A BROAD STEP ON THE ROAD TO "THE ALLEGHENY OF THE FUTURE"

Recognizing the trend of tomorrow, this Kaldron is designed by the staff to be an inspiration to the underclassmen in continuing and enlarging the accomplishments of former years in the halls of our college. To the graduating class the Kaldron staff intends this volume to be a reminder of college days, and an inspiration to bring further honor to Allegheny.

THE LORD GATE

A great stride was taken toward building our college campus of tomorrow when the cornerstone of Brooks Hall was laid last fall. The Lord Gate is to serve not only as an entrance to a series of modern and attractive buildings, but as a gateway to knowledge, actual learning from books, a well-rounded life, a finely molded character, and cemented friendships.
In Appreciation

Because he has made Allegheny's tradition of excellence a reality by his zeal in recognizing the needs of each individual student; because by his brilliant leadership during the past ten years he has painted the way of a new Allegheny in keeping with the needs of a modern world; because he has always strived to keep eternal Allegheny's contributions to truth and progress that its light may continue to shine in these troubled days of shadow and darkness; this 1941 Kaldron is dedicated to

PRESIDENT WILLIAM PEARSON TOLLEY

Endeavor at Allegheny

Under the presidency of Doctor Tolley, Allegheny College has advanced in every respect. First came the introduction of the inventory examinations revealing individual needs and talents. To serve the needs and develop the talents thus discovered, the curriculum was enriched by a variety of new courses. But this was not enough—Allegheny needed new buildings. The present construction program is further evidence of Doctor Tolley's ability and perseverance.

WILLIAM PEARSON TOLLEY
THE OLD GLORY
OF THE NEW ALLEGHENY
Friends as well as instructors to the students... always willing to give advice along with teaching facts... personalities in accord with the progressive policy of the college... never too busy to help... mutual esteem, respect, and good fellowship.

ADMINISTRATION

An aerial view of the future Allegheny—representative buildings as taken from architectural sketches.
PRESIDENT

WILLIAM PEARSON TOLLEY

His keen, youthful insight into higher educational problems has made President Tolley a national leader in liberalized education. His emphasis on moral training and Christian character has made him a leader among church circles. During the ten years of his leadership at Allegheny the practical application of these principles of education and conduct has enriched our college, our faculty, and our student body.

ADMINISTRATORS

Dean Schultz for several years has been capably guiding Allegheny’s men students, and with each year his popularity has increased. His deep knowledge and sincere interest in young men, which in the past have contributed so extensively to the efficiency of his work, will enable him in the future to continue his task as counsellor and adviser.

Dean Skinner is doing her utmost to ensure Allegheny’s progress in a physical as well as in an intellectual direction. Her sympathetic understanding and her executive ability are responsible for her success as dean of women.

Successful teacher and speech department head, an administrator with a fine capacity for "getting things done," Professor Hurst Anderson has the important new post of registrar and administration coordinator.
FACULTY OF INSTRUCTION CLASSES

Sleepy people hurrying to an eight o'clock class . . . usually five minutes late . . . book reports . . . hour quizzes . . . a prospective chemist setting up complicated experiments . . . hasty preparation for a ten-minute speech . . . groans greet publication of examination schedule . . . cramming.

Allegheny plays part in National Defense Program . . . advanced flight training course . . . sponsored by Civil Aeronautics Authority . . . Jim Gilmore, one of the first collegians to complete the course.
FOUR YEARS RECAPTURED

FRESHMAN YEAR—September of 1937: 196 naive and confused freshmen enter—used as guinea pigs for the administration's new ventures into the realm of modern education—first freshman class to take the comprehensive examinations—Talbott House inhabitants made life merry for themselves and a continual headache for the faculty—the future president of the senior class was a chubby little fellow in a bright red jacket—new faces, new studies, new ideas; work, term papers, reserve assignments—but it was a lot of fun.

SOPHOMORE YEAR—September of 1938: 134 new but much less naive sophomores return—the Queens establish their prize for the greatest improvement on the Comprehensives, first awarded to Rudy Blake—a dead horse is left on the steps of Bentley to mark a new high in college humor, and the only known example of voluntary cooperation of three fraternities.

JUNIOR YEAR—September of 1939: 122 of the class of 1941 come back as Juniors—Bob Oberlin, Don Starr, and Mary Broek elected to Phi Beta Kappa while still juniors—a notable achievement—this year being Allegheny's 175th anniversary, a celebration was in order, and for the first time in history the sheltered women of the campus were allowed out until 2:30 a.m.—Ted Fio Rito at the Anniversary Dance signifies the first "name" band at Allegheny's many dances.

SENIOR YEAR—September of 1940: 106 seniors register again and begin the fight to graduation—all seniors must attend chapel—a record number of seniors listed in Whos Who in American Colleges—Wiblic, Seitz, Oberlin, Taylor, Gibbs, Robertson, and Faloon—cornerstone of Brooks Hall laid on Homecoming Day—a busy year with comprehensives the cause of many worries—a number of the male members were caught in the draft and after July 1 will be wearing uniforms.

The Allegheny of the future will be indebted to the Allegheny of today for an efficient system of student government. Tomorrow's Alleghenians will find it difficult to improve upon the present Allegheny Undergraduate Council.

The Council is a truly representative body, functioning in a democratic way. The membership is composed of the president and vice-president of both the senior and junior classes, the president of the sophomore class, and a representative of each of the major campus activities. The fourteen members thus elected cooperate to fulfill the object of the organization: "to bring into closer relationship and working harmony the various branches of college activities, to stimulate undergraduate thought, to crystallize and reflect undergraduate opinion, and to preserve customs and traditions of Allegheny College."

Extensive powers of self-government have been vested in the Allegheny Undergraduate Council by the administration until it is now completely free from faculty domination.

Among its important tasks is the budgeting of approximately $10,000 each year. Allotments are made to finance the principal campus organizations and all-campus activities. The council also supervises all student chapel programs, and arranges the college social calendar.

In keeping with Allegheny's present trend toward advancement and improvement, the council has recently been made still more democratic by the revision of parts of its constitution. The council proposed and the student body ratified (1) the abolition of scholastic requirements for students' offices, and (2) a revised plan for electing the president of the council, so that it became possible for any able senior man to be elected to that office.

Acting in conjunction with the Allegheny Undergraduate Council are three other organs of student government: the Women's Senate, the Senior Court, and the Men's Undergraduate Council.

The success of student government at Allegheny is a result of an earnest effort to profit by past experiences, an awareness of present needs, and an attempt to anticipate future trends in college life.

Its privilege and power to solve the problems which inevitably arise on a college campus have made the Allegheny Undergraduate Council an integral part of the college.
The Allegheny of the future is the keynote of the 1941 Kaldron. In this annual, the staff has tried to present an inclusive record of the year's work and play, and at the same time has attempted to look ahead to new and greater achievements which the future promises Allegheny College.

The increased enrollment, the expanded program of extra-curricular activities, new buildings, and other forward-looking changes are evidences of this future growth. These indications have supplied the staff with the inspiration and material for this yearbook.

To work toward this goal of a greater Allegheny, a staff, imbued with progressive ideals, set to work organizing available material. The responsibility of supervising and editing the entire edition was divided among several departments. As directing head of all those departments, Robert B. Miller was a capable editor-in-chief. Profiting from valuable experience gained in giving his time and energies to last year's Kaldron, he was able to proceed surely and definitely toward the ultimate aim of this year's book. Collaborating with the editor-in-chief was C. Alan Brandt as business manager. Jean Peterson undertook the work of checking and making arrangements for all the individual pictures of the students. The writing staff was headed by Harriett Anderson and Virginia Moore. Nancy Martin and her assistants mounted the several hundred pictures that appear in this yearbook. The ever-popular sport section, recording Allegheny's achievements in football, basketball, and other sports was thoroughly covered by J. Henry Gardner, an interested follower of the athletic activities of the year.

But the heads of the departments could not have been successful without assistance. Credit must be given to those people, by no means small in number, whose contributions of time and work assured the staff of an outstanding publication.

This year has marked the birth of new plans and changes for advancement in the coming years. One step in the direction of progressive advance has been the use of informal group pictures that are seen throughout the book, supplementing the more formal ones.

New ideas have taken root among the students of today; new visions have arisen for the students of tomorrow. The college seems directed toward new successes.

It is with this feeling of expectation and confidence in the future that the staff has endeavored to present a complete record of this year's activities.
Clash of arms and flash of weapons... skillful parrying and sudden lunges... the most exciting battles in history are those of power and skill, and the greatest of these were fought with pen and the modern typewriter... upon our own battlefield, campus history is made with words of power and wit in the pages of The Allegheny Literary Magazine.

Under the guidance of Editor Helen A. Milker, the magazine covered many fields. Student authors in both poetry and prose expressed their ideas on religion, international affairs, philosophy, sentiment, and humor. A new element was introduced by James Gruntley's religious articles. John Donalley revealed a capacity for fantasy and sprightly dialogue in several short stories. A new and pleasing note was struck by Hall Van Vleck's whimsical tales. Although not staff members, John Foster and Thomas Cott contributed lively discussions of international affairs. New poets were discovered in the persons of Winetta Robertson, Donald King, and Nancy Zuev, while Jane Lewis continued her popular verse. Another innovation in The Lit was the interpretation in literary form of each cover design. The Chapel cover of the first issue was associated with the poem Cenotaph; the Ballad of the Seven Sisters was illustrated by a tree sketch on the cover of the second edition; the religious note of the April cover was carried over by the article Triumphal Entry, and similarly the subject of the cover design was continued within the pages of the last edition. The attractive art work was under the supervision of Dorothy Jane Konstanzer, assisted by Cleo Swanson, Kathryen Hill, Robert Brownson, and James Valone.

In the annual freshman writing contest, separate prizes are customarily given in prose and poetry. This year a single first prize for special excellence was awarded to Claire Louise N provin for her deftly written story of a college Becky Sharp, It Isn't Fair. Second prizes were awarded to Jean Merrill for her Armchair Rhap­ sodies, a philosophical discussion written in skillful prose style, and to Ethelmae Pritchard for her wistful poem Choice. The regular departments found in each issue were The Editor's Ink Spots and the Critic's Nest, to which former editors despatched observations and comments upon the preceding issues.
THE CAMPUS

Following the trend of the Allegheny of Tomorrow theme, The Campus has this year specialized in forecasts. Not only have its news stories concentrated on happenings of the days to come, but many of its editorials have inaugurated new ideas later adopted by the Allegheny Undergraduate Council, the Men's Undergraduate Council, and the student body.

An unusually enthusiastic board headed The Campus staff this year. Howard Gibbs, editor-in-chief, fathered editorials advocating the democratization of the Allegheny Undergraduate Council, leading to sophomore representation and later to the abolition of scholastic averages for seats on the Council. Through the latter's column, "Table Talk," student opinion has been expressed.

Dorothy Jane Konstanz, news editor, was responsible for stories on past, present, and future happenings on and about the college campus. To insure reasonably complete coverage, she has had assistants in contact with every department and organization of the college. The feature department under the direction of Cynthia Logan has attempted to provide a bit of variety in more personalized details of the Playshop, vacations, activities, Kaldron pictures, and other aspects of an Alleghenian's life.

George Johnston and later Bernard Dusenberry, who replaced him during the second semester, had the task of seeing that every football and basketball game, every swimming and track meet, was witnessed by a sports writer and later reported on the athletics page. These stories, together with Willis Brooman's column on intramural sports. "As Greek Meets Greek," provided interest for the sports fans.

"Stepping Out," the new society column, was written by a new addition to the staff, Helen Hilkcr. Warren Wiikler proved an active reporter of Playshop news. Robert Shane's "Speaking Sharply," served as a satire column the first semester and was replaced at mid-year by the sprightly "Hallzapoppin" by Hall Van Vlack.

Instead of having a technical editor in charge of the make-up of the paper and working at the printshop, Robert Breusman, with the assistance of Burton Neiner and Haskel Hoffenberg, wrote the headlines and made up the paper. Working with them were numerous typists and proof-readers.

For the first time in the history of the paper, The Campus has had its own offices on the third floor of River Hall. Permanent equipment made possible the starting of a morgue cataloguing this year's clippings according to subject matter. Dean Clarence F. Ross, by a donation of a large number of Campuses has helped to complete the files of issues for the past twenty years.

Highlighting the paper this year was the streamlining of the head on the paper with a sketch of Bentley tower, and the expansion from five columns to six columns to provide more space for news.

Membership in the Intercollegiate Washington Press has brought news of special interest to college students. To bring the paper into even closer contact with other colleges, a rotogravure section, Collegiate Digest, has been issued each week with copies of The Campus. In addition, the Allegheny Institute of Opinion published its poll results in the paper.

The many hours put in on the paper each week did not complete the schedule of the journalists. This year the staff turned social with a series of parties honoring various members.

Now, at the end of the year, the twenty-four issues have been filed with those dating from 1876. They are past, but even so they are not forgotten, for in the pages of three issues lie the foundations and the records of many innovations both about the campus and on The Campus for the Allegheny of Tomorrow.
THE ALLEGHENY SINGERS

As the Singers have brought Allegheny to the minds of thousands in the past, so will they in the future. They will add to the new Allegheny by singing new songs and renewing appreciation of the old.

The Singers possess a heritage of over ten years of achievement. Upon the arrival of Morten J. Luvaas in 1930, there was no department of music at Allegheny. He brought with him a dream and a spark of enthusiasm. The dream was realized in a few years when the group was ranked as one of the best A Cappella choirs in the country. The spark of enthusiasm is still burning brightly and is caught by each new Singer.

The long-awaited Christmas Concert was carried out again this year in all its traditional splendor. With stage banked with evergreens, candles burning, every corner of the chapel echoing Yuletide season, a fine and spirited concert was rendered—still remembered over campus and countryside.

To continue the holiday spirit, the Singers serenaded dormitories and faculty members on the eve of vacation.

The group maintained a prominent place in campus life throughout the year by lending atmosphere as well as song to the weekly religious chapel program.

Spring brought a schedule of extensive travel. The organization was greeted by enthusiastic audiences of new and old friends in many cities within a wide radius. Then on Sunday, April 27, breakfast was served in the oratory before dawn while a streamlined Greyhound waited to start on the spring trip.

The trip carried the group to New York City, where three glorious days were devoted to concerts and sight-seeing. For the first time many Singers saw New York, where three glorious days were devoted to concerts and sight-seeing.

The year drawing nearer to a close found the Singers busking at Kinsman, Ohio, and picnicking at Houston. These are annual events in which Singers old and new reunite to reminisce in song.

The commencement concert, the climax of concerts on campus, was the last given by the 1941 choir. It marked the end of a full and successful season.
GREASE PAINT AND FOOTLIGHTS

From a typewritten manuscript to a first night performance . . . curtain calls and ample applause from the faculty and students . . . gala attire and gala spirits as left the first nighters of the playshop from a small class in elocution, added to the college curriculum as an experiment . . . to the Playshop of today, with its competent crews and talented players. But here the life of the Allegheny College Playshop does not end. Each year new improvements in method, material, and talent are added.

The first performance of the year, What a Life, has Philip Depp enrolled as that mischief-maker Henry Aldrich whose only escape from trouble is more trouble. Phil is Henry Aldrich all over again, even to the crack in his voice. James Schultz plays to perfection the part of the stern principal, and the romantic interest is between the principal’s secretary, Jane Ruoss to us, and the only understanding professor in the school, portrayed by Walter Morris. Jean Megahan and Esther Ebenhoe, as sour-faced school teachers, are poor Henry’s bug-a-boos and seem to blame him for everything that goes wrong — perhaps because he’s always responsible. The White Steed, by Paul Vincent Carroll, is the Playshop’s next big production. This play is double cast, and Darrell Robinson and Harold Newson (a new son of the Playshop) both do excellent jobs of portraying Canon Matt Lavelle, a kindly, understanding, but not too good, cripple who finds his parish being taken away from him by the villain, Father Shaughnessy, portrayed ably by Frederick Zimmer. The plot is deepened and made more interesting by Nora Fintry (Esther Campbell and Esther Ebenhoe). Nora is a headstrong girl of the parish who refuses to let the narrow-minded Father Shaughnessy and his vigilante committee tell her how to lead her life. By her love, she finally gets Denis Dillon, double cast by Walter Morris and Wallace Borgcr, from under the control of the stern churchman and makes a man of him. Father Shaughnessy is banished and the Canon, now unable to walk, regains control of his parish.

Programs of one-act plays were arranged, produced, and directed by students as a part of their work in courses in the department of dramatic art this year. These plays are staged with only ten hours of rehearsal. Only simplified settings and functional stage properties are used, since the emphasis is upon acting, directing, and basic design. Here, too, new actors and actresses showed promising ability.

A new feature this year in the Playshop program is a series of children’s plays. Little Black Sambo is the first of these productions, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association. Eighty-four students took part in this play, and both the acting and the stage scenery were especially new and entertaining. It was directed by Miss Eaves, a newcomer and an asset to our drama department. The Emperor’s New Clothes, with a setting in the romantic Orient and an excellent cast, is the title of the second children’s play.

We couldn’t forget the entertaining French play, Pierre Pathelin, which had the whole audience in stitches, even if many could not understand French. Superb acting, ad-libbing (sometimes in English), and the added attraction of a prompter who is loudly called upon for help when an actor forgets his lines—all part of a rollicking play.

And so the Playshop is looking into the future. It sends budding actors and actresses forth to enrich the world with the experience that they have here gained. It is a pathfinder in theatre improvements and new ideas. Although it has every right to rest upon its past laurels, it will not stop advancing. So here’s to the Allegheny Playshop of the future!
Allegheny College has ample reason to be proud of its Philo-Franklin Union and its Speakers' Bureau. The Allegheny College of the future will have even more reason to boast of a speech department second to that of no small college in the United States. The rapid developments of the last four years serve as a positive indication of future accomplishments.

Under the competent leadership of Richard Miller, the Philo-Franklin Union made itself a definite force on the campus this year. The Men's Extemporaneous Speaking Contest, won by Arthur Diskin, was followed by a like competition for the women. Nancy Martin defended the laurels of the feminine speakers and maintained the excellent standards set by Allegheny men.

The presidential election presented a golden opportunity for student speakers. The highlight of activities along this line was the debate between students, John Van Strien and Haskel Hoffenberg, and Will Rose, editor of the Cambridge Springs Enterprise, and Attorney Frank Prather of Meadville. An even more pertinent subject, one which may determine the future of the majority of Allegheny students, was "The Place of the College in the National Defense Program," discussed by Lieutenant Winfield McKay of the Erie Artillery. Arthur Diskin again proved his ability when, with patriotic fervor, he won the Wakefield Oration Contest with a concise, inspired plea for freedom of the press. Contemporary history and prophecies as to future events were presented vividly when Theodore Broch, formerly mayor of Narvik, Norway, was sponsored by the Union early in the spring. The Union extended its influence beyond college hall when it sponsored debate activity in nearby high schools. Philo-Franklin Union closed its activity with the Freshman Persuasive Speaking Contest in April.

Excellent planning facilitated the varied activities of Allegheny's debaters. Choosing three topics: 1—Resolved, That a permanent union between the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations be immediately established; 2—That the nations of the Western Hemisphere form a permanent union; 3—That the United States cease to oppose further Japanese aggression in the Far East; the varsity and freshman teams engaged in fifty debates with neighboring colleges. This extensive program included a debate with Ohio Wesleyan which was recorded verbatim for The University Debaters' Annual. Such an honor is accorded only to schools of outstanding debate activity.

Debaters of Allegheny met at Pennsylvania State College with representatives from other colleges and universities when freshman men and women convened March 7 and 8, and when debaters gathered March 14 and 15. Allegheny debate activities were also recognized through a display of pamphlets at the convention of the National Association of Teachers of Speech in Washington, D. C.

An activity which has served as an excellent device for advancing Allegheny interests abroad is the Speakers' Bureau. Covering a wider territory than any other such organization among American colleges, the bureau represented a variety of speaking programs. From Verla McNelly's appealing Negro poetry to Tom Corr's All This and Hitler, Too, Allegheny students showed their ability to adapt any subject to all types of audiences. James Gettemy, Richard Miller, and David Robertson, guinea pigs in a new Speakers' Bureau experiment, were prepared to meet all requests for talks on any number of subjects. This innovation has proved highly successful. Only lack of transportation prevented the various representatives of Speakers' Bureau from accepting more than the sixty-five engagements they did fill.

Enthusiasm on the part of speakers and audiences has been characteristic of Allegheny programs wherever they have been presented.

The activities of Philo-Franklin Union, Speakers' Bureau, and the debate squads have proved one point which has been and will be more appreciated as years pass. American college students, particularly Allegheny College students, will be heard!

Come sit by the fireside. There you will see the freshmen in the first chill of winter, gazing vacantly beyond the fire, dreaming of home or of the foggy future. The sophomores are there, plotting the destinies of the world, with firm conviction in their hearts and minds. The juniors are gathered around the fireside in song, perfectly harmonious in spirit if not in voice. The seniors are sitting before the fire in silence, or, slowly pulling at their pipes, reliving the babyon days so nearly gone. Even the old grad is there, trying to recall that zeal which burned within him in the good old days, and casting his memories, like scraps of paper, into the inexorable flames.

For, though the formal college is the mind of the student, the fraternity is his heart. Its truer contacts, man to man, lessen his sorrow, crush his discouragement, foster his courage, and keep noble ambitions alive within him. In its associations he probes his abilities, liberates his imagination, and unshackles his creativity. There he learns loyalty and justice; he acquires wisdom and develops understanding. And there, by the fireside, he begins the trek after truth, armed in the panoply of brotherly love, so that he may be a part in the upward march of humanity.

This is the legacy which the fraternity bestows upon a man. Though it be intangible as the rays of the sun, which are felt but not seen, it is nonetheless the vital part of him. Its influence is never to be rationalized; nor is it to be published to the unfeeling; nor is it to be reduced to workable formulae. It must ever remain more precious to men than rubies or the gold of the world: the priceless heritage of those who have felt the mysterious power of the smoke dreams which they envisaged by the fraternity fireside.

Varsity Swimming...

STROKE BY STROKE OR SPLASHING THROUGH

Season begins with new coach at the helm... Al Werner... Lichtenthal elected captain... seeds team to Buffalo State and Edinboro... Gators chalk up first win, 43-24, over Edinboro... mid-season exams eliminates Burrows, ace sprint swimmer... practice continues... strokes become smoother... muscles more flexible... a jaunt to Grove City... Gators lose in their "bath tub"... next Slippery Rock in Montgomery pool... stuff said... a trip to Westminster... Williams and Detwiler break Allegheny College standards in their events... Williams swims 200-yard breaststroke in 3:06 seconds... Detwiler does 150-yard butterfly in 2:07.3 seconds... Gators play host to fine Oberlin team... Edinboro appears here and another win by Allegheny... Grove City, in Montgomery pool, rings down final curtain... Captain Lichtenthal and Brandt, seniors, make splendid showing in final meet... record of two wins, six defeats not impressive... hopes for next year much higher with Detwiler, Caldwell, Williams, Pete, Hamilton, Fuhs, Roeder, King, Bieber, Leuthner returning.

"Booters open with Slippery Rock"

first call for practice... toes are educated and legs limbered up... Slippery Rock avenges last year's defeat, 1-0, on Montgomery field... a jaunt to Pittsburgh... win over Carnegie Tech, 4-3, in gruelling overtime battle... a knock-down, drag-out tussle with Grove City at Homecoming...

Gators win, 3-2... extend win streak to two games... highly touted Rochester comes to Meadville and breaks it, 2-1... furiously played contest... travel to Buffalo State and win, 2-1, from the Bisons... then to Oberlin for season's last game... fall to Yeomen and raging elements, 2-0... most successful season in years... three wins and three losses... Coach Way pleased with next year's prospects... only five lettermen lost by graduation: Captain Baldwin, Dennison, Gilmore, Stier, Caputo... other lettermen: Beebe, Caravacci, Nasta, Doncaster, Blank, Welday, Burnows, Stunder, MacMillan.

THE NEWS SPREAD AROUND...

Informal shots snapped in off-moments... camera fiends always on the job... pictures of people as we like to remember them.

“A great day for Allegheny... The new girls’ dormitory dedicated by the laying of a cornerstone overflowing with names, dinks, Campuses, Kaldrons, and the like. The building’s namesake, Mrs. Brooks, President Tolley, President Wible, President Gibbs and Dean Skinner all braved the rain to help put the stone in place.

“A strike! (?)... Again sophomores defeated. Large glow followed by snake dance... Guess who won (so sorry)... Soda-jerker Schultz triumphantly delivers Grill’s first ice cream cone... How to keep warm on a cold day: have a barrel-of-fun... Every Tuesday, Thursday at 12 noon... Bounce me, brother, with a solid four... Welcome, Class of ’44!”
Congratulations to the newest set of Owens... Apple-shining, or maybe they're just pale? ... Who's in a hurry? ... Take it for a ride, Frankie... Upset-daisy, Annie... There's that barrel again... Good, solid comfort and lots to eat... Sun and sand and water and tomorrow an hour quiz... Be very careful 'cause that water looks awful wet... Is everybody happy? ... "Do you see her? Let's go and get them." ... This time the birdie's watching you... Watch that foul line! ... Vicky and Rich dancing in the now deceased recreation room... See the skeleton... Out of the dusk... "What would you like, Doctor Tolley?"
Thank You!

Our Town

We Really Mean It . . .

when we say we are very grateful to those individuals and merchants who, through advertising, have made Allegheny College publications a success.

Our only hope is that we have done some little bit toward cementing a closer relationship between Allegheny College and the businessmen of Meadville. We will endeavor to express our appreciation by continued patronage.

The Strangest Fact
In Modern Selling!

You know that in most businesses today, the cheaper the product the larger the sales! Take clothing, automobiles, almost any field as an example.

In the slide fastener field, however, the most expensive product gets the vast majority of the sales. TALON, Inc., sells more slide fasteners than all other manufacturers in the field combined.

The reason for this is plain — the exclusive advantages and dependability of the TALON slide fastener far outweigh the fraction of a cent extra it costs.
