Guerino Churrachín.

In Washington he has often sounded whether I would leave him been mand into a midnight called tricky country because if I had not been for that slavery question. Now I can have the question in slavery in 1837. His presence in 1834 in legislature-tin honestly in taking turns for Congress in 1837. Drawing after this letter was up also this generosity in regard to practice. Office at expiration of term in 1849. His attitude in 1854, all zest him parliamentment & capable of pleasing me. Well mostly in a question & willing to sacrificed his own wishes is necessary to defend the small side. Same qualities. While made turn great first 1861 to 1865. Made turn great in 1867.
