OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

We have the following letters which should not be released to be sent to a photographer for reproduction, unless our own messenger went with them to bring back the letters as soon as photographed. Or better, perhaps the photographer would come to this office and make the copies here, namely.

John D. Rockefeller, October 21, 1921.
Andrew Carnegie, November 28, 1906.
Theodore Roosevelt, June 5, 1915.
H. C. Frick, October 2, 1919.
Horace Barnes August 5, 1918.
(Copies are enclosed.)

Judge Gary should look over the illustrations and the captions before publication, as well as the text, but of course you will be careful with respect to one or two letters, portions of which were strictly private, to see that the proper parts of such letters only are published. I refer especially to a letter written by Erastus Gary, sent to you on December 30th, 1924.

Very truly yours,

R. L. Lita
Secretary to Judge Gary.
