Mr. Merlin Hall Aylesworth
President, National Broadcasting Co.
711 Fifth Avenue
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Aylesworth:

Sometime ago Miss Josephine Young suggested to me that I ask you to be good enough to talk to me about a piece of work that I have on hand - a short life of Owen D. Young. I have been out of New York a great deal for the last few months and have delayed making the request.

Would it be possible for you to see me for a talk sometime next week - Monday and Saturday accepted? I could go to your office anytime convenient to you.

What I have in mind is talking over Mr. Young's connection with radio broadcasting and I should like, of course, to have as much showing his continued interest and suggestiveness as you may think it wise to tell me. I can assure you that nothing will find its way in print of which you do not approve.

Hoping you will be able to see me at your convenience, believe me my dear Mr. Aylesworth

Very truly yours
