

Outline - Woman Series.

I

1. - Discussion that will not down - irrepressible and unsatisfactory, continually flaring up, this discussion whether or not women can make a permanent contribution to industrial life - quote that War and her contribution there had settled matter - in spite of demonstrations of inequalities, old dissatisfactions prevail - reports continue to come showing lower wages for what she claims is the same work, reports of discrimination. What is the trouble?

Vague notions on what women are doing in the business and industrial world of this country, vague and mistaken notions of what industry itself means. Industry not made up alone of work at machines - a creation, organization executive, management, finance, labor, all enter in - illustrate the case of the growth of the sewing machine industry. The term woman and industry needs to be understood in a wider sense, not limited to mechanical work, Granting that and considering, for the sake of clearness, that by industry we mean the making, raising and distributing of articles necessary and desired for the daily physical life of the world, where does woman stand in the various factors, the creative organization, etc. as well as labor. The examination here in the Army to which she belongs. The woman's industrial army, its members, age, where it comes from, how it distributes itself, the workers, executives, financiers, owners, managers. How the army takes care of itself, looks after its own interest, - unions in the ranks Mary Anderson - Different situations in different industries, textile industry, its conservatism, inability of women to get much beyond the machine in present organization. Clothing contract to textile - open road here for women - their remarkable successes - Mrs. Reich. Women designers, founders and managers of shops.

Unexpected places in which women are found. Their recognition by Chambers of Commerce.

It is an actual Army with an actual standing, more and more taking on the organization shape of an Army. More and more recognized but in spite of its growing position, hampered.