Dean Homer D. Albers
55 State Street
Boston, Mass.

My dear Dean Albers:

I have undertaken to do a short life of Owen D. Young and am anxious to have a talk with you, particularly about the work which he did under you in Boston University.

If I am not wrong Mr. Young's lectures were concerned with Common Law Pleadings and you published with him a pamphlet called, "Practice in Problems of Pleadings." This I have not been able to put my hands upon and am hoping that you can tell me where to find a copy.

I am going to Boston on the Twenty-first and shall be there for the rest of the week.
Could you find time to talk with me, either on Thursday forenoon - anytime on Friday or on Saturday forenoon?
I shall greatly appreciate it, my dear Dean Albers, if you can arrange to see me. And it would be a convenience in arranging my engagements if you could let me know at the address below the day and hour.-

Thanking you in advance for any help you may be able to give me in my task, believe me

Very sincerely yours
