My dear Miss Tarbell:

I should be very glad to arrange for the index to your Owen D. Young being made, seeing that this is your desire. I do not imagine that it requires a very full index.

To be on the safe side, it is probably wise for you to write to the American Magazine asking them to give you their formal release for the use of material contained in articles published by them for use in book form. Then a short note can be put at the beginning of the book saying that acknowledgment is made to the American Magazine for their courtesy in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

L. H. Titterton
