

April 25, 1931

My dear Miss Chandler:

I have just returned from a few days in the country and find on my desk your note of April 17th, containing the clipping from the New York Evening Post, which Mr. Young asked be sent to me. It is quite worth while, particularly coming from so good a man as Gilbert.

All of these clippings which the office is sending me I shall return one of these days for your files. One of these days too, I am hoping to have another talk with you. I have been much distressed by the accident to Mrs. Ida Young. How anxious you must have all been. I shall appreciate it if you will let me know just how she is - I have hesitated to trouble Mrs. Young.

Very sincerely yours

Miss Gertrude Chandler
