July 28, 1932

Dear Mr. Close:

I have your letter of July 23rd satisfying as well as you can my curiosity about the stockholdings of the old-timers in Gary.

You add a postscript to your letter in which you say that sometime when I am down town Mr. Taylor would like to have a talk with me. Nothing would please me better than to have a talk with Mr. Taylor. I had my secretary call you up saying that I expected to be down on Thursday, but you were out until next week. We shall have to leave it until the second week in August, I think, if that is a convenient time for Mr. Taylor, as I am leaving on Friday for ten days. As soon as I return I shall call you up and see if a convenient time can be arranged.

Sincerely yours

Mr. C. L. Close
