Notes: Art School League, December 5, 1914

Tarbell, Ida M.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/39480

©Allegheny College. All rights reserved.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
These notes were from a talk at the annual luncheon of the Art School League. It is like all private parties who are trying to acquaint as large a number of pupils as possible with the museums. They have adopted a Docent, a very capable Boston Girl. Mr. Alexander said that when she was hired nobody knew what a Docent was but they had faith that it was something they needed. In the article on art teaching he took a trip with her both to the Metropolitan and Brooklyn museums.

[Handwritten note:]

[Signature: Waldof]
Reluctance.

Read it to procure in

to the end not.

None of my writing of me.

how the word this.

One half of I am not sent some - To give people the essentials of reality 2

their minds 2 children

2 miles.
Dear Mr. Smith,

I am writing to request a delay in the implementation of the new policy. I believe it is not feasible to execute it within the specified timeframe. The current system is working well, and the sudden change would cause significant disruptions.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
swing it when it is -

Non it ni Nui Ei - delving it in small -

meaning -

meaning quality -

predetermined theory do vs. pr.

assure -

can damn - understand -

and utility worth -

quantity -

wove -

collin silk -

Pour fishermen - no -

piece in it -

real can you appeal -

men & women do ex -

apart - defend their sail -

long & hard may -

manner value at -

perma & special use -

durability luckily -

is winning -