CHAPTER VI

Gary tells me of meeting a man by the name of Murray, formerly associated with H.H.Rogers, who said to him recently, "Rogers told me something about you that might interest you. He didn't believe in you at first. Said 'I thought Judge Gary did wrong in big propositions. This thing of making our reports public, of making friends with everybody, treating competitors as if they were allies, but I lived to see that I was wrong and Gary was right.'"
