INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF WORKING WOMEN

October 20, 1919.

My dear friend:

In the name of the National Women's Trade Union League of America it gives me great pleasure to invite you to attend the First International Congress of Working Women. The Congress is held at the request of the British and French Trade Union Women. Delegates are coming from fifteen European countries as well as from South American countries and Canada. The program before the Congress includes protective legislation for women and children including the care of mothers and babies, hazardous occupations, the eight-hour day, unemployment, etc., as outlined by the Peace Conference at Paris. The recommendations of this Congress will be presented to the International Labor Congress called by the League of Nations.

The Congress will open October 28th at the New National Museum, Washington, D. C., the sessions extending through November 4th.

Should you be able to attend, will you let us know so that we may send you a ticket of admission? The capacity of the hall is limited and requests are coming from all over the country.

We shall count it a great honor to have you with us.

Very cordially yours,
Margaret Ruth Robins
Mrs. Raymond Robins,
President.
