October 28, 1931.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Here are the pictures of the Lexington house. You wanted a picture of the trees at the rear and I will try and get one for you. I am also going to try and see if I cannot get a better picture of the front of the house. Would you also like a picture of the Cambridge house?

You were desirous of obtaining Mr. Fernald's name. It is Robert W. Fernald.

Here is a copy of a letter that Mr. Tyler sent to Mrs. Young back in 1910. I searched for the memorandum that prompted it but was not able to find it. However, I remember the occurrence very well and can give you the details, if you want them, the next time you are here.

* I think that sometime when you are up near Albany you might like to talk with the Reverend M. J. Dwyer. His address is:

Care Church of St. Ambrose,
Latham, New York.

Fr. Dwyer was a former District Attorney in Boston and came into the office here in 1909 or 1910. I think he might be able to give you something of value.

(Miss Ida M. Tarbell,.....2)

I suggested to you that Hiram C. Todd had been in Senator Brackett's office and might give you some information about Adirondack. I did not give you his address then. It is:

Care Messrs. Baldwin, Hutchins & Todd,
120 Broadway,
New York.

Another person who might be of assistance to you is Mr. Phinney. He was Texas Manager for Stone & Webster for a number of years prior to 1913 and was in very close contact with Mr. Young during his many visits there. He has retired now and is living somewhere up in Maine, in Gorham, I think. I will try and get his address before you come over again.

I am getting together various letters, or rather, parts of letters, that I think will be helpful to you. I hope to have them ready when you come next week.

Having read many of your writings, I felt I knew you and it was indeed a sincere pleasure to meet you and to try to assist you, even so slightly, particularly in view of your present mission. If there is anything here in Boston that I can procure for you, or any information that you desire which I can secure for you, please let me know.
