OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

June 26, 1925.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

By messenger we are sending you herewith the copies of articles, telegrams and minutes of meetings requested when you were here on Wednesday.

We are also enclosing a photostat copy of the letter written to Judge Gary by President Roosevelt March 16, 1907.

In my opinion this photostat is a very poor copy and I would not like to see it used in making reproduction for the magazine. In fact, the processes used in making such copies do not lend themselves to making really first class copies suitable for a book or a magazine. I think the original letter should be properly photographed so as to bring out well all parts of the letter, and will hold it for the use of Mrs. McKeogh when she is ready for it.

As requested, we are also enclosing a printed copy of the circular issued in December, 1903, referring to the conditions under which employes temporarily out of work might receive the benefits of their subscriptions to stock.

Very truly yours,

J. R. Sites,

Enclosures.

Secretary to Judge Gary.
