Dear Miss Tarbell:

Yours of the 6th arrived with the express Company's notice to call for the parcel. It made no difference when it arrived, as I am now at work on the carbon.

I am sorry I have not yet received my letter - it was written the ¹⁰ day after I received yours, - but I probably

2) Grated before I left, - I hope to, for I am more and more grateful for your helpful letter every day.
May I ask you one question: Do you think it would be better if I send you the opinions in with the narrative, - as they were rendered, - instead of putting them all together? I'm inclined to think it would occasion a kind of brevity every time we reached one.
With more and more thanks, I am Yours as ever, Charlotte P. Lamer

In glancing again on your letters,
I see the first was written September 27th, but it did not reach me until October 2nd, - five days later! The next was dated October 6th and reached me today, - the 10th !!

My letter to you, was written Oct. 4th and you may look for it at Christmas time, - I suppose. Hic fabula finit

4) That when you tell me what train to meet you must write two weeks ahead of time, and follow it with a telegram!
