

THE ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY
CANTON, NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

January 31, 1931

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have received a letter from Mr. Owen D. Young, the President of our Board of Trustees, telling of the prospect of your making a visit to St. Lawrence University the last fortnight in May. I am writing to tell you how pleased we are, and to assure you that we will give you a most hearty welcome. I have suggested to Mr. Young that, provided it meet your favor, we should like to have you come so as to be here on Sunday, May 17. On that day at four o'clock in the afternoon, we should be pleased to have you speak in the chapel on any subject that you may select. You would be free during the remainder of the two weeks to do whatever you preferred. As Mr. Young suggested, we will arrange for you to live in the women's dormitory, while you are here.

It will be a great privilege for the students of St. Lawrence to have the opportunity of associating with you. I hope that you also will enjoy your visit to this institution of the North Country.

Sincerely yours,

Richard E. Dyer
