Dear Mrs. Appleton:

Your note reached me last night - delayed in the mail evidently. I tried to get hold of you by telephone this morning but they told me you were in town.

How much I should like to go out to you on Thursday. It would be a pleasure to see you and of course to visit with Jean Siddall, but it is out of the question. I have every hour taken Thursday and the next day I am off for some three weeks.

I hope you will give me a chance to see you again later in the season and will you not tell Jean that I am hoping to get a look at her before she goes back to Tucson.

Regretting that I cannot go to you Thursday, believe me

Cordially yours

Mrs. C. W. Appleton
