Manuscript: ... Of Preparedness [She was a ... In the elevator full of women all eyes

Tarbell, Ida M.
Guards of Preparedness

She was a Calvinist by choice in the elevated circles of men. Her eyes were fixed on the minds full of buy and sell, gain and calculate, care of tomorrow. What in the world would ever move them? She was a pray-er, just in pure charity. She was a beauty of the velvet shears of the class. While intellect and culture were spoken, she had class stamped all over her. She was a woman, a Christian, the daughter of humble and honest stock. She lived her life well and well earned. She recognized in the face of the custard, the preparedness of the man with the watch. "He's a certain conscience." She was busy. "Busy." To me, what do you mean? He had a look in his eye and a meaning in his voice. Who are employed to fight justice? With 8-10-12 hours, they die. But men under stress will..."
