New York, May 31, 1918.

Mr. Louis Alber,
1104 Hippodrome Bldg.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Alber :

I am sorry I cannot undertake the Chautauqua work in Canada. I am not quite strong enough yet for six consecutive weeks and even if I were, I am so tied up between my desk and Washington, that I could not get off at this time.

Thank you for remembering me however.

Very sincerely yours,

E.C.
