Dear Mr. Trench:

Thank you for your nice note about the Young book. I'd give a good deal to talk it over with you and Mrs. Trench. It isn't what it ought to be and I'd like to find out why!

I want to go up to Schenectady one of these days as soon as I have certain things off my hands that are rather troublesome at the moment. I want to go into the G. E.'s labor policy with you, also the Swepe Plan. Would you talk with me not officially, but man to man and not to be quoted, unless you were willing? How about it?

My kindest regards to Mrs. Trench and to that wonderful daughter of yours.

Very sincerely,

Mr. William W. Trench,
1168 Waverly Place,
Schenectady, N.Y.
