Owen D Young - Letters Endorsed. file V Zuboldier.

after energizing &c.

And in close view the impression that had [illegible] been made - is enlarged filled in & added to in unexpected human ways. I have run across [illegible] & talked with [illegible] Young in many places in this office, at the home in Van Hornesville & Related village of his birth, in Virginia where he sometimes goes, I have talked with many of his associates & friends in Boston & have explored [illegible] the Secretary in the files & laboratories of in the administrative offices at - & every where he [illegible] & the impression that he is the same large figure - a man looked up to & with affection & admiration. He is all of a piece to [illegible] Both the people of the place & Owen Young himself [illegible] Van Hornesville & the boy in the family [illegible]

I have run across many evidences of Owen D Young's kindly goodness. In his boyhood library - always devoted, self-denying considerable