Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York City

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am sending up to you herewith all of the original illustrations which you sent down to us for your book "Owen D. Young", together with a pasted-up layout showing our grouping, which varies somewhat from the suggested list sent to us. Will you kindly prepare copy for the captions and let us have it, together with the layout and the original illustrations, as soon as possible?

I am not sure whether or not you ever saw the jacket, and I am therefore enclosing one prepared for the dummy. This is not, of course, the final printing.

You will find in the smaller envelope such illustrations as we did not think practical to use, and the duplicates of others.

If you will kindly telephone me when you have checked the layout and have the material ready, I shall be glad to send a messenger for it. If possible, we should like to have everything back not later than Wednesday morning.

Very truly yours,

Fritz O. Lund
