

February 16, 1932

Dear Mr. Case:

I am sending down to you ten of the twelve chapters of the Young book. Mr. Crocker has Chapters VIII and IX. I am sorry to send so poor a manuscript but according to the law of the publishing jungle the Original and Carbon Number One must go to editors and readers. You will pardon slips and mis-spelling such as Borden for Boyden. ^{As} I knew Roland Boyden for thirty years I really did know how to spell his name!

I hope that both you and Mr. Crocker will have had time to look over the manuscript before I have the pleasure of seeing you at lunch on Friday.

You both understand, I am sure, what I am after is suggestions to improve - and to correct where necessary.

It will be a pleasure to see you Friday.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Everett Case
120 Broadway
New York City

120 EAST NINETEENTH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

February 16, 1932

Dear Mr. Case:

I am sending down to you ten of the twelve chapters of the Young book. Mr. Crocker has Chapters VIII and IX. I am sorry to send so poor a manuscript but according to the law of the publishing jungle the Original and Carbon Number One must go to editors and readers. You will pardon slips and mis-spelling such as Borden for Boyden. As I knew Roland Boyden for thirty years I really did know how to spell his name!

I hope that both you and Mr. Crocker will have had time to look over the manuscript before I have the pleasure of seeing you at lunch on Friday.

You both understand, I am sure, what I am after is suggestions to improve - and to correct where necessary.

It will be a pleasure to see you Friday.

Very sincerely yours

Louise Dabell
Z

Mr. Everett Case
120 Broadway
New York City

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pellerin Library.