My dear Miss Tarbell:

   It will be a pleasure to chat with you about Mr. Owen D. Young.

   It so happens that I am leaving for New York on the seventeenth of this month. I shall be there the eighteenth but shall be back in Boston in time for dinner on the nineteenth.

   It would give Mrs. Weed and me great pleasure if you would dine with us at our house, 131 Carlton Street, Brookline, at 7:15 either on Thursday evening, November nineteenth, or Friday evening, November twentieth, whichever may be the more convenient for you.

Believe me to be

Sincerely yours

C. F. Weed
