Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

The Program Committee joins me in pleasant anticipations of having you as a speaker-guest of honor at the Fiftieth Anniversary Dinner of the Club, at the Brevoort, Fifth Avenue at Eighth Street, the evening of November tenth. Other speakers (five to ten minutes) will be James Howard Bridge, Ellis Parker Butler, Governor Wilbur L. Cross, of Connecticut; John Erskine, Burton J. Hendrick, David Morton, of Amherst; Allan Nevins, of Columbia; Don C. Seitz and possibly Mary Austin. We are proud of you as the first woman to become a member of the Club, and felicitate you on your own anniversary.

Please advise me as to the subject you have chosen for your informal response on this happy occasion, and oblige
