

May 8, 1928

Mr. F. A. Scott,
5701 Carnegie Avenue,
Cleveland, O.

My dear Mr. Scott:

I have your letter of May 8, saying that you expect to be in New York on the 13th, 14th and 15th of May and are willing to make an appointment with me.

You suggest that I set a time for our talk. I could see you here at my office study at 2:30 on Wednesday, 9:30 or 2:30 on Thursday; or it would be equally convenient for me to call at your hotel. I appreciate of course that on brief business trips of this kind you may be a little crowded for time, and I want to accommodate myself entirely to your convenience. If, for any reason, the hours I mention conflict with some other engagement that you have or may have, I shall be glad to make a shift.

Thank you for your suggestion about Mr. Clarkson's book. I shall take care to read it before I see you.

I should also like to talk over with you a little controversy which Judge Gary had a few months ago with Mr. Baruch.

Looking forward with pleasure to meeting you, believe me,
my dear Mr. Scott,

Sincerely yours,