

GARY DINNERS

It was natural that the public should suspect the Gary dinners. "We had sub-committees and these committees may have done things I didn't know anything about. I wrote to Bonaparte exactly about these dinners and that their object to try to prevent wide and sudden fluctuations in the market. We had no objection to this. They were frequently attended by our customers and I think by an occasional lawyer - Stetson used to go. The trade press

2/23
see letter to Bonaparte