under Doctor Long. She has taken advantage of all available Math. and Physics courses, college sermons, and missionary projects, yet has kept her heart young and lovable; and, though for three years a stranger to the Hall, Lois has made every girl her friend. Will probably teach Math.—for a while.

JOHN CLARENCE PIERSON
Meadville, Pa.

"Yingle, Yingle."
Big Swede hails from Meadville High and jumped into things at the very start. For four years Johnny has been a terror to opposing tackles. Big Swede and little Swede have been dubbed the white haired wonders and—they are. Johnny is an engineer and when he gets out of school is going to run the Panama Canal for the government. He also may get a position on the Baldwin Locomotive Special.

HARRY FLOYD RAMSEY
AT A
Renfrew, Pa.

"Remember boys, the fifteenth's coming."
"Heavy-foot" Ramsey is one of Professor Dutton's engineers whose footsteps we shall be sorry to lose. A steady at all class and college functions he has been a steady booster for 1914 through all its vicissitudes. Most of all this, whether at work or play, from his lanky height, "Lengthy" has during all four years, showed us with a unique and pungent brand of Renfrew humor that refuses to be labeled or imitated. To most of us he is best remembered as a member of the football squad and manager of the eleven in 1912. Floyd has never been known to approach the fair sex, since being caught between two thorns on the front seat at church.

GERTRUDE REED
AT A
Sandy Lake, Pa.

"When I was a child..."
And Gertrude has lost none of the winsomeness of her childhood ways. Those of us who know her best, value her friendship for its honesty and faithfulness. She is one of T's students and has established a reputation for thoroughness in her college work. She is a member of the College Council, a staunch supporter of Y. W. C. A, interests, and is also on the Student Government Board of Hallings Hall.

NATHAN LE ROY RAMSEY
AT A Renfrew, Pa.

"Bill."
Roy came to us from a suburb of Butler, that nursery for so many of Allegheny's basketball stars, and true to his locality he was for several years a valuable man on the Varsity squad. His keen interest, especially in athletics in old Allegheny, has been shown in his work as President of his class in 1912, and President of the Athletic Association in 1914. Inability to be with the team this winter has not prevented Roy from becoming an active member of the Hallings Hall squad. His ever-ready smile and cheery disposition will not soon be forgotten by his associates.
FRANK ALVIN RICHARD
Turtle Creek, Pa.
"Ture."
The genial secretary of the Athletic Association always has a ready smile and a cheerful word. "Joy" is one of our baseball stars, having played on the Varsity three years and captained the Freshman team. Class football and basketball have also claimed his attention. College society has always been proud of his participation in all matters pertaining to the fair sex. Perhaps that is one of the reasons why he always sees the silver side of the cloud.

JESSIE STONER REED
Scottdale, Pa.
"My land is that so?"
In spite of the fact that Jess has served two years on the Student Government Board, she has kept good natured, and still holds the distinction of being the most cosmopolitan foster in the Hall. Some one told her that contrasts were pleasing, so she has always favored light haired men, but she has had plenty of variety. She is a worthy member of M. N. E., the Glee Club, and French Club. One of those who make life pleasant in the Hall.

PAUL ROBINSON
Robinson, Pa.
"I'm coming, give me time."
He didn't like '13, so stayed out a year until we caught up with him. "Bobby" as an adopted son has been more loyal to the class than many of us "naturals." No class meeting would be complete without him. He belongs to that intellectual aristocracy of practical youths known as the Modern Problems Club. The weight of his head has shortened the remainder of his body until he reminds you of the "Little Giant."

GEORGE DEWITT ROSE
North Kingsville, Ohio
"Let's give 'em 'In the Vale,' watch me."
What would chapel be without George's tenor rising high above the college choir's discordant growl? The Glee Club could not sing unless George rose to the occasion. The co-eds suspect that he has an attachment out of town as he seems to be quite indifferent to them and is a good looking chap too. "Watch Caruso hang the ball over the fence, and get a free ticket to Klee-O-Klee."

RUTH MILDRED RICKER
Meadville, Pa.
"Oh, I don't think so."
While Ruth is modest, unassuming even, yet she accomplishes a lot. She gratifies her instructors regularly by knowing the lesson and has learned that there is a lot of fun in college. She is one of the Gleeful Girls and eats ice-cream regularly at Die Deutsche Gesellschaft. Never missed a football game yet.

CHARLES LEONARD STRAUSS
Sagertown, Pa.
"Wake me up at Sagertown."
A member who is accustomed to roll in and out daily from over the hill. Strauss is nevertheless one of the most faithful and diligent of workers that can be found in the ranks of the class. You may see him almost any day, sitting quietly back under Doc. Smith and drinking everything in, although he never has a word to say unless called upon. Recognized from the first as a History shark, Charley will probably continue to follow his propensities in this direction, and it is safe to say that with his quiet yet genial manner, Strauss has made more out of his four years at Allegheny than dozens who have made ten times as much noise.
CLAIR SWEETLAND
South Dayton, N. Y.

"Now, that man Smith is the—"

Clair is one of those few men who go about among us in a quiet, unobtrusive way and yet accomplish more in every line than one would ever imagine. He even combines efficient work as president of the German Club and of the Teutonic Association with no small amount of teaching in the Meadville High School. "Get! Don't we have fun with him?" Perhaps he is best known to the large circle of his personal friends for his queer drawing commentaries in life in general, phrased in such a humorous light that one cannot help but smile at the sound of them. "Sweet" is a noble supporter of Senior Tea when his roommate "Sol" doesn't sweep his parlors.

MARY MOOREHEAD SANSON
K A O
Clarion, Pa.

"Now girls, all get ready with your Cuckoo."

We couldn't get along without her, so she came back. Since coming she has run the college. As Harriet-Ball Captain, President Petia Salon, Vice-President of the Senior Class, Member Quill Club, and the Kalidoun Board, she shows her athletic, her executive and her literary ability. Of course she is a good student. If she is a typical daughter of Allegheny College, we're all right. Yet, if the suffragettes once find her, Good-by Mary.

JOHN T. TAYLOR
Irwin, Pa.

"Gosh, darn it all!"

Our "Sol" is a heritage from the class of '13, where he first won fame as their pitcher in '10 and '11. Later he was a member of the cast of "School for Scandal." He has served his Alma Mater as water in Cochran and Junior in the Gymnasium, 1913, and Ritter; also as baseball manager. His real fame is that of his college humorist and with those "Sol" Taylordettes he has made a niche in the Hall of Fame. But he will get lost in those long sentences, like a babe in the woods.

THEODORE THOBURN
♦ 1 ♦ 3
Meadville, Pa.

"Sign here."

Looks well in a dress suit and therefore has sung four years upon the Glee Club, which he managed in his third year. As president of his class in his junior year, he successfully conducted the hair raising raid upon Seniors and Sophomores; evidly, he loves a rough house better than much fine gold. Enjoys Modern Problems and Quills.

MARGARET SEITZ
A X 12
Hamilton, Pa.

"Sh! What's all this noise about!"

Margaret is another girl whom the girls have relied on to make things go right. She has put her shoulder to every good wheel. Was secretary of the Athletic Board, basketball captain, manager of the Glee Club, on the Y. W. Cabinet, a member of Klee-O-Kleen and Junior member of the Student Government Board, all in 1912. Has been President of Student Government this year, but it has not kept her from being human, and she ends her career with the respect and love of the girls.

THOMAS WILSON THOBURN
♦ 1 ♦ 3
Meadville, Pa.

"We've got to do something to make 'em sit up and take notice."

Bill is the man from Battle Creek. He spends his vacations there in the breakfast-food atmosphere. While here he vibrates between the Biology and Chemistry laboratories. His hobby, amounting almost to a fault, is the welfare of The Cledger. His activities range from singing in the Stone Church choir through newspaper work at Chautauqua to creditable playing on the baseball team. One of the charter members of the "Bugs" Society.

BERNICE LUELLA WILKINS
Union City, Pa.

"Don't call me Bunny!"

Curly-haired and winsome, with a store of concentrated learning that would endear her to the most bespectacled of professors. A stunning hostess took the Senior men at Jake and could have entertained Cicero or Plato in his own tongue. Yet she is even more esteemed as an enthusiastic listener—an excellent thing in women! A true cosmopolitan, belonging to both the Classical and German clubs. A good substitute for Extract of Sunshine.

CHARLES ROLAND WALKER
A X P
Brum, Pa.

"Is that Prof. cra-azy?"

"Spud" is one of '14's basket-ball quintet, and a good one too. The same enthusiasm and ambition that make him a good athlete also produced a fine student. "Spud" was never caught doing anything very wicked or even trapped into that game of college life, "funning." However, we predict that the crowning blessing will come to him among the other good things he is sure to win in later life.

GERTRUDE MIRIAM SHRYOCK
K K T
Meadville, Pa.

"Sure, I'll help out on that."

"Dutch" is one of those fortunate persons born with good brains and a happy disposition. Climbing college hill wears some people out, but her smile is as bright at the top as it was at the foot. We predict that she will clinch to the top quite easily in everything she tries. Dutch sings in the Glee Club, and babbles French at Le Petit Salon, but most of all she talks American, straight from the shoulder and right to the point.

RACHEL ELEANOR SMITH
K A O
Meadville, Pa.

"Well, what will we do now?"

We believe that "Buck" began life with a smile and the habit is so strong now that it is hard for her to be serious and dignified. She is one of the few rare products of the good old days of Alden Academy, where life was spicy and worth living. Perhaps this is one source of her happy disposition. Whatever the source is she has the something that makes her mighty good company. Lives in constant terror of growing fat, and there seems to be some ground for her fears.

EVERETT STEELE WEIDLE
Φ Λ A
Erie, Pa.

"Seen Jake anywhere?"

An Erie man with a sweet voice! During his four years here he has done a good many things worth remembering but he will be longest remembered, perhaps, for the prominent parts he has taken in the productions of Duzer Du Dramatic Club, as "Lady Teatle" and as "Tom Wrench." His last year he was the President of Duzer Du, and the manager, therefore, of "Arms and the Man."

ISABELLA THOBURN
K K T
Meadville, Pa.

"I've been to church five times to-day."

Bella is one of those consistent girls whom we can always depend upon to do her part in a satisfactory manner. She proved her business ability by keeping the records of her class straight in her Freshman year. We know that she is a good student merely because she is a member of the Classical Club. She has shown her musical talent in the Girls' Glee Club of which she has been a member from the first.
MARY HELEN THOMAS
AXX
Meadeville, Pa.
"Isn't everything simply GRAND?"
Helen is a jolly good girl with a host of friends, all won and held by her "chail-fellow-well-me" ways. A loyal member of German Club and always ready to fill the office of comissary. Had a Moving-Up Day speech her junior year that made us sit up and take notice. Never has to save herself at the expense of others. Ready to lend a hand any time. One of the enthusiastic girls that helps make class affairs "go."

LOUIS ALEXANDER WELLS
° 40
Wellsville, Ohio
"I'm a bugger for fruit."
One of the dying race of Allegheny Preps, Louie takes quite a delight in breaking the College track records, having three to his credit. Louie has the happy faculty of being either in or lack of every thing that has been done for the last three years. Originally a member of the Class of Fifteen and wouldn't be leaving it now, but for the fact that the world is in need of engineers and Louie feels that he must answer the call. Incidentally we wonder who will assume the responsibility for running the college when he is absent.

ADA THOMPSON
AGS
Cochranstown, Pa.
"Yes girls, I do think so."
Ada is one of our quiet senior girls, whose influence is felt in spite of her unobtrusive ways. She was ours of the Prep. School pupils and has known Allegheny as only the Prep. School people can. She has done most of her college work in the Romance Languages besides being interested and helpful in the activities of the French club.
Fred Joseph Mechlin

“One, two—one, two—Right face—Forward March!”

An all-around man is Mechlin, and one of that kind that always seems to have lots of business on his mind and can’t stop long. His last year he was busy building up the muscles of the Throgs on the other hill, but he is better known for gym work at Allegheny. Mechlin has been a special chemistry student and left us last year to continue his work elsewhere. Is a member of Modern Problems and Alpha Chi Sigma. Belonged to 1915, but his diploma comes to him this year.

WE WANT

1 A Representative STUDENT Senate.
2 Every Student on his Honor.
3 To save money by a Businesslike Budget.
4 Loyalty to College Traditions.
5 Either the Faculty or the Students to put out the Kaldron.
6 Every College Student Singing every College Song.

We STAND for these things, we WORK for these things, we are going to HAVE these things.

"Promptly at ten o’clock the Senior and Sophomore men assembled at Mead avenue bridge and started their circular march to All Inn, the popular Vallonia hostelry so famous and well patronized, and the scene of so much life in the balmy days of the Vallonia Race Track. Here the banquet had been prepared by the Inn chef and at eleven o’clock the doors of the private dining room were opened and the fifty men present were shown to their seats. The room was tastily decorated with the colors of the two classes in banners, pennants and paper festoons, and the various tables, which were lighted with candles in paper shades, were grouped in a double circle around the large round table reserved for the class presidents and the men on the toast list. W. H. Fegely, '14, president of the Senior class, presided as toast master and called for toasts from C. S. Burwell, '14, J. R. MacGowan, '14, O. A. Parmeuter, '14, B. R. Beisel, '14, A. F. Munhall, '16, and W. A. Brownell, '16. At twelve thirty the party adjourned, and every man reached his destination in safety."
This, the first section of our book, would be incomplete without some recognition of the work of Mr. Hickman, our Kaldron artist. As it is we are able only in a small way to emphasize the importance of his contributions to the Kaldron of 1914. Their value is self-evident. For a sufficient confirmation of this statement we refer you to the previous pages of the volume itself. To Mr. Hickman we can but extend our appreciation and heart-felt thanks for the time and effort which he has given.
Unofficial Calendar

September 15, Monday. Old students come back, and give free lessons in registering. Dr. Snively the most popular man on the Campus.

16. Freshmen get out their posters first—unprecedented. Sophs show their spirit by using clubs.
17. Sophies enter Arter, and the Freshmen get a close shave. The Sixteens flourish undignified posters on the Library windows.
18. Classes begin. Dr. Lee gives his infant class a talk on vanity.
19. "Subscribe for the Lit?"
20. Historic gavel, which Dr. Crawford had received from Dr. R. C. Smith, shown in Chapel. The Y. M.'s and Y. W.'s begin their year's work. College Glee Club stretches its voice.
21. "Gipsy" Smith's son speaks in Chapel. Freshman compliments Dr. E. A. Smith on his son's address.
22. Seats assigned, Seniors resolve not to spoil theirs by overuse. The students pose for the movies; true lovers walk far asunder.
23. Interclass contests go to Sophs. Allegheny puts it all over Thiel.
30. Lit. Competitors meet, and receive pads of funny paper.

October 3, Friday. College Council meets, and has a quorum. Professor Dewey plays in chapel—first Assembly morning.

4. Sophomore Girls win the Sophomore-Freshman Track Meet in the Girls' Gymnasium. Miss Hoffman's trained dogs won the most points. Bentley bell rings all night for the Hiram victory.
6 and 7. Church receptions for the students. Not much mischief pulled off.
10. Whistles blow to celebrate the opening of the Panama Canal. Heroic Freshies run to put the fire out. College Council has a lively (?) session over Freshman Rules.
11. Phi Gams and Phi Delts have a legalized mud-throwing contest in their football game. Everyone goes to the Lyceum to see how well he looks in the movies.
14. Dr. Lee follows the lead of the Classical Department and weaves a little myth for Chem. I. about oxygen and her affinity. Dr. Lockwood leads Eng. III. in a Burns song.
16. Pay Day at Hulings. Painless extraction of money by making the poor girls think they are having a good time.
17. Hon. Arthur L. Bates slips a little talk to the students in Chapel.

18. The faculty celebrates the Twentieth Anniversary of the Inauguration of Dr. Crawford. "Long live the King!"

22. Baseball A's awarded to the diamond heroes.

23. Football team smashes the record for high scores. Allegheny 93, Alfred 7.

24. College Council gives constitution to the "Lit."

25. Delt Smoker. Dr. Russell smokes his first cigar. Why didn't some one load it?

31. Hallowe'en Banquet to freshen up the boys at Cochran Hall.

November 1. Masquerade party at Hulings for the town girls.

3. Teutonia gives a party to the Freshman girls. Faculty all present by proxy.

4. Seniors have a worried look.

5. Last day for handing in outlines for Senior Theses.

7. Kaldron Board elected. Prexy promises to bail out any freight-jumpers that may be nabbed stealing their way to Tech. game.

College spirit pays. Allegheny 17, Tech. o. Bell rope breaks long before the Fresliies are exhausted.

8. Roll Call of C. E. members. "Prex" and "Froggy" stand as presidents of their societies.

11. Quill Club gets beat-en out of its refreshments by Miss Sansom. Dr. Smith further insults them by moving their coats and millinery out of his seminar room into the Classical room, where they are placed on public sale.

13. Armory dedicated. Dr. Smith takes Miss Spalding to the Ball. Floss Downing wears a red dress and a scarf.

14. Senior girls entertained by Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Lockwood, and Mrs. Lee.

15. Pan-Heavenly take the Freshman girls to Saegertown. Everybody's chance to make a hit.

18. College rowdies clap at "Officer 666." Bright, Metcalf, Hutchinson and T. Smith get thrown out.

19. Smoky. Student Alliance makes its bow.

24. Miss Spalding gives her fifth annual address on "My Attitude in Granting Permissions."

First Gym. class for the girls. All move carefully for a few days.

26. The girls don't have a party.

27. The girls don't go to Grove City. Grove City. game. Phi Delt House draped in black.

December 1. Bugs Club Organized. Dignified by the name of Tingley Scientific Club.

2. Men's Week begins.

4. THE Ivy Club Dance.

5. Student Government Board engaged in brisk action.

8. Faculty sits from 10:30 to 2:30. No verdict, but certain young ladies barred from the males.

12. Every one goes to the College Circus. No one sore except Dr. Smith.
13. Freshmen make a disastrous attack on “Pop’s” $50 Christmas Cake.

13. Hulings Hall Christmas party for men. Some of the Freshmen pay ten cents admission.

15. Famous Phi Delt cat dinner. Glee Concert at the Stone Church.
18. The first number of the Catalyser appears.
18. “Chuck” Flick leaves his girl in a hurry and gets sucked into the telephone transmitter.

January 7. Every one back except the ninety and nine who have stayed away.
9-10. Senior-Sophomore Banquet. The Freshmen entertain the Juniors at Cochran Hall. Most complete success in class banquets in recent years.

10. Teutonia Dinner.
12. Freshmen win the Freshman-Sophomore debate.
14. Quill Club has a humorous time in the absence of the faculty.
15. Prexy returns. Faculty start to go to Chapel again.
16. Prexy tells on himself in Chapel. Freshmen pleased by the idea that he can’t stay away from Allegheny. Phi Delt House and Cochran Hall searched by the movie man.
17. Glee and Mandolin Clubs give a concert in the Chapel. Prexy having advised the use of the buttonhole stunt, there is a fair crowd. Peg O’ My Heart plays to a full house.
19. Amid showers of enthusiasm, candy, flowers and rain Miss Spalding sails for Europe.

20. Second issue of the Catalyser.
21-30. EXAMINATIONS.
30. Bugs Club cat snails with Dr. and Mrs. Darling.

February 1. Russell gets paid off. Sinks his wad in “American Sugar Preferred.”
3. Flunk cards sent out.
3. “American Sugar Preferred” drops fifty points.
4. The events of the 3rd force the Mandolin Club to disband.
6. Wakefield Oratorical Contest won by P. H. Nichols.
7. Spiking Day for the men.
9. Senior Class frolics in the Gymnasium. Yocum’s begin their sale. New pictures make their appearance in the German room.
13. Dr. Lockwood wears a sack coat and an un-English collar to class.
18. Some of the naughty college boys delay the procession from Chapel and peeve Dr. Smith sorely.
21. Washington’s Birthday Banquet. Faculty much alarmed by the threatened class scrap. Everyone pretends to enjoy the toasts.
23. Nice cold day for cleaning up the Gym. Dr. Smith lovingly folds away the bunting.
23. "Pop" takes "Dot" to the "Traffic in Souls."
24. Cochran Hall gets boiled mutton for dinner.
24-27. License Court down town. Temperance speeches every morning in Chapel.
25. Prof. Hurgonje, of Leyden University, addresses the students.

3. Seniors busy scratching for subjects. Phi Gams all late for classes. Don't have the new beat timed.
7. Freshman wears a placard "Please tap my dome gently." Much contentious competition.
11. Mr. Rose sings a solo on the "Amen" at Chapel.
12. Prex arrives in Meadville. Faculty go to Chapel for the third time.
14. The Phi Gams pray for snow, and almost get a keg of beer.
15. Prof. De Grange preaches a college sermon.
17. Prexy gone. Faculty sleeps in. Freshmen girls trim up for Prof. De Grange.
19. The whole College mourns for their good friend who has passed on.
20. Worst day for Allegheny on record. Lose basket-ball game and two debates. Glee Club saves the day by scoring a big success at Union City.
21. Prof. De Grange sings a hymn. First day of spring. Shorter course in Ethics begins.

26. Mrs. Lucy Rider Myer occupies the Chapel hour. The Firefly gets a royal reception.
28. Adonis Bash passes his picture around in History II. Dr. Smith in opposition hands around Velasquez Venus of the Glass, but she has no chance to score a hit.

April 1. "Liep" and "Manne" patrol the Cussewago, 5:30 A. M., looking for headgear.
1. Dr. Russell just misses a nice bucket of water.
2. Third issue of the Catalyser.
10. Alpha Chi Rho granted to Theta Delta Psi.
15. Bishop Harris bids farewell to the students.
16. Dr. Miles in Chapel gives the cleverest speech of the year. Mr. Taylor keeps Mr. Sweetland home from Senior Tea by stealing the lower portion of his wearing apparel.

17. Miss Alice Chapin is locked in the classical room of the Library. The janitor takes her for a fixture.

21. Dr. Cobern discovers that someone cheated in Bible. He must be related to Sherlock Holmes—by antithesis.

23. The last Senior Tea. From the attendance one might judge that the class enjoyed them.

25. Announcement of Mary Sansom's engagement. Mary disappears.

25. Russell plays five hundred at the Phi Delt House.

27. Lockwood shows his fitness for Congress, by allowing the Fijis to hand him an Electoral Board List, most advantageously arranged.

28. Prex puts the hum on the Musical Comedy—"Interferes with studies."—Humph!

29. Fire alarm on the Hill. Phi Psi House gets too near Hell, burned at Halings.

30. Prexy announces that 29 orations are not yet in. An unheard of thing at Allegheny.

7. The real Allegheny comes into her own by the adoption of the Honor System.

11. Senior Speakers chosen.

Ethics Class driven to the Library by four hundred pages of readings.

13. Interscholastic Track meet. Campus look as though we had a second crop of Freshmen.

19. Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest.

27. Big circus down town. Some of our little ones cut classes to see the parade.

30. Memorial Day. Signal for the packing of baskets and the repopulation of Cussewago.

June 2. Dr. Crawford gives a dinner to the Seniors.

4-13. Examinations.

14. Baccalaureate Sermon by President Crawford.

15. Class Day exercises.

16. Organ Recital.

Commencement Concert.

17. Commencement Exercises.

Fraternity Banquets.—Good Night.

IN PROF. DARLING'S CLASS.

The Professor—"Parsons, do crabs respire?"

Parsons—"Why,—er—no."

Darling—"Do the lower animals respire?"

Parsons—"Well—yes—I think they do sometimes."

Darling—"Do you respire, Mr. Parsons?"

Parsons—"(Sure at last)—"No Sir, I perspire."

GETTING EVEN.

Professor Darling comes across Professor Decker in the Lab.

"What are you doing there Professor Decker?"

Decker—"Breaking a few rocks."

Darling—"Oh, don't take it so much to heart, we all may come to that some day."

A few days later Decker accosts Darling. "What are you and Grant talking about over there?"

Darling—"We were just discussing some bacteria one twelve hundredth of a millimeter in length."

Decker—"Well I'd call that a conversation over pretty small matters."

CLASSIC ANACHRONISM

Dr. Elliott in Chapel—"Today the policeman's uplifted finger alone means more than a regiment of riflemen did one thousand years ago."
When Timothy Alden went through the country, to solicit gifts for the college he was founding, he found not a few reverend benefactors desirous of giving books from their own libraries—"first removing," as the founder tells us, "all poetry and novels." So our first library was a staid company: books of biography, mathematics, theology; a Hebrew grammar; a Euclid in Latin.

But there was no place for them. Even Bentley Hall was not yet built. So the books were stored in one of the chambers of the "New Court House," where they remained until Bentley was ready to receive them. And that home-coming was a joyful time! It was in November, 1830; and the moving occupied three days. Citizens of the little town gave eager help, wagons and ox-teams being loaned by John Ellis, Esq., Thomas Foster, William Henry, Solomon Lord, and David Dick; while men like James Hamilton, John Reynolds, Jr., Harlow Ellis, Augustus Bradley, J. C. S. Kennedy, and many others, loaded the wagons at the little court-house, down-town. Then came the rough climb up the road which we now know as North Main street, and the piling of the books in the lower hall of Bentley—"the great entry," as the chronicler calls it.

Finally, on the twentieth of November, when all the books had been transferred to the Hill, the day came when the young men of the College could forget their Greek and Hebrew for a few hours, and carry the precious volumes safe to their appointed shelves upstairs. There was David Farrelly, who had already graduated; there were James Ellis and Thomas Van Horne freshmen both; there was William McMichael who did not graduate until 1835; and ten or twelve more. What would you not give to have seen them, and their library, side by side with our freshmen and libraries of to-day!

DR. SMITH WAXES METAPHORICAL.

The Doctor in History I.—"When little Augustulus lost his crown, Rome left the road for good, and the curtain was rung down. Indeed for some time this old soubrette had ceased to put it over the footlights, and technically the one night stand of Rome was down and out for good."
Go down, old heating plant, to the deep.
Thy fossil share deliver,
No more my frozen eyes shall weep,
Forever and forever.
Go. quickly go, lest yet again
Our books and classnotes shiver;
No more wilt thou our tasks restrain,
Forever and forever.

But here they'll build a larger plant,
And pipes that will not sever;
From thee a soothing warmth will slant
Forever and forever.
And here no more will geysers spout,
Nor smoke its smudge deliver,
And folks may hang their washings out
Forever and forever.

THE COLLEGE CRADLE

They keep it in the College Museum now, this heavy old wooden cradle; but fifty, sixty, seventy—no one knows how many—years ago, it was in active service, over in Bentley Hall. Some of the faculty used to live there, you know, occupying both wings; so that the rooms now devoted to English, Philosophy, and History, as well as the President's Office and the basements, were once the homes of the little children of the faculty, whose infant slumbers were soothed in this very cradle. Perhaps the sons of the Reverend Lorenzo Dow Williams, who went away with him to the War—perhaps they were rocked in this cradle. Or perhaps Doctor Hunter left one of his little ones asleep there, when he went to meet his classes. It may be that President Barker himself, who came here as professor in 1839, and who occupied the entire east wing for many years, may have owned this old cradle. It is good to picture this gentleman, rocking his little children there, or romping with them, as they grew older, out on this green campus of ours. Shut your eyes, friend, when next you pass those east basement windows, and let your truer sight recall that family of long ago, sitting around their breakfast table, while the baby still sleeps, the hood of the cradle shielding its eyes from the morning sun. I like to fancy that Doctor Barker was the last to own this cradle; for the Reverend Jeremiah Tingley [1863-1886], though he was very fond of children, and was beloved by all the little folks of the neighborhood—for whom indeed he constructed Lake George—had no children of his own; and when he moved out of the west wing, in 1880, he was the last faculty resident of Bentley Hall.

A Faculty Meeting

A One-Act Farce from Shakespeare

Time: Often.
Place: Usual place.
Personnel: See Catalogue.

Cr.—What, are we all here?
Sn.—Ay, by the near guess of memory.
Mu.—I pray you, what is't o'clock?
Li.—'Tis now four o'clock; we have two hours.
Mu.—Even for that I thank you.
Lee (mechanically)—Look's may be closed please.
Cr.—I pray you, hear me speak—Can no prayer pierce you?
De G. (aside)—Speak the speech, I pray you, trippingly on the tongue.
Cr.—It doth appear from this, fair gentlemen,
That Doctor Russell hath had wrong. A quiz—
Ru.—(interrupting—
I never heard a tumult so confused,
So strange, outrageous, and so variable.
It was for this I raised my voice and cried,
'Hence, home, you idle fellows! Get you home!
You must be gone from hence immediately.'
In sooth, they went. It was a gentle riddance.
Sna.—Why, heed them not: it is no thing of note.
You may as well forbid the mountain pines
To wag their high tops, and to make a noise.
A wise man—
Lo.—(with a laugh)
I must be one of those same dumb wise men,
For Doctor Snively never lets me speak!
Sna.—Nay Lord Disdain, you have a nimble wit:
I think, 'twas made of Atalanta's heels.
Sm.—Counterfeit, I assure you. Why, 'tis as easy as lying,
And not so estimable, profitable neither—
Sna.—Knock, knock, knock!
Li.—Wilt thou show the whole wealth of thy wit in an instant?
Lo.—Good sentences, and well pronounced.
Cr.—Let not the sound of shallow foppery
Enter this sober house.—What hast thou there?
Lee—Here 'tis, most reverend doctor: here it is.
Cr.—What's this!—the portrait of a blinking idiot!—
'Tis very like. Whom doth it represent?
DeG. (meekly)—Mislike me not for my complexion—
Sm. (with great politeness)—The glass of fashion and the mould of form!—
For me, I am not last in Fortune's van;
The best regarded virgins of our clime—
Dam. (aside, pityingly)—
O, what a noble mind is here o'erthrown!
Hat'.—And we must keep on trying, trying, trying.
Cr.—That our work—pray you, Sirs, devise a scheme
To have the Chapel full on Founders' Day.
This is the most unkindest cut of all.—
How long since Junior Taylor came to Chapel?
Sna.—Three months, most sovereign liege.
Cr.—I had forgot:—three months:—you told me so.
Ah, he the primrose path of dalliance treads!
Co. (eagerly)—He's the best-condition'd and unwearied spirit;
Talks with respect, and swears but now and then;
Wears prayer-books in his pocket—
Cr. (smiling) I do fear
Thou wilt say anon he is some kin to thee,
Thou spend'st such high-day wit in praising him.—
What hour now?
Dar.—'Tis nine o'clock: our friends all stay for us.
Dew.—I second the motion.
Dec.—How much more elder art thou than thy looks!
Lee—Professor Hammett, may I have a word?
Cr.—Stand not upon the order of your going,
But go at once. Hence, and avoid my sight.
El. (to Ro.)—We'll end that conversation after dinner.
Shall I come down?
Ro.—I pray you do.
Commend me to your honorable wife.
Time calls upon us.—Will you go before?
Curtain.

INCONGRUITY

"Step up close Gents and Ladies,
I've a message for you all.
I'm a man that's bound to win success
When I enter Congress Hall."

"'Een now I see them start and stare,
How they'll look up to me,
When I declaim my first address,
That I used on English III."

"These are the planks in my platform
"Woman's Rights and down with drink,
And on to that golden era,
When more than professors think."

"I believe in the Bull Moose party,
In saintly William Flynn:
I'd even believe in the Devil,
If 'twould help my chance to win."

"Step closer, I beg you, people,
My throat is getting sore
You may pass if you'll go quietly,
Next time take ten pages more."

"'Oh! Horrors! What a dreadful slip,
I hope you'll let it pass,
That shows the strength of habit;
I thought me back in class."

"But I'll not detain you longer,
A man of act not word,
I promise my constituents
That, Frank C., shall be heard."

Say, when Doc. gets to Congress,
As a brand new politician,
Can't you hear that time-worn phrase of his:
"Boys! I'm for prohibition!"

Then here's to Frank C. Blockwood.
With his soul so full of hope.
From English III he ought to know,
The value of soft soap.
THE SMITH-SONIAN INSTITUTE
(A Collection of rare sayings and definitions.)

1. Sentimental—adjective applied to a person who carries fruit to a man in jail waiting to be hung.
2. — was the kind of politician who goes around to the county fair and kisses all the babies.
3. John Adams was between the deep blue sea and that other gentleman.
   The sentiment of the times seemed to be, "Damn John Gay, damn any man who won't damn John Gay, damn any man who won't sit up all night damning John Gay."
5. The moonshiners couldn't see the difference between feeding their corn to their own hogs or making it into whiskey and feeding it to some other hogs.
6. While Jefferson was trying his Embargo Policy, England and France continued to slap us on the wrist.
7. The men in the Federalist party thought they were big patriots, but when it came right down to it they were pretty small potatoes.

THE ANNUAL SMOKE OF ECONOMIC IKE

"Step up, Doctor, have a cigar."
"Best in the land by far, by far."
The Doc. stepped up and slowly spoke.
"Boys, this will be my annual smoke."

And so he sat and drew and drew,
Till after a while the air got blue.
The mist hung down just like a cloak.
For Doc. was having his annual smoke.

But bye and bye his face grew pale.
No longer hearty, bright and bale.
Suddenly for the door he broke,
Leaving behind his annual smoke.

When Doc awoke the following morn,
And saw in the glass his face forlorn,
He slowly shook his head and spoke,
"That sure will be my annual smoke."

MY NANIE'S AWA

Now o'er the green campus the young maidens stroll,
The birds' morning carol makes spring in the soul,
And the new-budding willow with dew-drops is braw,
But to me it's delightful—Miss Spalding's awa.

The bright dandelions our greensward adorn,
The lilec outrivals the scent of the thorn:
They pain my sad bosom, sae sweetly they blaw,
They mind me o' Alice—and she is awa.

Come quizzes sae mournful, and flunk-cards' array,
To soothe me wi' marks o' scholastic decay;
Though blighting exams all my beauty have staw,
These alone can delight—now Miss Spalding's awa.

THE EIGHTH MYSTERY

Dambach (in French L. class)—"Why ees it zat zis class which ees ze worst has always ze best quiz papers?"

A SLIGHT GIVE AWAY

Miss Dodd describing the Klee-O-Kleet Caste—"Her lover is Miss Marian Whipple. Of course we don't need to tell you that she does it beautifully."

Bili is stately as a column from the classic Parthenon,
And he reconstructs the spirit of an age that's past and gone;
But 'tis a way of his,
When he starts to give a quiz,
To remind us of a gaoler in the dungeons of Chillon.

The Prof. who instructs in Francaise
Remarked to his students one daze,
"Your manners so rude,
Unpolished and crude,
A lack of due training betraise."

Dr. Cobern returned from the East
With a seven-league grin on at least;
For he had in his pocket
The Sphinx's best locket,
And a portion of Pharaoh, deceased.

The English professor, Frank C.,
Not contented with things as they B,
From a good rhetorician
Would turn politician,
And to other degrees, add M. C.

Doc. Suavely can fire questions more
In one language than I can in four:
He will ask to begin it,
A dozen a minute,
And increase by degrees to forescore.

Saint Clarence, the heir of old Rome,
Among ruins is chiefly at home;
He joyously marches
Through time-crumbled arches,
To gaze on the Pantheon's dome.

Lady Alice, the Mother Superior,
When she found that the convent did weary her,
Departed to France
In search of romance,
And returned with a countenance cheerier.

On neolithic bird-trips in paleozoic times,
Prof. Decker got a knowledge of all the lands and climes;
He's got a modern box
Packed full of ancient rocks.
[We only put this line in to finish out the rhymes.]

THE STORM DOOR—AS SEEN BY AN OLD ALUMNUS

I roamed across the Campus,
'Twas the February Feast,
And between the first two courses
I'd tramped a mile at least,
When above me, there at Hulings,
Just as forty years before,
Black, and blistery in the moonlight
Swung an old storm door.

"Why!" said I, "old silent partner,
You're the first real friend I've met,
And—somehow you remind me,
We're both good for something yet."

Poor Madge,—she'd crossed the Great Divide
Full seven years before;
But still her memory drew me
To that old storm door.

Beneath the wind-swept, soughing pines,
The tingling, starlit air,
Once more I felt my brow close-whipped
By tendrils of her hair,
The soft, cool velvet of her cheek.
I'd given life's triumphs for
One short, swift lease of youth and love,
Behind the old storm door.

When, Lo! To my rapt gaze it seemed
We two came tripping by,
Climbed the bleak steps, undid the latch,
Retreated with a cry.
It was as though grim Fate had said,
"You cannot enter more."
A Freshman and his girl had claimed
The old Storm Door.

When my asbestos calling card
Slips through the pearly gate,
And Peter says, "You gave two rings,
Among the goats you'll wait."
"Send out my little Co-ed, Madge,
For half an hour or more,
We'll make a better heaven
Of your old storm door."
SAMPLES OF CO-ED CORRESPONDENCE

Bemus Point,
Monday, April 6, '14

Dear Mac:

I've worn your sweater every day since I came home. It made quite a hit with mother and I'm trying to coax her to let me buy one with a buff collar. I do love our college colors, don't you? Maybe you'd let me buy your sweater. I'd never tell anyone and I'd love to have it, then you could buy a new one. I wonder if you would do that. You've got your sweater trained. I can't keep its arm from around me. I certainly did appreciate your carrying my suitcase to the station in Meadville, but I hope that it didn't strain you, because it was as heavy as lead when I lifted it off the train, and I found four paving bricks in my best dress, when I got home. I hope that you are looking forward to April 13 with as much pleasure as I am.

As ever,

M. F.

Union City,

Dear Homer:

I am mortified to death that Mrs. B. sent you those bills. I didn't realize that we had run so into the gas bill and I didn't imagine for a minute that a strong looking table like that wouldn't hold both of us. I'm so glad that it was only one leg because Mrs. B. has had the table for years. The next time we both sit on it we'll plan to distribute our weight a little more. I think that was what did it. Union City is slow. I haven't done anything exciting but to shop since I came home. I'll tell you about it when we both get back to Allegheny. Thanks for offering to meet me at the train.

Sincerely,

B. W.
but I understand that Allegheny has girls in it and I'm just a little worried because you used to write to me every day when you first went up there. Maybe you could say something to relieve my mind, but I want you to be perfectly honest about it. Mother and I are making fudge today, and I'll send you a box. I'm so sorry that those horrid boys got all that I sent you last time. They must be perfect barbarians. I don't see why you want to go to school at such a place.

Loyal yours,

G. H.

A FREE LANCE
Marmaduke - Paul - Satan - Barden L.-
Jones
Is a rollicking rake of renown.
His spurs he hangs up in his dark knightly hall,
On Liberty Street in the Town.
Sable his shield, with Round Top in shade.
'Neath a log and a new Easter bonnet,
Blazoned in gules stands a tall ram­pant lance,
With dark wreaths of ivy hung on it.
Paul is, God wot, a free lance indeed.
When jousting he dons mail and plume,
And mounts his bold charger, he strangles his friends
With the scent of his powerful perfume.
Marmaduke keeps on his iron pantaloons,
Though back from his jousts "in good season."
When asked, why he seeks their protection at home,
He answers, "Perhaps there's a reason."

Jones took some cushions, and some lady-love
To row up the river. Take warning.
The girl was recovered, but not so her hat.
Paul fetched that at five the next morning.
Paul makes one vow—as he shakes in his jeans—
That never while gas-light abides,
While curtains are thin, will be place his keen arms 'Round the fire-place—and something besides.

THE REFLECTIONS OF A GAS LIGHT
(On the Hulings Porch)
Yes, I do see and hear lots of interesting things that demand a good deal of reflection, and I'm so glad spring is coming, for it is so much pleasanter to have the girls around between meals, and in the afternoons. Often I hear such confidential little talks, and then in spring the girls go out walking so much more than they do in winter. There are two couples in particular who walk so much. The men usually come together, and I always hear the blond one ask for Miss Barnes, and the dark one for Miss Abrams. I've often tried to find out who they are, but the young ladies never say their names. They must be very athletically inclined to walk so much. But lots of interesting things happen in the winter too. It seems strange, but always on Thursday afternoon a lot of young men come over, and when they go out they are always saying, "Did you like those sandwiches?" and another will say, "Yes, only I never get half enough to eat." The other day one little fellow (I think his name is Jim) came out, and as he went down the steps he sighed, and said, "Well, for once I did get enough."

One thing that always seems strange is the crowd of men that come across the campus singing. One runs up and nearly puts me on, and then they say speeches, and sing, and the young ladies seem greatly amused. Really, I don't see why, for the songs are all old and the speeches usually very amateurish. But then the children must be amused.

Yet after all, what gives me the most amusement is the conversations I overhear in the shelter of the storm door. So many times when certain people come in they both go into the vestibule. I suppose the girl doesn't know where the bell is. I shine in as brightly as I can.
to help, but it takes a long time to find that bell. And one night I heard a young lady say, "Oh! Roy, do be careful, you’re knocking my hat crooked." And a deep voice says, "That was a ringer anyway."

One other couple (the man has red hair, and the girl is little and he calls her Sara) always hunt so long for the bell. I’ve puzzled my brains over the case, but it’s no clearer for me to shine through than mud on the doorstep. Why is it that some men go in and others stop at the door? Oh well, I’m only a gas light, so perhaps it is no wonder I don’t understand it all. Do you?

Miss Bardall—"Why Professor, I was looking right at you all the time."

Grinds, Slams, Jokes

Miss Ray gave the Lit. Board a sitting one day,
And Hutchinson felt of his tie;
His compairs with anecdotes brightened their stay,
But Hutchinson felt of his tie.
He dressed it, caressed it,
He changed it, arranged it,
Untied it, decried it,
And sighed as he tied it.
The rest eyed the camera calmly and gay,
While Hutchinson felt of his tie.

Kaldron Manager, in discouragement—"I’ve seen all the Senior men, and made dates with them; but I can’t get all the girls!"

Dunbar (waving his arms at the Washington’s Birthday dinner—

Inquiring Friend—“I suppose the students take advantage of Sunday evening to explore all the nooks and by-ways of the city?”

Rose (hastily)—“Oh no! We haven’t time.”

Doctor Mulfinger—“Why, when Bunny was run over, it made my hair stand on end!”

Prof. Ross, in Lat. III.—“Miss Thomas, why was this German soldier in the Roman army nicknamed ‘Flavus’?”

Helen—“Why, er, I suppose—Was it because he had only one eye?”

Prof. Ross—“But the Tiber is called ‘flavus,’ has that anything to do with eyes?”

Helen (thoughtfully)—“Oh, it means yellow.—Oh, I know (with a sudden inspiration) they called him that because he was a traitor.”

Prof. DeGrange quizzing class in English I.—“Mr. Clay, what new thing have you learned concerning marriage from your study of ‘Virginibus Puerisque?’”

“Mud” Clay—“It’s all new to me, Professor.”

Russell—“Mr. Cox, does an old suit of clothes have utility?”

Cox—“Yes sir.”

Russell—“Well, what are they good for?”

Cox—“To put in the Missionary barrel.”

Query—“Why was it Don Dunbar whom Professor Ross asked to define an Engaged Column?”

BILLY WORDSWORTH
Meadville Men of Letter Series, Number 11.
(Lack of appreciation and application is evident.)

Bill Wordsworth was a poet,
In England long ago;
But why he wrote his verses,
Well, I for one don't know.
When young, in verse he tells us,
He stole a boat one night.
At school he never studied,
He was so very bright.

He beat it back to Nature,
He loved the birds and bees,
And wrote a lamentation
On clubbing hickory trees.

Some critics call him crazy,
By Gosh, I guess they're right.

Old William lived for eighty Years,
To him the fates were kind;
But what he daren't call poetry,
He labeled just plain "Lines."

Bill felt his latent prowess,
As he himself opines;
But what he daren't call poetry,
He labeled just plain "Lines."

"She was a phantom of delight"
To her face she was a queen.
Behind her back in poetry
He called her "the machine."

THE FATE OF A MOUSE AND IT'S REVENGE.
Act I.

Scene laid in a room on second floor of Hulings Hall.
Time—Evening after bells.

When curtain rises two girls are seated at a study table eating nut bread. They consume all but the end of the loaf.
Helen—I guess there is no use saving this little piece. I will just throw it into the waste basket. (She throws it away and then both girls prepare for bed.)
Act II.
Scene—Same as Act I.
Lights are out and both girls are in bed.
Vivian—Helen, did you wind the alarm?
Helen—No, I forgot to do it.
Vivian—Well, I guess I better get up and do that, for we will have to get up early to study our English. (She gets up and goes to put on her bedroom slippers, but suddenly throws them from her and dives back under the bed clothes, shrieking all the time.)
Helen—What’s the matter with you Vivian? Why are you throwing your slippers and shrieking like that?
Vivian—Ow!—Oh!—Ow!—Well, I guess you’d shriek too, Ow!—O!—Oh!—There was a mouse in my slipper.
Helen—What? Mouse? Oh, where?
Vivian—In my slipper I said.
Helen—Well I’m going right down for a mouse trap. I won’t stay here another night if there are mice here. (She leaves the room.)

Act III.
Scene—Same as Act I and II.
Time—Several days later.
Vivian—Say! Have you noticed a strange smell around here?
Helen—No. I have such a cold I can’t smell anything. (Just then, an envelope is shoved under the door from the outside.) Oh goody, there is a letter. (Picks up letter.) Why! It’s for both of us. Tears envelope and removes card.) Well, will you listen to this Vivian!

BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH
Meadville, Pennsylvania.
Complained of—Helen and Vivian.
Complainant—Second floor of Hulings Hall and vicinity.
Offense—Offensive remains of defunct mouse.
Remarks—Please remove same, per order of . . . Board of Health.

Vivian—Do you suppose we have caught a mouse in that trap we set? (Goes to dresser and kneels and looks under.) Oh gracious! There is one in that trap. Helen you take it out.
Helen—No sir, I wouldn’t touch that mouse for a hundred dollars.
Vivian—Well, what will we do then? I won’t take it out?
Helen—I will go down and ask Miss S—— to come up and get it. (Exit.)

Curtain.

THE SPRING LAMBS

In London the Lambs are mostly real actors,
At old Alleghe we are called malefactors.
Tough cuts we may be, but we'd not last a day,
Side of spring lamb you find on a Cochran Hall tray;
While most of our Lambs, you will certainly find,
Are gambolers gay of more than one kind.

Gambol we do on the green or the red—
"I win with either," says our little Fred—
In Rum or in Poker we're blame hard to beat,
For cards are our solace, our drink and our meat.

'Tis true we lose little and seldom win much.
The stakes are chewed toothpicks, burnt matches and such.
While vainly we tempt our Skillen-ized tastes
With eats that assist in enlarging the waists.

The bad Sunday papers we always peruse,
And he who discovers the choice bits of news,
Enlightens the others with tales of divorce,
With beauty hints, burglary, or something worse.

The fine arts and painting we next patronize,
Oft taking a specimen worthy a prize
To church, to the movies, and even by sparts,
Indulge in a soda at dear Johnny Wurts'.

Wine, women, and song lead Lambs to the bad,
We cut out the songs, just those that are sad.
Amid the Lent season and Easter vacation Cubobs we eschew, and rash expectoration.

This June we're all leaving and soon must disband.
We'll found a new chapter in Lullaby Land.
In your tributes and flowers be lenient with slams;
Just remember that we were only—Spring Lambs.

Roll of the Spring Lambs:
Nat, Gook, Sleuth, Sweet, Sol, Izzy the Boob.

Phi Psi Frat. meeting. Mossey in high falsetto—"Now fellows, there's a thing that Beisel wants me to mention to you. Not that we mean to be hard on the freshmen, but we older fellows have lived long enough to know that the only way to keep self-respecting, is to treat all ladies with absolute respect and deference, and we want the freshmen to keep their eyes off the new maid.

A MODEST PROPOSAL

When the last cane-rush has been banished, and the rope-tying contest is fled; when soccer is proved harsh and rugged, and the last foot-ball hero is dead;—then, in place of these brutal breakneckers, will they give us Parchesi and Checkers?

Dambach—"Monsieur Moore, it would be better if you could read with less monotony. To hear you read it would be like one asleep standing."

CHEM. DAYS

(With Apologies to John Greenleaf.)

Still sits the Chem. Lab by the Street,
Its coping-stones a-sunning;
About it still—Distilphide sweet,
And water faucets running.

Within, the Doctor's desk is found,
Deep-scared by acids strong;
The balance bright, the shining tubes,
The deep-mouthed worker's song.

Queer formulas upon its walls,
Its icy steps awaiting
Those feet which fear no danger near,
And skyward take to skating.

Long years ago a Meadville mist
Hung o'er its murky halls,
Enwrapped its terra cotta bricks,
And tar bespattered walls.

It all but hid the Freshman toque
And tangled, glossy curls,
Of her who stood beside a youth
Who worked mid smoke wreaths' whirls.

A crash! He heard her mocking laugh.
"Some fine Chem. II. shark! Pooh!
I could have botched the job as well
Without disturbing you."

'Twas but a broken test tube.
She let him make it straight
By going to the movies with her.
Next day he broke eight.

Still meal-times to a careworn man
That Co-ed's face are showing.
Dear girl! Her breakage on his bills
Has ever since been growing.

He lives to realize that to keep
Is worse than 'twas to get her.
And yet, poor fool, though in so deep,
He'll never quite regret her.
'Twas past the doctor's bed-time,
The room with smoke was dim,
When Doc. had a premonition—
Of something coming to him.

His knees did shake and quiver,
When John slid into bed.
A gun beneath his pillow,
A quilt above his head.

He lay till nearly morning,
Plunged in nervous chill—
And filled with wilder fancies
Than any Fresh on the Hill.

At length he heard a rustle
The clock had struck the hour;
His eyes stood out with horror,
For Doc. was in their power.

With one wild shriek of terror,
He slipped behind the bed,
But the ruffians seized a pillow
And hurled it at his head.

One more wild wail for mercy,
—They feared he'd die of fright—
So they gave him a farewell wallop
And vanished into the night.

After his knees stopped trembling,
And his heart had ceased to flop,
Poor Doc. slid safe beneath the bed—
He dared not trust the top.

Then, when the day had broken,
And the sun peeped over the hill,
He gathered up the Freshmen,
And pictured to them the mill.
"I showed my athletic training,
I landed a stinging right;
They couldn't stand my uppercut,
But I lost them in the night."

"Oh, I tell you, I'm a champion,
With muscles strong as rope.
I'm Doc. Humperdinker Russell,
I'm the only real white hope."

He said, when he found his pistol
And placed it on the shelf,
"I'm glad I didn't use it"—
He might have shot himself.

A NIGHT IN A HALL

At midnight in his bed content
The "Fresh." was dreaming of the hour,
When Annex Number Two was bent,
In homage to his verdant power.

In dreams upon a field of gore
"Chuck" Dotterrer to the turf he bore;
Then shooting goals with fiendish knack,
He rode "Osh" Graham on his back;
All, all forgetful of the fact
That 'gainst the door his bureau rose.
His head was hid beneath the clothes.

Bill Bailey woke; he gripped his hair;
That fond clutch was the last.
He paled to hear Prof. Russell shriek,
"Beat it before your tails get beat!
The Sophs are coming fast."

Another dark and stormy night
The Proctor snored in peaceful slumber.
Zipp—went the phone! How Doc. did bite!

"Say, little girl," sly Stevie said.
"You've waked our Proctor; he's in bed.
Can I come down? No,—'cause you see
Our Proctor's some wise guy and he,
Says you are naughty cause you—Pew!
Hang up the phone now, that will do."

The Proctor rustled back to bed.
"I'll drown that noble youth," he said,
"On Pennsylvania's wave-beat shore,
Then beat it back to Baltimore."

Bowers, “Bowser”—Big Run’s real big gun.

REALISM

Hickman, reading an original composition in English VIII,—

“Just then, there stepped into the room a dainty little form, mostly hair and eyes.”

GRAMMATICS

TIPS OF THE SLUNG

Flick, with red-hot eloquence—And our mighty ocean leviathans go from pole to pole and from equator to equator.
Miss Sansom—The professor wrote the lesson down for the board on them. (! ! !)
Professor Ross, showing lantern slides—“Byron overlooked this monument of old Rome, but Kelly and Sheats * * *

Trips of the Slung—The Junior-Freshman basket-ball game.
Miss Rea, describing the East Pediment of the Parthenon—This represents the Sea, resting in the Earth of the lap.

(Barnes discovered whistling “I Want a Little Bungalow.”)
Rose—“Aha, Barnes, we’ve got you this time. Harrackman squealed on you.”
Barnes—“Barrackman did not! Harrackman didn’t.”

THE CHAPEL CHOIR

They never can study in Chapel,—
Those poor, unfortunate men!
They never can stroll on the Campus,
When the bell has tapped ten-ten;
And they daren’t look bored nor sleepy,
Yet they’re always on hand by the organ,
That patient college choir.

It is said that Professor Dewey became so interested at the Grove City game that he shouted madly through his field glasses and spent three minutes trying to focus his megaphone.

A member of the Kaldron Board—“Oh, I learned all those different kinds of meters in school once, but they never helped me to write poetry. In fact the only meter I ever remembered to be absolutely sure of, was in Virgil’s Aeneid, that didactic hexameter.”

Feeds

When Congress dissolved the Beef-Trust,
Passed wild tariff bills and all that,
They were miles behind old Allegheny,
For the Phi Delts were eating cat.

To solve the high cost of existence,
Why that takes a man in a Frat;
But, woeful result of the solving,
The Phi Delts are eating cat.

It grieved the wise commissair Lindberg,
When the fellows no longer kept fat;
So he put them on specialized diet.
Ah! Little dreamed they, it was cat.

After they cleaned old Tommy,
(He was neither too lean nor too fat)
They told the cook, he was rabbit.
For they'd cut off the tail of the cat.

Monday brought on a game dinner,
With all the fixings thereat;
But while eulogizing poor Bunny,
The Phi Delts were eating cat.

Yet, when the truth was reported,
Each lad made a dash for his hat.
They didn't quite fancy this being on intimate terms with a cat.

It really was quite a rare saving.
For nearly a week after that,
Not one of the boys mewed for dinner:
There's nothing so filling as cat.
Pussy's tale should end with a moral.
We promise you this only, that
Till Mexico pillages Meadville,
The Phi Delts will fight shy of cat.

Feeding the Five Thousand

1. Now the feast of soggy cakes and lukewarm coffee drew nigh, which is called Cochran Hall Breakfast.
2. And the hungry hordes sought how they might kill the cook, for they were afraid of the cereal.
3. Then entered Satan into Klingensmith, surnamed commissary, being High Mogul of the Kitchen.
4. And he went his way communing with the cooks and waiters how he might betray the students unto them.
5. And they were glad and plotted with him.
6. And he promised and sought opportunity to betray the boys unto the Skillens while they were yet hungry.
7. Then they having resisted the cereal, the waiters brought unto them the unleavened cakes, which are of the Devil's work.
8. Then uprose the mighty Seniors as one angered beyond all reason and spoke, saying, Where is this Skillen that we may stone him? And the waiters were afraid and answered not.
9. Their Snaive-ly-ke curiosity being as yet unsatisfied, and their hunger finding vent in violence, a cake was hurled against the radiator which being as yet lacking in heat answered not at all, but groaned in a hollow manner like the college choir.
10. Overcome by the weakness of hunger, they sank into their seats.
11. And one arose mighty in wisdom and authority and spoke, saying, We have among us a Russell and a Bailey which are of much strength of stomach. Let us cast the cakes before them, at the same time anointing them with much syrup.
12. And behold, it was so.
13. When the cakes were thus placed and they sat them down, the gourmands of Cochran ate them, everyone using much oleo.
14. And Russell lifted up his voice saying, Wherefore eat ye not these things, for are ye not one of us?
15. But, casting aside the prunes, they arose, for their classes called them from that place. Selah.

18.—Censorship Committee puts the bum on the Kaldron.

19.—Doc. Lockwood declaims a temperance special in Chapel.

20.—Fresh, and Sophs. play their annual game of “soak ’er.”

21.—Prex tells the Freshman class that they are absolutely the best thing out.

He—“I'm going to college now.”
She—“Stude?”

He—“Yes, every Saturday night.”

Tail Piece—(November 27, 1913)
If the 1914 Kaldron is a good representation of college life and college activities the Board will feel that their labors are rewarded.

But, with all the work which the Board might do, it would still be impossible to bring this book to you were it not for the courtesy and patronage of its advertisers.

It is your duty to support these advertisers accordingly. You will find them live business men, able to supply any of your needs. Your Business Manager has found them courteous and keenly interested in our college, and they merit fully the patronage which you are able to give them.

Signed, KALDRON MANAGER.

TRUE WIT AS EXHIBITED BY DR. JOHN

Rev. Williamson—"Doctor Russell, why did they call the middle ages 'the dark ages'?

Doctor Russell—"Because they had so many 'Knights,' I suppose."

Scottony, the man of habit, when lighting the candle in "Arms and the Man," Act I., struck the match on his nightie.

Professor De Grange (examining the fashions in the Sunday Supplement)—"In my opinion, the present styles are the most graceful and artistic that the modern world has evolved."

Miss Sansom—"Yes indeed; I thing so too."

Professor D.—"Then why don't you wear them?"

Depp (running across Doctor Snaively at the close of Doctor Cooley's lecture)—"Well, Doc, did you have a pleasant dream?"

Dr. Snaively (with sharp suspicion)—"How did you know?"

Head of the History Department—"There are two classes of automobiles—Affords and Can't-Affords. Any man can afford one even if it is only a little Ford." (Now you understand, this is just an aside.)

Howard Boyd in German VII (translating scene in the early morning, presenting Leander just as he returns from a nocturnal swim across the Hellespont) Boyd reading—"Is that you Leander; what have you under your arm?"

Leander—"Night clothes."

Dr. Ling was just at the most critical point of an important explanation when Microbe Baker got up stealthily from his seat, tiptoed forward, and brought his boot down with a crash near the lecture desk. "What are you doing, Baker?" demanded Doc.

"Well," replied Mike, "You know if you kill one now, there'll be a million less to kill next summer," and the class broke up.

THE BULL MOOSE CLUB

In Alleghe there is a club,
Its motto, "Ever Ready." (except to recite)
Needless to say, this bunch of men
Are followers of Teddy.
Frank C. is a progressive man,
In politics that is,
We wish he'd leave some wires for us
To pull in English quiz.
Doc's going to run for Congress,
Where he'll be big and great.
If you would feel his greatness,
Well, just take English Eight.
But, if you want a real good mark,
Then join the Bull Moose Club;
You'll pull an A day after day,
Although you are a dub.
Then here's to the old Bull Moosers,
And here's to Teddy too.
May he live to be the president
In the year two thousand two.

Inquiring Freshman observing Jim Lane without his hat—"Say, Jim, do the Arabs really scalp people over in Palestine?
They didn't do a very good job on you."

and another man's wife, which one of them ought he to save first?
Ah-h-h-h! Now I've got you."
Park—"Why, the best-looking one."
