Dear Miss Chandler:

Am I right in supposing that in June 1927 Mr. Young was at the International Chamber of Commerce then in session in Stockholm?

This is the point. The "New York Times Editorial, "Fit to be President," came out on the Twenty-sixth of June. Mr. C. F. Weed told me in Boston a few weeks ago an interesting story of what happened at the Stockholm (?) meeting when Mr. Young received from reporters a copy, cabled I suppose, of the editorial. That is, I suppose it to be this editorial. I do not want to tell Mr. Weed's story, however, unless Mr. Young was at that time at a meeting of I. C. C.

If he was there was he acting as Chairman as I understood?

You see how sceptical I am of word of mouth testimony. I have learned to my sorrow that one must be.

Very sincerely

N
