Mr. John Ellwood
Vice President, N.B.C.
711 Fifth Avenue
New York City

My dear Mr. Ellwood:

I have on hand a short life of Mr. Owen D. Young. Mr. Young, his office and many of his associates have been giving me their assistance in the undertaking and now I am asking yours.

I am trying to trace Mr. Young's activities in the war. I have good material on the work of the G. E. in that period but am not able from these documents to trace Mr. Young's part. I am told that you were his private secretary during this period and it had been suggested that you might be willing to talk with me. Of course I am not asking for information which you might regard as confidential and in no case to publish what you might tell me without permission.

If you are willing to see me, my dear Mr. Ellwood, I would like to call at your office some day next week - any day before Friday - at any hour convenient to you.

Very truly yours
