OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

March 21, 1925.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The manuscript beginning with Chapter III, running to page 29, is herewith returned. Judge Gary has marked in pencil a few slight changes. Also proposed editorial.

Some such paragraph as contained on the attached sheet, marked "A", should also be included in this chapter.

I am also attaching a copy of clipping on page 4 of the scrap book, which incorporates the opinion of a prominent Chicago lawyer, expressed about the time Judge Gary left Chicago to take up his new business in New York City. This clipping is marked "B".

A third enclosure, marked "C", contains the quotation from Blackstone's Commentaries concerning which Judge Gary gave you a statement Thursday in connection with his beginning of reading of law.

I will try to reach you by telephone on Monday morning with further reference to the chapter on law practice.

Very truly yours,

Enclosures.

Secretary to Judge Gary.

P.S. A fourth enclosure, marked "D", which Mr. Halstead has just found, seems to be about the identical wording that Judge Gary used in conversation concerning statutes contrary to the law of God.
