Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you so much for your letter of February 10th. Of course we shall be delighted to read the manuscript of your life of Owen D. Young when it arrives, and make suggestions for slight changes if any occur to us. When you have considered our suggestions and decided definitely on the final form of the book, then we can make all possible speed in getting it to the printer.

I am sure Mr. Latham will be more than delighted to see you on Monday afternoon.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.
