Dear Mr. Case:

My Secretary tells me that she has just made an engagement for me to talk with you next Tuesday morning at Ten-thirty. I will tell you then how satisfactory I found my talk yesterday with Miss Young. She and I agreed that it would be better for me to have a look at Van Hornesville before I went to Schenectady and if she could manage her engagements I would better meet her there Monday, the Seventeenth - going over to Schenectady the next afternoon. I hope that this arrangement, if it can be carried out, will not throw out the arrangement for me to see Mr. Trench, that is, that it will be equally convenient for him later in the week. By Tuesday morning I take it we can settle definitely.

Faithfully yours
