Dear Mr. Rice:

Thank you for your letter of June 22nd with the information I asked for and also for the interesting photographs of Mr. Young. I am passing these along to the American Magazine, not knowing of course what use they will make of them. They will be returned to me and if you wish I shall return them to you after my work is done.

You were good enough to ask if there is anything else that you can do. Any pictures you can send me of Mr. Young - unconventional pictures - at ease or in action, will be greatly appreciated by the Magazine Art Department as well as by myself; and we can promise to return them later.

Thanking you again for your prompt and courteous co-operation, believe me

Very sincerely yours
