The New Kaldron Board

HOW THE WORK IS PROGRESSING AND A COMPLETE LIST OF THE BOARD.

On Saturday morning S. C. Lampe was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of F. E. Blaisdell from the position of editor-in-chief of the Kaldron. With the resignation of Blaisdell came the announcement that Jones and Whitehill had also resigned. V. M. McConnell has been appointed associate editor to fill the vacancy made by the withdrawal of Whitehill. The other vacancy has not been filled. The remainder of the board remains as originally elected, and each member has promised his support in editing the Kaldron. Already some material has been printed and in a few days it is expected to have the Kaldron boiling. It is the purpose of the 1902 board of editors to make this a college publication that shall be representative of every class of college work and one that shall represent the college to the outside world in its true light.

This does not mean that the Kaldron will spare any efforts in its chance to "roast, grind, boil and eat" each and every student, faculty member, association and institution in connection with the college.

Every one that has been in college long enough to be known has been there long enough to deserve a "scald" from the Kaldron. The only chance you have is to strike back at some one else, and the best way to do this is by giving a "roast, joke or jab" on the fellow to some member of the Kaldron board or drop it in the box in the middle hall of Bentley.

If you would have this a year book of the college that shall be so in more ways than in name, you must help the editors to make it so. There are many incidents of the year that deserve either praise or censure, that may be overlooked. It is your duty to see that these are brought to the notice of the Kaldron board.

Now is the chance. You can help make the annual a book that you take pride in showing to your friends, one in which you can have interest by contributing, one that shall show the humorous side of college life, one that shall be a register of the college activity of 1901-1902.

Political Troubles.

PHI GAMMA DELTA SUSPENDED FROM PAN-HELLENIC ASSOCIATION.

Political factions and leaders have been agog the past week over the recent trouble in the fraternity combination, and the questions most frequently asked are: What is the trouble about? Where did it begin; and where will it end?

In justice to all concerned the affair should be clearly stated.

In order to arouse the proper interest in the regular athletic election, and to insure a large membership for the Athletic association, it has been found advisable for some time past to have two candidates in the field for each office at the regular athletic elections. Naturally, this gave rise to political combinations, which in themselves accomplish the end in view.

As interest in athletics increased, the interest in athletic elections increased, and political lines became more clearly defined. Combinations were made and factions arose. About a year ago party lines narrowed and the fight was on between the frat and non-frat elements. In a meeting of the Pan-Hellenic association the fraternities agreed to support the candidates of the association. Violation of this agreement was to be punished by suspension from the Pan-Hellenic association for one year.

In the election of the winter term the candidates of the non-fraternity element were successful in every case except one, the only fraternity winner being a member of the Phi Gamma Delta. The defeated fraternity candidates at once claimed credit work, alleging that some of the fraternities had violated the agreement. At a meeting of the Pan-Hellenic committee on April 7, evidence was produced and considered sufficient to suspend Phi Gamma Delta from the association for violation of the agreement.

The suspension of Phi Gamma Delta from the Pan-Hellenic association will exclude that fraternity from a place in the college publication and from the Pan-Hellenic banquet which is to be held Wednesday evening. The present state of affairs is deplored by all the fraternities concerned, but in justice to the Pan-Hellenic association and with the future welfare of the Greek societies in view, the action was deemed necessary.

Base Ball Notes.

WEATHER PERMITS BUT A SINGLE DAY'S WORK ON THE DIAMOND—MANY CANDIDATES OUT—SOME VERY PROMISING MATERIAL AMONG THE NEW MEN—COACH BUCKLEY WELL PLEASED OVER THE SHOWING OF THE FIRST DAY'S WORK.

A little sunshine on Wednesday of last week sufficed to attract a large number of candidates for the base ball team to Athletic park, and for over two hours Coach Buckley kept the men on the move, being careful not to over-work them on the first day out, but keeping them all busy enough to avoid bad results from the cold wind which swept the diamond. After considerable work in trying men out at the different positions a short but interesting game was played, in which all the men had a show.

The work on Wednesday was sufficient to prove that we have some very fast material in line this season among the new men.

Of the old men, Lewis at first and McConnell at short show greatest improvement over their work of last year. Lewis seems to have his eye on the ball, succeeding in getting three

His arm seems to be much stronger hits during the game on Wednesday, and he lined the ball across the diamond as if he were in mid-season condition.

McConnel at short showed splendid form in handling ground balls and his throw to first is much improved. If Mac succeeds in pulling up in stick work, he will make a fast man this year.

Capt. Turner in right field covered the ground as though he had been at work in the outfield for a month. His work at the bat was also very good.

En Dean showed fine vocal condition and will no doubt take care of the middle garden in good shape.

Leffingwell was all over the left lot, gathering in the high ones, and seems to be in fine condition.

Mook, behind the bat, shows improved form, his throw to second is very fast and with care his arm will be in fine shape this season. He seems to be a little weak at the bat, but Coach Buckley promises to develop him in this line, as he thinks his position while at bat marks him as a good sticker.

Taylor's arm seems to be in poor shape, as he had difficulty in shoving the ball across the diamond, and unless there is speedy improvement in his lame shoulder, he will not be able to play any ball this year.

Haas is showing up well in the box and has all kind of benders and good control for this time of the year. Without doubt he will make a valuable man.

Elbert was given a trial in the box and made a very favorable impression. He has a good arm and fair control. His lack of experience will be a draw-back, but he will undoubtedly develop into a good man.

Strickler, the two-handed phenom, made a very good showing in the box, and if he succeeds in getting control with both hands he will be an invaluable man.

Fletcher, at second, showed up well. He is not only very fast in covering ground and in running bases, but has a magnificent arm. He ought to be one of the fastest of the new men.

Kelley was given a trial behind the bat and at short and did good work in both positions. He hit the ball like an old leaguer and shows remarkable coolness and judgment. He will undoubtedly make a strong bid for a place in the infield.

Yard was worked out at third and seemed to cover the ground in good shape. He has a strong arm, but seems to be weak at the bat. If he succeeds in breaking himself of the habit of stepping back from the plate, he ought to develop into a fair hitter.

Collner showed up well in the outfield and works like a ball player.

Zimmerman covers third in good shape, but as yet his arm is no good. Brice did some very clever work at short and hit the ball good and hard. Ashley was tried out at third and at first. He plays the latter position in a credible way, but seems a little lame as yet on low balls.

Yeaney was also given a chance at third and made a fair showing. He seems to be very handy with the stick.

Space does not permit us to mention the favorable showing made by a number of other men. Suffice to say that Coach Buckley is very much pleased with the work of all the men out and sees no reason why the base ball team will not be a success. He asks that at least twenty-five men report for practice each day. Make know to him what position you are trying for and at some stage of the game each man will get a show.

THE PRELIMINARY CONTEST NEAR AT HAND—GREATER INTEREST IS DESIRED IN THE COMING CONTEST—GREATER EFFORTS SHOULD BE MADE TO GET READY FOR THE INTER-COLLEGIATE ORATORICAL CONTEST HELD IN MEADVILLE MAY 14.

The preliminary oratorical contest will be held April 24. At the present writing interest in the coming contest is sadly lacking. In about one month from to-day the inter-collegiate oratorical contest will be held in this city and if we are to land the medal we must arouse some enthusiasm and that pretty quickly. The oratorical association is anxious to have the stu-

The past week has been one full of activity in the base ball line. While the weather permitted but a single day's outdoor work, the work has been steadily progressing in the gym.

The afternoon spent on the diamond was quite a revelation to base ball enthusiasts. A number of new men surprised the critics by their remarkable speed. It looks now as if we would have a fast team this spring, and we are sure that such will be the case if good coaching can develop a team out of the material in hand. We are glad to see Coach Buckley in a uniform and right out among the players, getting all kinds of ginger into the work. While it is but two weeks until we have our first game, if the weather will permit outdoor work, we are confident that the team will be in good shape for the opening game.

We feel that it is very important that we have a representative team this season, and it should be the aim of every student to do his part to develop a winning team. We meet W. and J. within three weeks, and if we are to land that game we must all do our part. We must have twenty men at least each day out to practice, and there is no reason why we cannot have. The only day the team was able to work out of doors, more than twenty-five men reported for work. There is no reason why the number should grow less as the season advances, and we trust if it becomes necessary that the proper authorities will see that the base ball squad is something more than a list of names posted on the doors of the gym.

We see no reason why such should be the case. All of us cannot make the team, but we must remember that there is another season, and now is the time to develop. Five of the most promising men of this season's squad were developed last year, without the advantage of a competent coach, and it should be some incentive to faithful work to have the privilege of a base ball training under as competent a coach as Mr. Buckley. We trust that interest in base ball will increase with the season, and that there will be no falling off in the number of men who have reported for practice to date.

We deplore the fact that there has been a break in the fraternity circles. It is not only to the disadvantage of all immediately concerned, but to the college itself. College spirit is effected in a way, factional lines are more apt to be more closely drawn, and the harmony of college interests will possibly be marred for a time. We feel that no fraternity can afford to suffer suspension from the Pan-Hellenic association; nor can the Pan-Hellenic association afford to suspend any fraternity. It occurs to us that the whole affair is a parody on what fraternities ought to mean, and it is to be hoped that such rigorous action shall not again be necessary on the part of the Pan-Hellenic association in the near future. The present trouble is the only thing to mar the record of the present college year and we trust that in remembering the many successes of the college year the trouble will be forgotten, and that in the future a more honorable course will be pursued by all parties concerned.

In the near future will occur the preliminary oratorical contest. It is to be hoped that a large number of our most talented students have entered the contest. The winner of the contest will represent "Allegheny" in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest which takes place May 14.

We should keep that medal right here in Allegheny this year and there is no reason why we can't. We feel that oratory has not received the attention during the past few years which we, as a college, should bestow upon it. Allegheny holds an enviable position among the classical colleges of the country and if we are to maintain that position we must give more attention to our annual literary contest.

Our English course is equal to that of any college of our standing in the country, our department of elocution is in charge of a thoroughly competent instructor. Now the question remains, why do we not have more interest in oratory?

We have not been successful in our annual debate with Albion. Is it because we haven't the material? Do we have an inferior class of students in Allegheny? We will not admit that, but must look elsewhere for the trouble. We believe that it is largely due to lack of proper interest in oratory and debate. There is no better time in which to begin to remedy the defect than at present. We trust that each one will feel it his duty to arouse interest in the coming contest, and make it one of the most important events of the year.

Mr. Borne Goes To Baltimore.

HE HAS ACCEPTED A POSITION IN A Y. M. C. A. OF THAT CITY. WILL ATTEND A MEDICAL SCHOOL IN THAT CITY.

According to a Baltimore paper Mr. Borne will not be with us another year, having accepted a position of physical instructor in a Y. M. C. A. of that city.

Mr. Borne has been very fortunate in procuring this position, as he will be able to take care of his work and attend a medical school at the same time. It has been Mr. Borne's aim to complete his education in medicine in a Baltimore school, and he is very fortunate in procuring so pleasant and lucrative a position in the immediate vicinity of one of the best schools of medicine in the country. While we will be sorry to see Mr. Borne leave, we congratulate him on his good fortune and hope that he may find his work most pleasant.

Mr. Borne has filled the position of gym instructor in our college for two years, in which time he has made many friends among the students. His work among us has been most satisfactory and his knowledge of anatomy and medicine has made him a very efficient man in his position.

The Coming Election.

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED ARE MANAGER AND ASSISTANT MANAGER OF GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM AND SECRETARY AND TREASURER OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

The coming election promises to be the most interesting and warmly contested election of the year. At the present writing it is hard to say who will be the candidates but that a warm time will be had is insured by the recent split in fraternity circles. Quite likely a frat and a non-frat man will be put up which will insure the usual interest. It is to be hoped that the membership of the Athletic association will be larger this spring than ever before. Money is needed by the association and this is a good chance to contribute.

The empires which exceed the United States in population are the only ones that exceed it in area.

The laboratory of chemistry and metallurgy, Lafayette College, which has been in process of erection for some months and which is the gift of Mr. James Gayley of the class of '76, will be dedicated on April 5. The program for the dedicatory exercises presents a most attractive series of addresses, by three of the most distinguished chemists and metallurgists in America, all of whom represent also the educational as well as the purely scientific side of the chemical research. The speakers are President Ira Ramsen, the newly inaugurated president of Johns Hopkins University; President Thos. M. Drown, of Lehigh University, for a number of years professor of chemistry at Lafayette; and Professor Henry M. Howe, of Columbia University. The ceremony of presentation will be performed by Mr. Gayley, and will be followed by the dedicatory prayer by his father, Rev. Samuel A. Gayley, D. D., of the class of 1847. In addition to the dedication of the building, the use of the Henry W. Oliver library of chemistry will be inaugurated at this time.

Johns Hopkins University is twenty-five years old. This is a short period; but, in the life of so great an institution, it is a fact sufficient to produce comment on the lofty and unique purpose it has fulfilled. Johns Hopkins, a rich Baltimore merchant, inspired by the example of George Peabody, decided to give his wealth to education, in the form of a university with definite aims. In 1876, the doors of the institution were opened, with Daniel Goit Gilman as its head, surrounded by a small band of scholars, among whom were Remsen, Gildersleeve, Rowland and Martin, who had all been inspired in their youthful manhood by such scholars as Whitney and Agassiz. Most of the men who have gone forth from the university are now teachers in academic schools, and their work in lifting the thought of the country from the plane of mere utility to that of idealism is of incalculable value, for this university is an institution of learning, peculiarly devoted to high thinking and simple living. It has remained free from the dominance of athletics, and from the influence of opulence among its students. It has had to make no bid for popularity, for it appeals only to the spirit of free scholarship, and, in its dark days, as well as in its fair ones, it has steadily held to its noble purpose. May the coming centuries see its fine record maintained, but on a larger scale.

DR. VINCENT WILL BEGIN HIS COURSE OF LECTURES WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30.

We are fortunate in again procuring Dr. Vincent to give us a course of lectures. His first lecture will be given Wednesday, April 30th. The subject will be Dr. Johnston and His Literary Club. On Thursday, May 1, his lecture will be on Fornear and His Wooden Ink Stand. On May 2 the subject of the lecture will be Charlotte Bronte; the Romance of a York State Parsonage.

On May 3 Dr. Vincent will give his fourth and last lecture. The subject will be Kipling and Zangwill. The exact hour of these lectures has not as yet been determined. That announcement will appear at a later date.

The student body will be well repaid for making almost any sacrifice to attend this course of lectures. Dr. Vincent is not only very instructive in his lectures but wonderfully entertaining.

It is to be hoped that a very large number of students will avail themselves of this opportunity.

dent body awake to the importance of the coming contest. For several years Allegheny has been compelled to be satisfied with nothing better than second or third place in the inter-collegiate contest. There is no reason why we shouldn't be better represented. If Geneva and Westminster can carry off that medal year after year, why can't we arouse ourselves and take enough interest in this important contest to insure us a representative representation. We seldom hear the coming contest mentioned, and it is doubtful if one-fourth of the student body know anything about the contest. This is surely a deplorable state of affairs and one which must be remedied. Let us arouse a little enthusiasm over the affair and induce our representative students to take part in the preliminary contest.

The Base Ball Schedule to Date

WHILE THE SCHEDULE IS NOT COMPLETE THE MOST IMPORTANT GAMES HAVE BEEN ARRANGED—POSSIBLY SEVERAL GAMES MAY BE ADDED.

The base ball schedule to date as arranged by Manager Whitehill contains the representative colleges of Western Pennsylvania. The last game of the season is with the Cuban Giants, which team always furnishes much amusement. Possibly several more games will be added.

- The schedule to date is as follows:
- April 26, Fredonia at Meadville.
- May 3, W. & J. at Meadville.
- May 9, University of West Virginia at Morgantown.
- May 10, University of West Virginia at Morgantown.
- May 12, Waynesburg at Waynesburg.
- May 13, W. & J. at Washington.
- May 17, Westminster at Meadville.
- May 21, open date.
- May 24, Westminster at New Wilmington.
- May 30, open.
- June 9, Cuban Giants at Meadville.

Committees, as chosen, will be announced at the meeting in Association hall Saturday evening. We ask for a large attendance.

Mr. Chase has shown much desecution and care in selecting the members of the several committees. The organization of departments is progressing rapidly.

Dr. Montgomery led the Y. M. C. A. meeting Saturday evening. There was a good attendance and every man present was well repaid for coming. The association meetings are never slow, but they are especially interesting when Dr. Montgomery speaks.

Manager Whitehill is spending a few days at his home in Brookville.

Gardner, the sub-center of last fall's football team, is not in school this term.

Dr. Crawford delivered a lecture to the students of Grove City College one evening last week.

It is reported that the Glee Club will sing in Cleveland in the near future.

The girls of the Hall have become enthused over tennis and have formed a Tennis association.

Frazier has changed his mind about going home to farm, and is now contemplating a trip to the Klondike.

Quite a number of Alumni are to be in the city to attend the Pan-Hellenic banquet on Wednesday evening.

It is reported that some of the college girls have been "campused" for a month. If the weather continues in its present condition, they have no kick coming.

The Kaldron will have to be rushed, if it is to be out on time. It is to be hoped that each member of the board will do his duty and help the editor-in-chief in every way possible.

It is to be hoped that we arrange a game of base ball with Geneva. We hear that they are to have a fine team this year, and a game with them would be a good drawing card.

The Sigs have succeeded in getting settled in their new home on Park avenue, and are furnishing music and other entertainment to the residents of the immediate neighborhood.

It is said that Lafayette's new science building is the exact counterpart of our new library, except Lafayette's new building will have a marble front. The plans for the two buildings were drawn by the same man.

The photographers of the city seem to be doing a rushing business with the college students this week. Are all the pictures going in the Kaldron? The Thetas think they are the whole thing, claiming that they have the only freeman in college.

Grove City is claiming the championship in basket ball. What nerve some of these little institutions have. We know of no game won by them outside of their own back yard. Undoubtedly they will make a bid for base ball championship, but at this early date it is hard to say whether it will be for the professional, the amateur or the college championship.

CHICAGO PROFESSOR WOULD BANISH "YUM-YUMS."

Chicago.—When what he terms "yum-yum business" interrupts his classes Professor J. Scott Clark, of the English department of Northwestern University, believes the time has come to end it. He said so the other day in words that were not minced after having chased a collegian and "co-ed" from before the door of his class room.

For some time Professor Clark tried to ignore the sounds that came from the hall, but the increasing hilarity in his class as the members realized what was taking place beyond the door stirred him to action. He burst into the hall just in time to see a youth and maiden spring backward, blushing and confused. He ordered them from the hallway with sound words of advice and returned to deliver the following thoughts amid lovmaking in the college halls:

"This 'yum-yum business' is getting altogether too common among the students.

"Flirting is taking so much time that they have no time for study.

"It is bad enough to see 'spooning' going on in parlors and verandas and college walks without having to disturb those students who do wish to study. It must stop."

AN ALUMNUS' CONSOLATION.

Ah woe is me! Oh bitter loss!
No more, no more
My happy oar
Thy waves shall toss
Where I have run upon the shore.

Oh leaky boats, Oh sunny stream,
Oh narrow locks
Twixt moss-grown rocks!
An empty dream,
Henceforth thy sight my fancy mocks.

When floating gently down thy tide
With smiling moon
In glorious June,
What bliss beside
Could mortals ask, what greater boon?

When Allegheny's luck I hear,
Her buildings new
And cold cash too,
I almost fear
I lived too soon 'neath gold and blue.

But now my heart has been so pained,
I do not care
For I was there
And wisdom gained
Before the old canal was drained.

The athletic authorities at W. & J. announce that games of football will be played with two of the big four next year. The names of the teams have not yet been made public.

U-PI-DEE.

A new Co-ed has alighted in town,
Up-dee, Up-dee!
In an up-to-date tailor-made gown, Up-dee-d-d-d!
The boys are wild, and prex is, too,
You never saw such a hull-a-balloo.
CHORUS.—Up-dee-dee-dee-dee etc.

Her voice is clear as a soaring lark's,
And her wit is like those trolley-car sparks!
When 'cross a muddy street she flits,
The boys will have competition fits!
The turn of her head turns all ears, too,
There's always a strife to sit in her pew;
'Tis enough to make a person drunk,
To hear her sing old co-ed-choke!

The above, and three other NEW verses to U-PI-DEE, and NEW WORDS, catchy, up-to-date, to many others of the popular OLD FASHIONED FUNNY, the old OLD ANONYMOUS, and also many NEW SONGS.
