New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:—

I enclose the editorial of which you spoke in your recent letter. Please note the error. Mr. Young's father's name was Jacob S. as of course you know.

I am also taking the liberty of sending you an editorial which I wrote concerning the dinner given by the Lotos Club to Mr. Young in December. Under separate cover, I am sending you a copy of the Mohawk Valley booklet, which I wrote and which has recently been issued.

On December 10, 1924, the Fort Plain Standard printed an editorial by the writer "nominating" Owen D. Young for President.

For the background of this action, may I exercise the sublime egotism to suggest one of my own books — "The Old Mohawk Turnpike Book". If you care for it I would be glad to send you a copy.

It is certainly great that you are writing the biography of Owen D.

Very truly yours
Nelson Greene
