Dear Miss Tarbell,

Here are a bunch of captions. They are in disgusting condition, for they are the ones Afonsky works from, and are therefore pasted up with illustrations for him.

You will recognize the source of most of the incidents, for I have bought your Life of Lincoln and have supplemented your articles with that. I have also read many other things---Nicolay, Sandberg, Hapgood, and many incidental books on the White House, Washington, D.C., and so forth. If I remember any of it, I'm learning something! I've just heard of yur Collier's story. and am getting that.

I'm having great fun doing this. The service is to run for seventeen weeks---17 times 6 days, and four pictures each day makes a tremendous number of pictures and incidents. But I've plotted out the whole thing and am coming out all right.

Sincerely yours

Fanny Hearshall
