Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I thought you might be interested in the enclosed letter from a New Zealand reader. He wrote it nearly two months before he summoned up courage to send it. Why, I don't know. But according to the letter which accompanied it he hesitated to put us to the trouble of reading it.

I've written him a cordial note of thanks and have told him that I'm sending it on to you as the author of the Owen D. Young articles.

Very sincerely yours,

Mabel Harding
