February 5, 1931

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I was delighted on receiving your letter of February 2 accepting our invitation to visit St. Lawrence, and to remain with us during the last two weeks of May. It is gracious of you to consent to speak in the chapel on Sunday, May 17.

I am happy to learn that you are to write a series of articles relating to the life of our mutual friend, Mr. Owen D. Young, and that you hope and expect later on to publish these in book form. We will do everything we can to further your purpose.

Again assuring you of our interest and pleasure in your coming,

Sincerely yours,

Richard E. Sydes
