My dear Madam:-

The enclosed incident in the early life of Judge Gary may be too inconsequent to interest you as the Judge's biography. My perusal of your first installment of his life, however, brought it back to my recollection very vividly and I concluded to reduce it to type and send it nevertheless.

You perhaps do not recall me, but I had the pleasure of meeting you during my service in Washington as one of the Senators from this State in 1914, or thereabouts. You were then stopping at Congress Hall.

Very sincerely yours,

CST-J.
