Dear [Name],

Sorry I can’t get down to see you when I’ll be in Munich, the first book, Bonaventura, and slight temperature make it unwise to do so then.

My idea was an appendix to the book containing your list—Pandemonium English library; parts of his speech to graduating class last year. I thought parts of an earlier thesis. This may not be feasible, but I know it would make a fine corollary to the penny biographies of some small stuff in the last. However—JSP
