November 14, 1930.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I enclose herewith your ticket and Pullman reservation for the train leaving Grand Central station at 11 o'clock on Monday morning and arriving at Palatine Bridge at 3.28 PM. Miss Josephine Young expects to be on the same train and has a chair next to yours.

I talked with Mr. Trench, and he has reserved a room and bath at the Hotel Van Curler in your name which will be available Tuesday afternoon. He expects to be in Schenectady all of next week except Monday, and so your arrival is admirably timed so far as he is concerned. I know you will find him tremendously helpful. I shall try to come up to Schenectady on either Thursday or Friday of next week.

With kindest regards, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Ernest Case
