

1932-07-27

Letter: Harry Elmer Barnes to Ida M. Tarbell, July 27, 1932

Barnes, Harry Elmer

<http://hdl.handle.net/10456/38588>

This item is in the public domain.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.

HARRY ELMER BARNES
VAN TASSEL APARTMENTS
TARRYTOWN-ON-HUDSON
NEW YORK

July 27, 1932

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Many thanks for your kind letter. Whatever Mr. Stolberg thinks I had not thought of criticising you for deliberately creating a plaster saint. My main point is that the newer industrial leaders, though more soft-spoken, really make less of a contribution to human welfare than the old pirates you have so justly attacked.

Cordially yours,

Harry E. Barnes

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street
New York City