

I . . .
Thou shalt not thy-ghe see of when he headette out the corn

B. He that planteth
and he that wa-
tereth are one
and each shall receive his own reward according to his labor.

Could say to us
sit there here well

III.
You have discerned
the poor man - you have expect to us
that - is clothed
in fine apparel
and has a gold
ring & you say
to me in my mean attire
stamp those still a self made man
robbed

1. Why
hounded to be
with - falls into temptation & a
snare & many
foolish and unprofitable
lusts -

Love of money is
root of all kinds
of evil.

V.
Became thou.
said - I am rich
I have gotten riches
and have need of
nothing, knowest
not - that you art
the wretched one
I miser able and
poor and blind
and naked

Behold the hire
of the laborers who have reaped down
your fields, which thou of you kept
back by fraud Oweth to the one of them which have reaped are enter ed into the ears
of the Lord of
sheaves

your gold &
silver is counted
& the rest of them
shall be witness
against you &
shall eat your flesh as it were
fire.
