

MEMBERS OF A. W. S. RATIFY CONSTITUTION

Revised Constitution Features A Women's Senate and An Activities Council As Outstanding Changes

SENIOR COURT HOLDS DISCIPLINARY POWER ONLY

Constitutional revision of the organization of the Associated Women students was ratified yesterday by a majority vote of the members.

Outstanding among the changes which have been adopted is the formation of a Women's senate and an Activities council to replace the former Activities board, and the creation of a Vice-President of the organization, as a non-voting member of senior court.

The proposed reorganization was presented to the women students last week in group meetings held in the various women's dormitories. Vote on the new constitution was taken yesterday after lunch and before and after dinner.

The committee which drew up the constitution has been working since Christmas vacation on reorganization plans, with the aid of Professor Paul H. Giddens and Miss Nancy Peffer.

Members of the committee are Jeanette Rose, '39, Mary Ellen Riley, '40, Helen Shaeffer, '42, Florence Sells, '41, Margaret Watt, '39, Francis Batchelor, '39, Velma Zwilling, '40, Donna Ochsenhirt, '41, Patty Ann Green, '42, Jean English, '40, and Katherine Gelbach, '40.

Women's Senate Formed.

The women's senate, which will be a new body in the organization of the women students, will be composed of the regularly elected officers of the association, and representatives chosen according to population. There will be two representatives from Hulings front, two from Hulings back, two from Cochran, and one from each of the women's dormitories. The Dean of Women will be an advisory, non-voting member of this Senate.

This senate will in the future act as the governing body of the Associated Women students. In this capacity they will deal with any problems concerning the group, and formulate rules subject to the approval of the A.W.S. They will also have the responsibility of enforcing these rules.

Activities Council.

The activities council has been formed in order to coordinate all of the activities of the women students. It will take over many of the duties of the former activities board.

Represented on the activities council will be a member of Cwens, one from the Junior Advisors, one from the Athletic board, and one non-resident girl. The organizations will select their own representatives.

In addition, a house chairman, a social chairman, a music chairman, a publicity chairman, and a program chairman, appointed by the President of the Associated Women students with the advice and consent of the Senate will be members of the council.

Senior Court.

Senior court will no longer be the legislative body of the students, under the new plan. In the future, it will have disciplinary power over all offenses referred to it by the President or Vice-President of the women students. It will be able to summon any woman over whose case it has been granted jurisdiction. Failure to appear will be considered a misdemeanor punishable by the court.

The court will consist of five senior women as formerly. Nominations for the position will be made by the preceding senior court, and presented as a slate. Additional nominations may be made by petition. The vice-president of the A.W.S. will sit with the court as a non-voting member, and the Dean of Women will be an advisory, non-voting member of the court.

All accusations which arise are to be presented to the president or vice-president and they in turn will refer

A. U. C. APPROVES PUBLICATIONS BOARD PLAN

Editors, Advisors, O. K.
Financial Centralization;
Plan Goes to President

A plan creating a financial comptroller for the publications of Allegheny College was approved last week by all editors and advisors, and was passed Sunday night by the Allegheny Undergraduate Council. The plan will be submitted to the school administration this week, it was learned.

The project calls for a financial manager to supervise and control all expenditures and in-payments of the Campus, Kaidron and Lit Magazine. This officer is to be tried next year with the approval of all the parties concerned. The experiment, it is hoped, will bring about more careful planning and lower unnecessary expenditures.

Objectives.

The duties of the comptroller are set forth in the plan as follows: (1) Control and authorize closely expenditures within the budgetary allowance. (2) Keep careful books for each of the publications. (3) Issue monthly statements to each publication of its financial condition.

Further objectives are: (4) Cooperate and advise business executives of the publications on matters of expenditures. (5) Clear all in-payments to the publications. (6) Aid in formulating budgetary policy for future years.

Conditions.

The editors and advisors of all publications must agree to the installation of a comptroller and the A.U.C. must approve. These conditions have already been met.

"The administration of the college (especially the President and Treasurer) should support the plan." This will be determined in the near future at a meeting of the faculty, publications officials indicated.

The comptroller is to continue in office for at least one year unless all parties agree to give up or radically

JUNIOR PROM WILL SPONSOR SUPERLATIVES

Annual Announcement is Highlight of Social Event
Featuring Barney Rapp

Following the annual custom, the senior superlatives will be disclosed at the Junior prom this Saturday night, it was announced by prom committee members.

The election sponsored by the committee will be held in chapel Friday noon. Ballots will include places for the most popular man, most popular woman, handsomest man, most beautiful woman, the man and woman most likely to succeed, the man and woman who have done most for the alma mater, the most intelligent man and woman, the best dressed man and woman, the best dancer among the men, and the best athlete, the most collegiate man and woman, and the wittiest man and woman. All classes present at chapel will vote for these superlatives.

Music for the junior prom held at Balize's ballroom will feature Barney Rapp and his orchestra. Barney Rapp, with the New Englanders, a harmony trio, have come from engagements in New York, Pittsburgh and Newport.

The dance will begin at 8 p. m. Students may gain admission by presentation of activities tickets. Committee members planning the dance include Jack Megahan, William Scarpitti, Adele Horner, Betty Stewart, Jane Wisenall, Arthur Gratz, and Edward Robinson, all of '40.

RUSS PHOTOS TO SHOW HERE

An exhibit of Soviet Art Photography containing 16 prints will be on display in the Octagon of the library April 21 to 26.

The prints on display will cover a variety of subjects including still lifes, portraits, and landscapes.

Dr. Julius Miller of the Art Department comments, "These prints are outstanding from a compositional standpoint. They have all received very favorable comment at the San Diego Exposition last year."

BUSINESS STUDENTS

Dean Turner of the Harvard School of Business will be a campus visitor March 31 beginning at 11:30. Appointments with him may be made through Dr. Louis Long.

NEW ISSUE OF CATALOGUE PUBLISHED

Latest Edition of the Allegheny Catalogue Will Be Distributed This Week

In a bright blue and buff cover the 1939-40 Allegheny catalogue emerged from the press last week-end, and will be ready for distribution this week, announced Mr. Frederick F. Seely, chairman of the faculty catalogue committee.

New courses, recently added to the college curriculum, are listed in the catalogue. In the art department, Art 6, a course in modern art is being offered, beginning during the current semester.

The English 18 course which will be taught by Miss Ida Tarbell during April is also listed under the new courses.

The religion department is offering Religion 8, a course in contemporary religious problems. Several adjustments in the French courses, and the deletion of Italian are recorded in the catalogue.

Explanations of the Educational Guidance clinic, provisions for independent study, and the specialized course for those interested in aviation are explained in the new catalogue.

Former Professors Honored.
Two former Allegheny professors, Dr. Charles E. Hammett, professor of physical education, and Dr. Charles J. Ling, professor of physics, have been given Emeritus rank, it was noted.

New cuts which may be found in the catalogue picture of the Craig room of

ENTRIES FOR HOBBY CONTEST DUE MAY 10

Trustee Board Members
Hobby Contest Again Opens;
Second Year of Existence

According to an administrative announcement this week, the annual Robertson hobby contest for creative work is scheduled to open May 10.

Aimed to stimulate interest in hobbies, the contest was established two years ago through the effort of Mr. A. W. Robertson, chairman of the board of trustees. Each year Mr. Robertson contributes $350 to arouse interest in the development of an avocation.

It is planned to utilize the Thompson room if construction work on the new strong room is completed by that time. The exhibits will be on display during commencement week.

Substantial prizes are awarded in the fields of creative writing, musical composition, collections, libraries, carpentry, mechanical construction, and creative art.

Last Year's Winners.

In the photography section, last year's winners were LeRoy Schneek, '41, John Wheatley, '38, Lawrence Frost, '41, Cedric Spence, '38, and John Kremmel, '40.

Joseph Philippbar, '38, Robert Miner, '40, Robert Wright, '40, and Gail Burkett, '41, submitted prize winning paintings.

In the creative writing divisions Samuel Ziskind, '38, and Helen Hilker, '41, were winners.

Howard Gibbs, '41, Thomas Cort, '41, Warren Sherck, '38, and Thomas Crawford, '41, were winners.

SENIOR GIVES CHAPEL READINGS

Francis Batchelor, '39, presented a group of dramatic readings in chapel Friday.

For her first selection Miss Batchelor chose a selection from Vachel Lindsay's Congo. In this she attempted to show the swing of poetry by raising and lowering the pitch of the voice and by increasing and decreasing the rate of speaking.

Next she gave The Man with the Hoe by Edwin Markham. This selection presents a completely vivid word picture of the famous painting of "The Man with the Hoe" by Millet.

Announcement is made of the senior banquet which will be held April 21. The banquet will be formal. A place to hold it has not yet been chosen.

Blake, Thiele Win Offices of Vice-President for Junior Class, '41, Men's Government

Evert Defeats Robertson, Marvel; Blake Wins Over Marjorie Wible for Seats on A.U.C. in Coming Year

In an unusually orderly election yesterday noon, George Evert was elected president of the class of '41 over David Robertson and Edgar Marvel, last year's class leader.

In the second election of the day, William Mohney, '40, was elected head of the Men's Undergraduate council. Mr. Mohney is a senior representative for Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The election meeting was held at noon at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

Evert Wins.

Mr. Evert, a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity, polled 40 votes, as compared with Mr. Robertson's 21 and Mr. Marvel's 24, giving him the clear plurality necessary for election.

Ruth Ellen Blake defeated Marjorie Wible for the vice-presidency of the class by a vote of 67 to 18. Louise Hazlett won out over Robert Shane and Jack Barry, receiving 37 votes against 27 for Shane and 16 for Barry.

Before the election, the class had passed a motion to elect a separate treasurer. Accordingly, Al Colley was selected, defeating William Faloan and Janet Cronberger for the office. Colley polled 40 ballots, Faloan 22, and Miss Cronberger 23.

Since class elections are under the jurisdiction of the A.U.C., the meeting was presided over by William Hummel, '39, president of that body.

A.U.C. Seats.

Since both president and vice-president of the two upperclasses sit on the Undergraduate council, Mr. Evert and Miss Blake will take their seats when the new council is formed after Easter, it was announced.

M.U.C. Elects.

In the second election of the day, William Mohney, '40, won the A.U.C. seat as head of men's government.

Other officers elected were Karl Thiele, '40, Alpha Chi Rho, vice-president, and Jack Wolford, '40, Delta Tau Delta, secretary-treasurer.

Commented Mr. Mohney, "I think the reorganization of M.U.C. this year has materially aided the importance of this body. I hope we can carry on the good work begun by the retiring officers and council."

Retiring officers of M.U.C. are Wayne Spray, '39, president; Al Hoagland, '39, vice-president, and William Mohney, '40, secretary-treasurer. Retiring members are John Jones, Bill Williams, Bruce Dearing, William Hummel, Samuel Hazlett, and Wayne Spray.

New Council.

The new M.U.C. personnel is as follows:

Alpha Chi Rho—Karl Thiele, John Caputo.
Delta Tau Delta—Jack Wolford, Arthur Martin.

Phi Gamma Delta—Charles Miller, Richard Taylor.

Phi Delta Theta—Harry McCurdy, William Faloan.

Phi Kappa Psi—Robert Hirschmann, Andrew Singleton.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—William Mohney, Richard Lund.

Independent—John Krimmel.

"The Great Silence" Comes to Haunt Profs. As "Appleshining" is Banished

The hour has struck in which we must begin to fight the "Great Silence." The "Great Silence" is abroad in the land and its victims congregate in every classroom on our campus. In his daily routine, the instructor encounters two species of students, the "Appleshiner" (diminished now almost to the vanishing point) and the victim of the "Great Silence."

The bell tolls. It is 8:00 a. m. The instructor calls the roll; he may be somewhat surprised that so many students answer. Cautiously, the instructor introduces the subject for the day and asks a discreet question of John Smith who is rather a good student. He replies briefly with the truth in the matter and shuts up like a clam. The instructor throws the subject open to class discussion. "Are there any questions?" Do the members of the class discuss it? They do not! There is an ominous silence, for back of every brain is that little hammer rapping out: Appleshiner! Appleshiner! Appleshiner! No other member of the class can be urged to run the gauntlet of social disapproval: so the instructor, in order to rescue the session from the air of a Quaker meeting is himself forced into a discussion of the various phases of the subject at hand. Stimulating? For the instructors and students alike? Hardly! Most instructors are willing and anxious to give time outside of class to explain difficult points to any student. But do the students avail themselves of this opportunity? Rarely; because the word will go abroad that they are "apple-shiners"; they are cowardly slaves to the tyranny which is devouring them.

Now, just what are methods of apple-shining in the class room? Of course, each individual apple-shiner has his own lines of attack, but among the most common are: asking questions you are not really interested in, bluffing or talking one's way through the course, taking copious notes to appear industrious, or apparently taking notes, actually writing a letter. Then too, it's quite advantageous (from an apple-shiner's point of view) to sit in a front seat and appear attentive.

However, various opinions have been expressed on this subject. Many believe that sometimes real interest in a course is not given sufficient encouragement because of the awful fear of becoming an apple-shiner.

Others maintain that as a means to an end it works, but it doesn't leave a healthy attitude in the class; it should not be indulged in as a permanent means of passing a course.

Nevertheless, apple-shining, in its extreme use is very unpleasant to everyone concerned.

It is a hard thing to stop. No doubt the only way to eliminate it would be to start with a clean slate by kicking the upperclassmen out and then beginning with a new group of freshmen where they won't be able to learn the tradition. Or would they invent a new one?

A MOCK CONVENTION

With 1940 and another presidential election approaching, a suggestion from Mr. Charles Irvin, of the Speech department, seems to us to offer an excellent chance for Alleghenians to derive pleasure and profit from a mock party convention.

- Briefly, the proposal involves four points:
1. The student body shall vote on which party they wish to represent for the convention.
 2. The students shall divide into state groups, holding state meetings in preparation for the larger convention sessions.
 3. Nominating speeches and all the regular business of such a convention shall be carried on at the general sessions.
 4. The public shall be invited, and if possible, a radio hook-up shall be established for one or more of the sessions.

The mock convention method has been proved by many colleges to be one of the most efficient means of arousing student interest in national affairs. The benefits derived by the students are incalculable, chief among them being a first-hand view of one of the most characteristic angles of American democracy. The benefit to the college is also large, involving as it does the favorable comment that its undergraduates are awake and interested in current events.

Facilities at Allegheny are more than adequate for such an experiment. We should like to see the Montgomery Gymnasium decorated with bunting and filled with delegates and spectators. We should like to see some of the capable student orators which the Philo-Franklin Union produces set to the task of defending the nomination of a favorite son for "candidate for President of the United States on the party ticket". We should like above all to see Alleghenians sufficiently interested in the machinery of democratic government to make such an affair a success.

Mr. Irvin's idea is an excellent one. The incoming student government bodies should not forget that it has been proposed, and should they forget, it should be proposed again.

THE BLANK SPACE

Anyone who glanced at page two of last week's "Campus" could hardly have missed the great white waste which surrounded the editorial headed "A Complaint". Contrary to the belief of a few unkind souls, the blank did not come as the result of our inability to find anything to put into it.

We ran the blank to show how much space Allegheny student government bodies waste in a week, how much publicity they do not get, and how much news the other students do not read about them. Specifically, the space should have contained a write-up on the proposed changes in the women's constitution, even though the voting on the measure was not scheduled till after the paper was distributed. Women's government bodies, however, need not feel themselves the especial target of this campaign to make Allegheny press-conscious. At one time or another, we should not hesitate to say, every such body on the hill has been an offender.

What Allegheny does not apparently realize is that "news" involves a number of things other than free advertising for proposed dances. It includes unbiased write-ups of all meetings, of plans, however far in the future, which involve large groups of students, of suggestions made and recommendations handed on, of motions defeated as well as those passed unanimously. All these things and a good many more, we maintain, the student body as a whole has a right to know. Most of these things they do not know at present.

It is our opinion that student government, which often hears itself accused of being "uninteresting", or "just a group of senior big-shots", would arouse more general interest locally if it were more careful to get itself publicized regularly and accurately, instead of relying on the grape-vine method to spread warped and incorrect ideas throughout the dorms and fraternity houses. The least the school would derive from such a change in attitude would be a better understanding of rules before they are passed, and a correspondingly smaller amount of griping about the "steam-roller" tactics of governing bodies.

Editor of the Campus

Allegheny College

Meadville, Pennsylvania

Dear Sir:

Recently Alleghenians heard Mrs. Morgan's suggestion that there should be more opportunity for the boys and girls to mingle on the campus on other than a dating basis.

We girls have hashed over her idea, and heartily agree with Mrs. Morgan. Classes present very little opportunity to learn to really know our male classmates.

Why couldn't there be dateless dances at Allegheny? Such dances have been successful on other campuses.

An excellent time for such an affair would be Friday afternoon from three to five. As arrangements are now, only girls and an occasional boy enjoy the weekly tea at Hulings. Why not inaugurate a victrola, some late records, and invite all the boys as a group, in to dance, drink tea, and munch cookies?

With the Cwen dance, women's dance, and Leap Week coming up, we are faced with the eternal problem, "Whom shall I ask?"

Surely, if we learned to know our classmates better—especially their dancing ability—our problems would be lessened, if not solved.

At least the idea's worth a try, don't you think?

3 FRATERNITIES ELECT OFFICERS

Alpha Xi Delta.

Jean Harkless, '40, was elected president of Alpha Xi Delta at a meeting of the sorority Monday evening.

Rose Mervosh, '41, will be the vice-president, and Kathryn Challinor, '41, will act as treasurer.

Other officers are Patricia Van Ostrand, '41, recording secretary, Helen Roeder, '41, corresponding secretary, Helen Hilker, '41, journal correspondent, and May-Alice Goodman, '41, social chairman.

Alpha Chi Rho.

Last Monday night, Mont McKinney, '40, was elected president of Alpha Chi Rho for the '39-'40 school year.

Other officers elected were William Kennedy, '40, vice-president; Glenn Loveday, '40, treasurer; and John Caputo, '41, secretary.

Phi Delta Theta.

Robert Wright, '40, was elected president of Phi Delta Theta at a meeting of the fraternity Monday night.

Other officers elected by the Phi Dels for the coming year are William Parsons, '41, secretary, Robert Appleyard, '40, treasurer, Edgar Wood, '40, historian, and Richard Snead, '40, commissar.

Generally Speaking . . .

We actually got some mail this week and for the benefit of our public we think it only fair that we let you in on it too.

"This is to whom it may concern. 'Big Benny', referred to in your Generally Speaking column in your issue of March 22, wishes it known that while Bill Kennedy was actually in the kitchen, he didn't hurt himself doing any dishes. May it be known that that part of his convalescence in Meadville City Hospital was spent merely in observation.

Furthermore, let it be known that Bill asked "Big Benny" for the date—and every nurse grants any patient his reasonable request. And anyway, it isn't leap year for another few months.

Signed, "Big Benny".

We sincerely apologize for the tremendous error on our part, but you know how rumors grow.

Spring has come, the birds and bees are out and love is beginning to blossom. Alice Elcher is a new member of the "Phi Delt Girl" Association. Betty Stewart came in a close second a few nights later with Baldy's and we see Rehtmeyer is sporting Shield's Sig pin.

Sunday night was a busy night for Lew Davies and Jim Nichols—they will eat peanuts in the show and then annoy everyone in the row by climbing over their knees in order to get a drink of water.

Toby Sells got the handiest new coat on Saturday. It was all pretty and neat when she started but came out accoridian pleated at the end of the evening. So did John's.

Bill Williams, Hoge, Fos, John R. and Zip got together and pepped the Cwen dance up with lots of their notorious noise.

What is this new society so prevalent in Hulings these days—something about the "Delta Rho" girls. We think there must be more to it than meets the eye. And why is Buckley always under foot asking what you are doing and then trying to lock you away in some dark corner? It's all very puzzling but we expect it will all come out in the open sooner or later.

Benny Beacom and Bill Hummel made a good looking pair in the lib the other night, what with Benny slacking his jaw (no, he didn't drool) and Bill snorting at frequent intervals as he would drop off to sleep. Hardly the proper atmosphere for academic pursuits.

(Editor's Note—We think better with our eyes closed.)

WOMEN LEAVE ON DEBATE TRIP

Three Allegheny women, Elizabeth Brady, '39, Marion Henry, '39, and Mary Brock left for an eastern debate trip Monday. This is the final round of the 1938-1939 debating season for women.

While on the tour the debaters will attend the annual congress of the Delta Sigma Rho fraternities at Washington, D. C. This is a group of honorary debating societies. The congress is to be held tomorrow.

The colleges to be visited are: Albright College, Reading, Pa.; University of Maryland, Baltimore, Md.; and Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa.

The Allegheny group will debate the affirmative side of the question concerning use of public funds for stimulating business, isolation of the United States with regard to all nations involved in conflict outside the western hemisphere, and forming an alliance with Great Britain and France against further aggression of Fascism.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Irvin are accompanying the debaters on the trip.

'40 ELECTIONS NEXT TUESDAY

Next year's senior class, the class of '40, will elect its new officers Tuesday, it was learned from the A.U.C. this week. Incoming juniors held their elections yesterday.

The president and vice-president of the class both sit as members of the Allegheny Undergraduate council. All elections involving a place on the Undergraduate Council should be run off before the Easter recess, in order to facilitate the run-off of elections for president of A.U.C. soon after the vacation, it was learned from council officials.

This year's president has been Verna Zwilling, the vice-president, Robert Appleyard, who was elected early in the year to fill the vacancy created by the withdrawal from college of Ruth Wetherbee, elected to the office last spring.

EASTER VESPER NEXT SUNDAY

A special Palm Sunday vesper service will be held in Ford Memorial chapel at four o'clock. Rev. Ralph C. McAfee of the Church of the Covenant, Erie, will preach. Dr. Donald T. Rowlingson will be in charge of the service. This program will take the place of the regular Wednesday chapel exercise.

RUSSIAN ART DECORATES LIB

The octagon of Reis Library was decorated this week with an exhibition given to the library by the American Russian Institute, Inc., New York City.

The exhibit includes samples of Russian photography. There are 16 photographs varying in size from 8 by 12 inches to 12 by 18 inches.

Some of the titles of these pictures are "Spring", "Ukrainian Girls", "Four in Hands", "Portrait of a Violinist", "Winter", "Ship of the Fields", and "Hunting with a Tamed Eagle."

Wild Life Exhibit.

To celebrate National Wild Life Week Reis Library arranged a display in the octagon of books and pamphlets on wild life.

National Wild Life Week, proclaimed by President Roosevelt, was celebrated from March 20 to 26.

The center of the display was a mounted pheasant loaned to the library by the Biology department.

Around this pheasant are books and pamphlets such as Paul Siple's Exploring at Home, Hornaday's Wild Life Conservation, Pennsylvania Game News, The Pennsylvania Angler, Pennsylvania Bird Life, and Game Farming for Profit and Pleasure.

Blazing youth at Wheaton College have formed a new Red Heads Club.

WOOD NAMED CHEERLEADER

Head cheer leader Samuel Hazlett's recommendation that Edgar Wood be appointed to head next year's cheering squad was formally approved at the A.U.C. Sunday night meeting.

Mr. Wood automatically will head the cheerleader's club composed of four men and four women who are interested in cheer leading. Those members not actually on the Allegheny squad are given a chance to participate at football and basketball games throughout the year.

Present members of the club are Edgar Wood, Samuel Hazlett, Betty Stewart, Fred Baldwin, Virginia Kiser, Betty Ling, and Lee Knoll. Two boy's places and one girl's position will be open for next year.

The A.U.C. also approved the suggestion of the campus to set up a publication board. The plan goes to the administration this week.

Student government selected dates for class elections. The class of '41 met yesterday (see page 1 story) while the class of '40 meets next Tuesday.

DAVID ATTENDS OUTERS MEET

Alice David, '41, representing the Allegheny Outing club, was guest last week-end of the Florestone Mather Outing club, Western Reserve, Cleveland.

Commenting on her week-end, she said, "I found the Western Reserve cabin quite an exclusive one, with lights, running water, pianos, and all."

Other colleges represented at the outing, similar to the guest week-end held at Allegheny in February, are Dennison, Baldwin Wallace, Ohio University, and Ohio State University.

TENNIS TO ORGANIZE

All students interested in varsity or freshman tennis are requested to attend a meeting to be held in the second floor handball court of Montgomery gymnasium tomorrow at 4:30.

Tennis coach Joseph Fisher hopes for a large turnout and plans to begin outdoor work soon in preparation for the eleven match campaign in which the Faculty, Geneva, University of Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Slippery Rock, Carnegie Tech, Thiel, Westminster and Grove City will face the 'Gator courtmen.

Mr. Fisher announces that several assistant managerial positions are still open.

THREE LOCALS ARE ON ALL-STAR COURT SQUAD

Eddie Robinson, Al White, and Art Gratz of the 1938-39 edition of the Allegheny cagers were named to positions on a local All-Star aggregation selected by Johnny Johnston, sports editor of the Meadville Tribune-Republican recently. Robinson was nominated on the first squad, White on the second team, and Gratz was given honorable mention.

Robinson it was who stood out in the campaign which saw the locals take eight of fourteen contests in amassing 602 points while holding the opposition to 566 counters. By virtue of his aggressive guarding and team management, "Zip" held down potential threats while holding the steady rein on the blue and gold quintet.

White was the scoring giant in the offensive machinery of the Lawrencemen. He counted 133 points during the season, averaging 13 tallies a game with his one-handed flips.

The lanky center, Gratz, didn't lose many jumps and was deadly under the basket, being a sure shot with either flipper.

CINDERMEN TO MEET FIVE FOES AGAIN

Thirteen Seniors on Strong Cinder Aggregation; First Meet April 29

The 1939 edition of the 'Gator track team went to work outdoors last week in preparation for the arduous campaign which will open April 29 against Geneva at Beaver Falls and which will see the cindermen in four other starts before they hang up their shoes near the end of May.

Thirteen seniors, lettermen, will be having their last go in Allegheny athletics and will form a strong nucleus of the squad which hopes to surpass last year's season record, showing four wins as against a single loss, that at the hands of the powerful Rochester runners.

Al White, 880 and mile veteran, will captain this year's aggregation whose positions will be threatened by the eligibility of more than a half dozen promising sophomores.

Returning to the wars will be Bill Nye, captain of last year's victorious team, to run the 100 and 220. Nye is the present holder of the college mark in the 220 with the 21.8 second effort which he turned in last year. Charley Cares, who sent the local high jump record soaring with a 6 ft 3-8 in. hurdle in the '38 campaign, will be back to pick up points in his specialty.

Don Jones will handle the javelin tossing, Moose Swanson, the broad jumping, Bob Dugan, the weights, Art Aey, the pole vaulting, and Vereeke, the broad jump to dispose of the field events. These veterans will be aided by shot-putter Gene Ochs, weight tosser Hartwell, and platter twirler Singleton.

In the running events, a strong group will handle the ground covering with the aforementioned White and Nye handling their pet events, Red Lavelly doing some timber topping, Earl McCrea and McClurg running the two-mile, Schroyer, Spray and Vereeke handling the other distance races, and Thompson disposing of the sprints. The only veteran who may not be out is Bob Appleyard, whose recent operation may keep him out of harness for the campaign. Sophomores whose efforts will bolster the runners are Hartwell, Jarvis, Saylor, Starr, and Geisinger.

The lettermen are: Nye, White, Jones, Cares, Swanson, Lavelly, McCrea, McClurg, Schroyer, Spray, Dugan, Aey, Vereeke, Thompson, and Appleyard.

The locals open the season April 29 and close May 24, the opener and finale being the only engagements on foreign soil.

The schedule:

April 29—Geneva at Beaver Falls.
May 6—Kenyon at Meadville.
May 12—Grove City at Meadville.
May 20—U. of Rochester at Meadville.
May 24—Hiram at Hiram.

Better luck next time to all the other contestants and congratulations to Mary.

Don't forget the swimming meet which has been set for May second. Are you swimmers getting limbered up? It's been a long time since swimming weather and practice is what you need. Let's keep up with the bowling tournament. It must be finished up so let's all get our contestants over to Cochran and knock down a few pins.

The shuffleboard finals must be played off before Easter vacation. It is necessary for everybody to play her games promptly according to the schedule posted on the bulletin board in the Recreation Room. Interest must be kept up and all games have to be played on time in order to have a successful tournament.

The Heelers almost had to start Spring cleaning this week at Bousson but the good old weather man came to their rescue and due to stormy weather their outing was called off. GRATZ NAMED BLOCK A LEADER

The Block "A" club met last week at the Phi Kappa Psi house and elected Arthur Gratz, '40, as president for the coming year. The newly elected officer will represent his group on the Allegheny Undergraduate council.

Alex Hart, '40, and Edward Robinson, '40, were elected to the offices of vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. These men will take the place of last year's officers who were Elmer Swanson, president, Allyn White, vice-president, Horace Lavelly, secretary-treasurer.

SIGS, FIJIS IN PIN TIE

By virtue of a stirring rally which set the spectators cheering, the Phi Gams took the third and rubber game from the Sigs in the bowling tournament to pull into a tie for first money with the S.A.E.'s. A play-off to decide the championship will be held this week. One game, a contest between the Independents and the Delts, remains to be run off, but can have no effect on the first place standings. The Phi Psis hold down second place, the Phi Delts and Alpha Chi Rhos being deadlocked for show position.

The standings:

Sigs	4	1
Phi Gams	4	1
Phi Psis	4	2
Phi Delts	2	3
Chi Rhos	2	3
Delts	1	4
Independents	0	3

Results of games played last week are as follows:
PKP 2—PDT 0
SAE 2—DTD 0
PKD 2—AXP 1
PGD 2—SAE 1
The finals results of the tournament will be chronicled in next week's Campus.

NO HOLDS BARRED

By BEN BEACOM

Just minding my own business I notice several of the starry eyed fraternity thawing themselves out on the rustic bridge. It would really be a liberal move on the part of the administration to open a few bridal suites in the dormitories and preserve the sanctity of marriage.

Someone suggests late Saturday afternoon that we go out to Bousson Wild Life Preserve which we do, very quickly, much too. When we land the wildest thing we see is one male pheasant and several normal healthy people waiting for dinner and pitching the horseshoes with one another. There were two rather abnormal ones who said that they had been in the lake. Ed Marvel and Bob Shane. Shane is alleged to have said, "It was terrifically cold but I felt very hot when I got out". This is good training for Shane, the reading public will receive his Gay Gator in much the same fashion, when it comes out next week. (Don't squawk Shane, at least someone will know that it's still being printed).

The Cafisch Hall intersectional mushball games are still being played off. Messrs. Benjamin and Ogilvie whipped themselves into a fine froth in the first game. Bill Klem, the toughest ump in the National League, hasn't got a thing on Old Eagle Eye Rhinesmith who can call them with his eyes shut, an unusual accomplishment. Mr. Ogilvie's semi-pros play off with Ed. Johe's team on Monday. Doc Rhinesmith has been called more names in the last two days than his Chemistry classes have called him in the last year.

St. Clair can afford to drop his pin if all his bridge games are as profitable as the invitation meet at Delta Tau Delta last week. St. Clair and Shag Brownell clipped Snow Man Hazlett so bad that he is hollering yet.

Skip Stevens, female impersonator, had the night watchman busting his breeches all over Cafisch Hall Sunday night. In fact he was so sure that he had the judy cornered in Ray Kelley's room that he reported it to the dean. (This year's freshmen are highly original if nothing else.)

Due to the fact that women attach a great significance to the Senior Superlatives they would sure appreciate it if the males did not vote for any brother or even George Phi Gam for May Queen.

FROSH QUINTET DROPS FINALE TO MERCHANTS

Frye Has 17 Points, McKnight 14, As Yearlings Fade at Close to Bow

After holding a slight advantage during a turbulent first half, the 'Gator freshmen wilted to allow the Meadville Merchant quintet to carry off a 41-36 decision in the home gym last Thursday. It was the season finale for the locals and they threatened to climax the campaign with a win during the earlier part of the pastime, but were powerless to stop the late Merchant drive.

Hank Frye with 17 counters, kept the blue and gold in the ball game, but the combination of Bill Carlson's 16 points and Dill's 10 tallies made 'Gator efforts futile. Frank McKnight bucketed 7 fielders for a 14-point aggregate.

The first period saw both fives holding the lead at different intervals. Bill Carlson, who incidentally plays on the varsity when not serving with the Businessmen, opened the scoring with a fielder from in front of the hoop. Two free throws by Frye, Caravacci's two-pointer, and McKnight's floor basket, sandwiching a charity toss by Marley, brought festivities to a 6-3 count at the quarter whistle.

The second period saw the yearlings drive to a 9-5 advantage before the Shylocks could get moving. Once underway, they proved hard to stop and a 'Gator timeout found the Merchants in front, 13-11. The locals rebounded from the respite and took the lead for the last time in the ball game before falling behind at 17-16 where the half-whistle found them.

In the second half the Ochsites pulled even at 17 all but fell behind as the Merchants, paced by Carlson, turned on the heat. With a 32-21 count against them, the yearlings made their final bid, and with Frye and McKnight ringing up the points, pulled to within 3 points of the visitors 37 total. After a Merchant intermission the blue and gold was powerless to stop a final burst and went out by 41-36.

Coming as it did after two weeks of inactivity, the ball game produced some sloppy play, but showed evidence that Coach Karl Lawrence will have several eligibles from whom to choose a successor to the blonde dynamo, Al White. Frye, Caravacci, Wellday, McKnight, Long, Westerman, and Johnston, the nucleus of the freshman squad, shall probably see one of their number receive the coveted spot.

The lineups:

PHI PSIS MEET AT WASH-JEFF

Plans are being made by the Washington and Jefferson College chapter of Phi Kappa Psi social fraternity for a district council to be held here from March 31 through April 2.

The council is a biannual affair for the purpose of checking the functions of the chapters of the fraternity in this district.

At least four delegates from each chapter in the district are expected to attend, those in charge have predicted. Schools which will be represented include Allegheny, Pennsylvania State College, University of West Virginia, Ohio Wesleyan University, Wittenberg, Ohio State University, and Case School of Applied Science.

National officers of the fraternity and alumni of each chapter are also expected to be present.

SOCIETY

By BETTY SPRING

With Pygmalion downtown, the Cwen dance on Friday, radio parties on Saturday, and the luscious warm week-end weather combined with all Bousson has to offer, it is no wonder that work and worries were dismissed from student minds and the benefits of the week-end eagerly taken in.

Alpha Chi Omega.
After the regular meeting on Monday, March 20, at which time the installation of new officers took place, Alpha Chi Omega held a coffee hour in the rooms in honor of Mrs. John Barkley, the National Inspector. Several of the Meadville alumnae were present including Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Ballinger, Miss Mary Hendershot, and Mrs. Brown.

Kappa Alpha Theta.
On Monday evening, March 20, the Theta sophomores gave the traditional Kitten party for the chapter. Costumed in children's outfits the Thetas enjoyed dinner and various games.

Phi Kappa Psi.
The Phi Psis gave a radio party on Saturday evening, March 25, that somewhat resembled an all-college. The radio beat it out for the dancers while others preferred an evening of bridge. Mr. Ogilvie and Miss Hendershot chaperoned. The guests were Sonny Spence, '38, Kip Miller, '41, Bob Appleyard, Bill St. Clair, George Hartwell, of '40, Mike Verecke, Dave Miller, Bob McVey, of '39, and Dick Graft, '42. Refreshments were served during the evening. The committee in charge was made up of Bill Williams, '39, Orwen Rector, '40, and Gil Brown, '41.

Delta Tau Delta.
A W.P.A. radio party was sponsored by the Delta Tau Delta freshmen at the Shelter on Saturday evening, March 25. Costumes suitable to members of the Works Progress Administration were worn, but instead of leaning upon the traditional shovel the evening was spent in swinging out. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irvin chaperoned, and all petition were the crowding of the social calendar and the intrusion of athletic and other events on the Saturdays set aside for social affairs.

The new ruling allows the functions to last until twelve o'clock on Fridays instead of eleven-thirty. The committee from A.U.C. which drafted the petition includes Bruce Dearing, '39, chairman, Helen Litten, '40, Dorothy Dotterer, '39, and John Jones, '39.

O. D. K. Rejected.
The proposal for the return of Omicron Delta Kappa was rejected by the faculty whose opinion it is that such an organization is not suitable for this type of campus.
Dr. Rowlingson, who submitted the idea to the A.U.C., said, "The view taken by the faculty in regard to Omicron Delta Kappa is the result of deliberation and reasoning. The reason presented in opposition to such an organization were valid and brought about the realization that a body of this sort is not necessary on the Allegheny campus." Members of the faculty felt that the A.U.C. performed a similar function.

Vacations Committee.
A committee on vacations was appointed at the meeting. This group is to determine the length and dates of school recesses. Professor Chester A. Darling is chairman of the committee composed of Dean Laila Skinner, Professor C. F. Ross, and Professor John Cavelli.

Phi Psis to Hold Convention at W. & J.
The convention will be opened Friday, March 31, with registration and an informal reception in the afternoon. A combination smoker and stag party will be held Friday afternoon, with a banquet in the evening in the ballroom of the George Washington Hotel. An informal gathering at the chapter house on Sunday afternoon, to be followed by an informal dinner, will complete the week-end.

Walter W. Murphy, prominent Sewickley, Pa. citizen, son of Senator Murphy, of Mississippi, will serve as toastmaster at the banquet on Saturday evening. The principal speaker will be Judge Howard W. Hughes, president judge of the Washington Court of Common Pleas.

Phi Kappa Psi was founded at Washington and Jefferson College in 1852, and is one of the two fraternities which had their birth at the historic Washington College.

Chairman's Duties.
The duties of the secretary, treasurer, social chairman, house chairman, and music chairman are similar to what they have been this year, but the publicity chairman is a newly created position. This chairman will have charge of posters, of the arranging of bulletin boards, and the writing of news articles for school and city publications. She will be responsible for verbal and written announcements of general and specific interest.

Nominations and Elections.
Nominations for the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer will be made by the women's senate of the preceding year, excluding the junior members for presidential nominations and the sophomore members for secretary and treasurer nominations. The president and vice-president will be selected from a slate of at least three, and the secretary and treasurer will be selected from separate slates of three junior women each.

More Efficiency.
The plan is followed by a statement containing the reasons for its initiation. "It is to be hoped that the expenditure and budgetary control and the regular publication of income statements plus any other money saving advice which the comptroller is able to offer will lower unnecessary expenditures, make for more careful planning of expenditure, and give the publications board whatever peace of mind there is accompanying the knowledge of just where they stand financially."

Hobby Prizes Offered Again This Year

Rose Latta, '38, won her prize for modelling while Kathryn Wilson, '40, excelled in the knitting division.
Submitting prize library collections were Rex Malmquist, '38, Ben Miller, '38, and Alfred Wellons, '38.

DEANS TO HIT CHAPEL CUTTING
Letters have been sent out this week to students who have exceeded the allowed number of chapel cuts this semester.
These official announcements from the deans' office make it clear that the same system of chapel cuts prevails this semester as has been used in previous years.
Each freshman, sophomore and junior student is allowed only five chapel cuts during the semester. Excessive cuts will result in the student's being placed on disciplinary probation, it was announced.

FRATERNITY Averages Released by Deans organized campus students is 76.08, as compared with 75.62 for the organized groups.

Class Averages.
The highest average among the classes is found in the senior class which has a rating of 80.85. Juniors and sophomores follow with averages of 78.88 and 75.91 respectively. The freshman average is 75.91.
Tea Set Awarded.
The Pan-Hellenic silver tea service, given each year by that organization to the sorority with the highest scholastic average, will again be presented to the Kappas, who have held it for three consecutive semesters.

New Catalogue Will Appear This Week
Reis library, Lake Siple at Bousson, and Carnegie hall.
As is customary, the catalogue contains the complete student register, the college calendar, a register of the faculty and administration, awards, honors, prizes, and other information pertinent to the college.
On the faculty committee which prepared the new catalogue are Mr. Frederick F. Seely, Professor Stanley S. Swartley, Professor Julian L. Ross, and Professor C. W. Uford.

Playshop Plans More One-Acts
Van Vlack, James Gettamy, Wilmot Bartle, and Bittner Snead. William McEwen is in charge of production. Lighting for both plays will be in Robert Cappe's hands.
These one-act play programs are not open to the public, but only to students in the drama department. There will be an informal gathering on the stage after the performances at which time refreshments will be served, it was announced.
