Dear Mr. Case:

Coming in from the country I find your note of May 18th with a copy of Mr. Young's message on the President's Inaugural. It is a particularly fine thing.

After looking over the official copy of the Senate inquiry on the Insull affair I concluded that I must if possible have it for my file. Mr. Riddle thought that you might have some extra copies later and that possibly my name would go down for one. If this is not convenient I will arrange to have a copy made in Washington.

I am delighted with Josephine's "Frieda" and I know how proud you all must be. It is such a good piece of work - so full of fine feeling and understanding.

Faithfully yours
