Letter: Sumner Blossom to Ida M. Tarbell, May 15, 1931

Blossom, Sumner

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/38777

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thanks a lot for the revised Young piece. I think it carries out our little chat excellently.

However, it did strike me that it was just a little slow going in the first half, and I wondered if we couldn't bring Owen D. Young out more vividly and more completely by injecting a few paragraphs to set him up well forward in the lead, say after the second paragraph.

If you agree with this suggestion, suppose you just send me the paragraphs at your convenience and we will mortise them in here.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.